Music, Singing Fun for Children, On Bard's Heyday

Music by members of the Oregon Shakespearean festival band and songs by the madrigal singers will be part of the entertainment planned for the annual Bard's Heyday to be held at 5 p.m., Sunday, July 17, at the festival theater in Ashland. Harry Skerry will be the master of ceremonies.

Pantomimes and monologues by cast members and folk songs by Brad Curtis also are listed on the program of events.

Requests this year for entertainment particularly for children has resulted in plans for events that will be directed to the younger set.

An addition to the Heyday will be booths where authentic souvenirs will be sold, suitable for holiday gifts.

Money realized from the Heyday festivities, as in the past, will go toward scholarships for festival actors and actresses. Tudor guild members, an auxiliary of the festival, sponsor the event.

Tickets will be available at the theater or may be purchased previously at the First National bank or from any Tudor guild member, those in charge point out.

Those attending will have the opportunity of meeting this year's festival cast members and also to tour the backstage of the theater.

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Is there such a thing as a truly beautiful coin in the United States currency? I saw displayed in a New York shop window a coin that is really a thing of beauty. It is an authentic Spanish gold doubloon. Another beautiful coin in the same display was one of the celebrated "pieces of eight" so frequently referred to in tales of piracy. The only truly beautiful piece of United States currency I have seen so far is the $20 gold piece designed by St. Gaudens, which was withdrawn from circulation some years ago.

Among the Married
A Baltimorean wants to know how she can stop her husband from referring to her as his "ball and chain." Very simple problem. All she has to do is refer to him as her "ball and chain." As for example, when he is seen approaching at a cocktail party or similar gathering she should comment: "Well, here comes my ball and chain." That's a sure fire cure. Has been thoroughly checked and tested.

As It Was
When George Jessel and Walter Winchell were around 11, they joined up with another kid name Jack Wiener to form a singing trio which performed at a moving picture theater in Harlem. They were billed as "The Three Little Boys With the Big Voices." I don't know what became of Jack Wiener.

Sidelights
Last year the nine traffic courts in New York City handled about a million and a half cases and collected about $9,000,000 in fines. . . . Am asked if I know anybody named Merry Christmas. I don't. However, I know of a Mary Christmas who is a member of the celebrated Christmas family of Maryland, famed as race horse owners, breeders and trainers.

Ninth Wife
The ninth Mrs. Thomas Manville, the former Anita Roddy-Eden, is reported to have done very well as a night spot attraction in London. She was paid $1,500 a week. The ninth Mrs. Manville told reporters she was extremely pleased with the opportunity of earning some money. She said, "Tommy only pays me $280 a week and that is hardly enough for a girl."

Mother Here
Mrs. Florence Smith, Detroit, Mich., is visiting with her daughter and family, Mrs. Richard Gordon, 116 Medford heights.

Please Note
Do you know a 15 year old divorcee? There are about 250 15-year-old wives divorced every year in the United States. Three hundred and forty married women of 15 years of age annually become widows in this country. Every year here nearly 15,000 girls of 15 years are married.

Asides
Those who should know claim the best salesmen and insurance agents are those in the 45 year old to 60 year old age group. . . . Am asked the real name of George Burns, the comic actor, of the team of Burns and Allen. It is Nathan Birnbaum. Incidentally, the professional name used by his whimsical partner is her own. She was christened Grace Ethel Cecil Rosalie Allen.

Progress
My progress continued to astonish me. Now I have a reader in Menocqua, Wis. He says his uncle, Edward Schilling, who is 87, still has all his natural teeth. Am also informed that another Wisconsinian is equally fortunate. This is Dr. Arthur Jennings of Milwaukee, who is 88. Doctor Jennings has had the benefit of some expert knowledge in preserving his teeth. He is a dentist. Come to think of it, how about dentists? Do they keep their natural teeth longer than the average person? I'll have to get some of the dental nurses among our readers to check on this.

Brookings Lily Parade Scheduled on Sunday

Brookings, Ore.—On Sunday, July 17, the annual lily parade will be held here, with between 20 and 30 lily bedecked floats, several bands, and at least three riding clubs.

The parade will begin at noon, and will go through a town decorated with the famous lilies grown in this area.

The Chetco wranglers will have a rodeo Saturday afternoon, and Sunday. A carnival will be in town at the same time.

The flowers in the Amorphophallus plant release a penetrating odor of rotting fish or meat.
