

Dodgers 12½ Games In Lead; Phillies, Indians, Yankees Win

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer

Edwin Donald Snider the Duke of Flatbush, became king of the Major League home run clouters Saturday when he blasted a paid to give him 30 for the season and the Dodgers a 5-4 victory over Cincinnati on the margin of his second poke in the ninth inning.

Snider, thus taking over the home run lead from Ted Kluszewski of the losers who still has 29, also boosted his Major League leading runs batted in total to 92.

The muscular center fielder, first to bat in the ninth, broke up the game with his drive that just reached the center field seats. Relief pitcher Clem Labine was credited with his ninth victory against two losses. Wally Post earlier hit a two run homer for Cincy. The victory boosted Brooklyn's lead over second place Milwaukee to 12½ games.

Giants Overcome Deficit
The Braves suffered an 8-7 defeat to the oncoming Giants in the Polo Grounds when rookie reliever Phil Paine wild-pitched home the winning run in the ninth inning. The Giants who have won five games in a row, had to overcome a 7-5 deficit with a three-run rally in the ninth.

Robin Roberts won his 14th game for the Phillies, 5-4, from the collapsing Cubs, being stalked to a pair of homers by Andy Seminick and Roy Smalley in the second inning which put him in front to stay. Ernie Banks hit a two-run homer off Roberts in the first inning when Chicago scored three of its runs. Roberts settled down thereafter and pitched his 16th complete game—tops in the league.

The Pirates defeated the Cardinals, 5-1, on the five hit pitching of Rookie Lino Donoso, clinching the victory with a four run rally in the sixth in which the key blow was a two-run single by Dick Groat. Ken Boyer's homer spoiled Donoso's shutout.

Houtteman Wins
The Indians received four hit pitching from Art Houtteman and defeated the Red Sox 4-1, in the American League. Larry Doby and Gene Woodling hit homers for the Indians to give Houtteman his seventh victory.

The White Sox, rebounding from a recent slump, made it five victories in a row, defeating the Orioles, 4-3, with a three-run rally in the bottom of the ninth. Relief pitcher Ray Moore walked home the winning

Medford Studs Club Crescent City 13-2

Medford's Cheney Studs gave First Baseman Jack Cooney's managerial career a proper send-off when they bounced the Crescent City Merchants 13 to 2 Friday night in a non-league baseball scuffle at the fairgrounds.

Cooney took over as player manager of the Medford club last week and it was the Studs first game with him at the helm.

Medford broke up a reasonably tight ball game with seven runs in the seventh inning and five markers in the eighth. It got shutout pitching for the first five innings from Marv Scherpf. Jim Kelly then blanked the Merchants or three innings but in the ninth he weakened to allow three walks and two hits. That permitted Crescent City to score its only runs.

Wooten Drives In Four
The new Medford skipper, himself, helped the cause along with two hits in four times up. Derald Wooten slugged two for five, including a triple and was credited with four runs batted in. Larry Bigham, making a rare appearance in the Medford outfield, also had a triple and single in five turns.

Scherpf and Cooney singled in the third frame and Ed McCullough drew a walk to load the bags. Terry Maddox then wait-run with the bases loaded. Dave Philley sparked Baltimore with a homer and a triple, the only extra base hits of the game.

The Yankees had their first place lead in the American League cut to three games when they suffered a 6-3, 2-1 pair of defeats to the Tigers in Detroit. In the opener, Al Kaline hit his 20th homer with a man on base off reliever Jim Konstanty to spark a three-run rally in the seventh. Billy Hoelt held the Yankees to five hits in the second game for his ninth victory. He missed a shutout on Bill Skowron's homer in the eighth.

ed out Jim Barrett's pitches for a walk. That forced in the only run which crossed before the seventh inning.

Ron Maurer three-baggered and McCullough, Cooney, Derald Wooten, Bigham and Kelly all got singles in the seventh inning.

There was a walk, an error, a passed ball and two stolen bases. Derald Wooten's three-base hit drove in three runs in the eighth inning and he in turn was brought in by his brother Dick's single. Two bases on balls, two hit batters and Kelly's sacrifice were involved in the scoring.

