

Phoenix Man Wed in Albany Rites; Couple Live Here

Phoenix—Miss Barbara Ann Walker, Albany, and Keith Jennings Thompson, Phoenix, were wed in ceremonies at the United Presbyterian church, Albany, Sunday, July 10.

Medical Society Members, Guests, Meet for Party

A lawn and swimming party late Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, 222 Valley View drive, was attended by members of the Jackson County Medical society, their wives, and other guests. Honored at the party was Dr. William W. P. Holt, longtime practicing physician and surgeon of the county.

Another guest at the party was Dr. Charles Sweeney, former practicing physician also in this county, who now lives in the Lithia hotel at Ashland.

From Grants Pass were Dr. Ray Johnson, president of the Josephine County Medical society, and Mrs. Johnson.

A barbecue buffet supper was served and John Lusk and his orchestra provided music for dancing in the patio.

Dr. Holt used as his subject, "Horse and Buggy Medicine," and told of practice in the county before automobiles, telephones and electric lights became common conveniences.

Dr. Holt is the oldest living member of the society and came to this county in 1906. He was born in China of missionary parents and he received his medical training in Oregon, graduating in 1905.

He lived in Eagle Point at the time he made his calls on horseback.

A doctor's saddle bags took the place of the present day drug store and laboratory and "lamp-light" surgery was the order of the day.

SOC Registrar To Attend Conference

Mrs. Mabel W. Winston, Registrar of Southern Oregon college, will participate in the Pacific Northwest conference on higher education, to be held at the University of Washington, July 21-23.

"Quality and Quantity in Higher Education" will be the conference theme. Problems of philosophy, programs and procedures will be considered at the meeting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walker, Albany, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Howard Thompson, Phoenix, and the late Mr. Thompson. Both are graduates of Oregon Technical institute.

Larry Walker, her brother, gave the bride in marriage. The Rev. J. Boyd Patterson read the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, floor length, with a short train. Her fingertip veil was fastened to a Juliet cap trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

Miss Adrienne Walker, sister of the bride, and maid of honor, wore a yellow crystallette ballerina length dress with a large picture hat of the same material.

Bridesmaids Sharon Walker, Diane Walker, also sisters of the bride, and Mary Ellen Coleman wore dresses identical with that of the maid of honor.

Best man was Don Hubble, Klamath Falls. Charles Siver, Larry Walker, and Robert L. Goddard ushered.

The bride's mother wore a street length beige cotton lace and linen dress with powder blue accessories and pink Rubrum lily corsage. A street length turquoise cotton lace dress with white accessories and pink rubrum lily corsage were worn by the bridegroom's mother.

About 100 guests attended a reception in the church rooms after the ceremonies. Mrs. Norma Walker and Mrs. Ernest Karlise poured. Mrs. George Siner, Mrs. Barbara Lines, and Mrs. Ray Ziegler served.

The newlyweds made a two-day trip to Oregon beaches and are now living at 825 South Oakdale avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is employed by Alley Lumber Co.

Contest Party

The Women's fellowship of the First Baptist church, divided into three groups for a contest, will be hostesses to the winning group at a luncheon at 1 p. m., Thursday, July 21, at the home of Mrs. R. L. Hague, 149 De Hague avenue. Reservations should be made by calling telephone 2-9904 or 2-4181 by Tuesday.