Larry Taylor and Leon Morgan got the hits for Crescent City in the final inning.

19 Strikeouts

Scherpf and Kelly each gave up two hits. Scherpf fanned nine batters and Kelly 10 for a total of 19. Kelly issued six walks and Scherpf gave no free passes. Barrett was reached for 11 hits, gave five walks and hit two batters. He whiffed four. Reliever Tex Gatlin yielded two hits and it was the sixth victory for the Studs over California opposition. They have tied one other Cal club and lost to none.

Medford is in Roseburg today completing a Southern Oregon League series. Manager Jack Cooney's plans called for pitching Warren Noyes last night and Derald Wooten or Terry Maddox today. He hoped to have Jack Fassett as second base and Chuck DeAutremont in the outfield.

GRAND PACIFIC SHOOT AT TRAPS HERE — Medford Gun club's spacious 10-trap layout will be scene this week of the annual Grand Pacific tourney of Pacific International Trapshooting association. Practice rounds are scheduled Wednesday, July 20. Registered events will open Thursday and will continue through Sunday. Medford hosts are anticipating a field of 300 trapshooters from eight western states and British Columbia. Trophies and prize money are estimated at $12,070.

SHOTGUNNERS IN MIDST OF FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR PITA TOURNAMENT

Members of Medford Gun club are in the midst of final preparations and arrangements for the most important trapshoot in local history, the Grand Pacific tournament of the Pacific International Trapshooting association.

The Gun club, host in recent years to three state shoots, has ventured out to handle competition which includes eight states and one Canadian province.

First visiting shooters will try their guns at the Medford traps on Wednesday when a practice program of 50 targets at 16 yards 50 handicap birds and 25 pairs of doubles begins at 10 a.m.

On Thursday the registered and championship competition starts with the 16-yard class tournament. The four-day hassle concludes with the Grand Pacific handicap on Sunday. Friday action will provide the first half of the singles and the doubles contention. Second half of the singles and the prelim handicap are set for Saturday. A number of lesser mantles will be decided during the singles, including ladies and junior togas.

Mink Scarf Offered
Shooters during the tourney will also have their aim on high over-all and high all-around prizes. Walter Fisher of Wedderburn is also offering a five-skin mink scarf as a special ladies' trophy. Any woman shooting either 100 targets at 16 yards or 100 handicap targets in championship events is eligible to compete.

Cash purses in the shoot, it is figured, will total $8,000. Perpetual purses among, to $1,400 and added money amounts to $1,670. There will be option competition in connection with the various contests.

Entries are anticipated from most of the member states and British Columbia. States in the PITA include Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, California and Oregon. Among those who have already made reservations here is Maynard Henry, prominent Los Angeles attorney, who has been a high official in the Amateur Trapshooting association and who has won honors also in PITA events.

Members of the Medford club were at the grounds today practicing. The shooting provided means also of testing all 10 traps.

The Medford Gun club is just west of the Crater Lake highway Four Corners north of Medford. The public is invited to watch the shooters.

TIME COUNTER WINS

Agua Caliente, Mex. — (U.P.) — Time Counter, a flashy three-year old, made a bold claim for local sprint honors Saturday by romping home in the featured Lansdowne purse at six furlongs. He vanquished Bella Fia by three lengths, with Kuneen another length further back for the show.

Team Match, Mixed 2-Ball On RVCC Tap

Mixed two-ball, men's team match and junior activities are on the golf agenda of Rogue Valley Country club during the next week.

A mixed four-ball eightsome match is set for 5 p.m. Friday, July 22, with drawing for partners before teeing off. A sizable field has already entered but more men and women are asked to call the pro shop and sign up. Each team will have three clubs, a wood, an iron and a putter.

A team match with Eugene men is set for Sunday morning, July 24. All RVCC men wanting to play are asked to sign up at the pro shop or phone in their entries.

Prizes to Winners

Juniors will tee off in boys' pee wees' and girls' division at 8 a.m. Monday to qualify for a match play meet which will conclude on Friday. All players winning a match will get prizes.

In junior medal play last Friday Steve Cummins was low gross in the boys division with 97. Jimmie Emmens was low net with 70 and John Root had 78. Gary Milschke, Vaughn Bigelow and Martin Temple were tied for first blind bogey.

Lee Wimberly was low gross in nine-hole pee wee play with 64. Carl Voegtly and Rickie Gilchrist were low net with 37s and Richie Knight had 39. Larry Berg had first blind bogey. Sue Knight with 66 had girls' nine hole low gross and Diana Gilchrist took net honors with a 40.

Portland Scores Nine Runs To Win Friday Slugfest

San Diego — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers, trailing 3-6, exploded for nine runs on eight hits in the ninth inning Friday night to trounce league-leading San Diego, 12-6, in a Pacific Coast League contest.

The victory here, coupled with Seattle's wins at Sacramento, cut the Padres' league lead to only half a game. The surprising Beavers, who blanked San Diego 3-0 Thursday night, won the series, 3-2.

Both squads used four hurlers, with Ed Burtch, who took over in the fifth, the winner for a 2-3 record, and reliever Al Lyons the loser, his third setback. Portland out-hit San Diego, 16-12.

Rejected Wins Gold Cup Race

Inglewood, Calif. — (U.P.) — King Ranch's Rejected, reportedly ailing only a few days back, closed with an enormous burst of speed Saturday to score a nose victory in the $137,100 Hollywood Gold Cup.

It took a track record performance for the five-year-old Rejected to win the Gold Cup but he had what was necessary as he ran down the favored Alidon in the stretch. His time of 1:59 3/5 cut a fifth of a second off the track record set by Noor in 1950.

The top weighted Determined was third and Alfred G. Vander-

Beavers Lose, 2-0; Padres Lead League

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The Pacific Coast League Los Angeles Angels Saturday won their fifth straight game by taking a series opener from Portland, 2-0.

The Angels, out-hit 4-3 by Portland, bunched their efforts to score both their runs in the sixth. Portland managed to get two men on base in the first inning and again in the second, but the Beavers were all but neutralized after that.

Lefty Joe Hatten (7-4) was the winning hurler, while Red Adams (7-5) was the loser. Adams worked seven innings and then was relieved by Royce Lint.

Blanks Oakland

Oakland, Calif. — (U.P.) — Vic Lombardi of Seattle blanked Oakland on five hits, 1-0, Saturday to rack up his fifth Pacific Coast League win of the season over the Oaks.

The little Rainier southpaw's record is only 7-6 but the Oaks again proved no mystery to him. The win in the series opener left the Rainiers still a half game behind the league-leading San Diego Padres who downed San Francisco, 9-4.

Seattle scored its lone run off George Bamberger (9-7) in the seventh inning after two were out. Bob Balcena singled, Monte Basgall walked and pinch-hitter Harvey Zernia singled on the ground to right field scoring Balcena.

Seven Runs in Eighth

San Diego, Calif. — (U.P.) — Coast League leading San Diego exploded with seven runs in the eighth inning Saturday to beat San Francisco, 9-4, and preserve a half game lead over second-place Seattle.

The Padres collected only four hits in the wild inning, but 11 men went to the plate and were helped by three walks and an error.

Don Fracchia (8-8), who relieved starter Gene Bearden in the seventh was charged with the defeat. Bill Thomson (3-2) entered the game in the eighth and won it.

The Padres got 10 hits off Bearden. Fracchia and Bill Bradford. Bob Kerrigan and Thomas gave up a total of seven hits. John Carmichael held the Seals hitless in the ninth.

Shift to Salt Lake

Denied by Oaks Owner

Oakland, Calif. — (U.P.) — Brick Laws, owner of the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League, has denied published reports that the club's franchise would be shifted to Salt Lake City, Utah. "I never heard of it," said Laws, who denied he was negotiating for any move of the sixth-place team.

"I have no intention of getting out of baseball," he added. "Oakland will have a team as long as I have anything to say about it."
