

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Madden Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Madden left Friday for their home in LaCrosse, Kans., after being here for several weeks, to visit and to observe their 50th wedding anniversary. They are former Ashland residents. Mr. Madden was in the tire business here for 25 years and they lived in Ashland from 1921 to 1948. Since 1948 they have lived in Kansas.

About 140 persons attended the anniversary party, held in the Ashland Civic club house on Sunday afternoon, July 3, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock. A family luncheon attended by 26 relatives of the couple was served at the club house at noon before the open house began and then in the evening a dinner was served with 42 persons in attendance, including relatives and out-of-town guests here for the observance.

Mrs. Madden wore a gold colored dress for the occasion. Her corsage was an orchid backed with gold netting and bow, a gift from the couple's children.

Magnolias Gift
The room and tables were decorated with white and yellow carnations with white gladiolus and white magnolias. The magnolias were a gift from friends at Sacramento, Calif., who had the blossoms airmailed. The flower arrangements were designed by Mrs. Walter Zetzman. Another gift was a bouquet of red roses wired from Indianapolis, Ind., by cousins of Mrs. Madden.

During the early part of the open house, backing background music was played on the piano by Mr. Madden's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Madden, of San Francisco.

The Rev. Ross Knotts, pastor of the Methodist church, offered a prayer and Eugene Gosson sang, accompanied by Mrs. Joanne Souza.

Refreshments
The Maddens cut the tiered wedding cake served for refreshments and Mrs. Thomas Tonner and Mrs. Leno Roseberry poured coffee. Mrs. Carl Berninghausen presided at the punch table. Mrs. Eugene Gosson had charge of registering the guests.

Five teenage girls assisted with the serving. They were the Misses Dari Ramsey, Karen Drake, Ruth Johnson, Shirley Enblom, and Darleen Judkins.

Mrs. Bill Weber furnished accompaniment for Mr. Gosson for songs during the event.

The Maddens' three daughters and one son were with their parents for the day, with their families.

Children Named
They include Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Madden and granddaughter, Louise, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Schilling, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berry, Dunsmuir, Calif.

Five grandchildren and their families also were there. They included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, Happy Camp, Calif., with Marcia and Marilyn; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fuchs, Medford; Mrs. Leonard Stallworth of Fortuna, Calif.; Richard Reigel of Ashland, and Kenneth Berry, Dunsmuir.

Mr. Madden's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Madden, San Francisco, were there.

Three visitors of over 50 years acquaintance with the Maddens were guests. They were Mrs. Nettie Watson, Brookings, a girlhood friend of Mrs. Madden whom she had not seen since 1906; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, Niles, Calif., who were married the same summer, in 1905, in the same town in Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Madden served as attendants for the Millers on their wedding day.

Third Letter From Wests Tells of Formosan Visit

(Editor's note: From Taipei, Formosa, Dr. D. Kirkland West has sent the Mail Tribune his third letter dealing with conditions in the far east. Dr. West and his wife are on a "Ministry to Missions" world tour. He is pastor of the Presbyterian church here.)

Text of the last correspondence, dated Sunday, July 10, follows:

"Formosa" means "beautiful." For once a place more than lives up to its name. Yesterday's trip made me homesick for the rocky gorges of the Rogue river. The mountains shot straight up from a roaring rock studded river to over 10,000 feet. Looking into the deep green water one could see trout swimming around just waiting for a competent angler.

"We hiked up a steep mountain path, by soldiers carefully checking our passes, and finally came to the little Christian church of the aborigines. These people were once known as the 'Formosa Head Hunters.' A man could not be considered a suitor until he had proven his manhood by taking at least one head. Changed.

"Yet these very people had been changed by the Gospel and the little children sang 'Jesus Loves Me' in their native Tsal dialect.

"At the foot of the mountain we met several soldiers who had been Chinese Communist soldiers but who had been captured by our American troops. While prisoners they were visited by the Rev. Earl Woodbury, a Presbyterian missionary, and they renounced Communism and Mr. Woodbury was decorated by both President Eisenhower and President Chiang Kai-shek.

"Mr. Woodbury was with me and he called these soldiers over and we were shown the Chinese Nationalist flag tattooed on their chest—and on their left arms the marks 'Oppose Communism. Resist Russia.' These men will pay with their lives if ever they are captured by the Communists. Yet here is the hope for the free world—over 30,000 former Communists chose to come to freedom and Taiwan leaving home and family rather than return to Communism. Here is a story that should be told over and over—Communism can be licked—and millions under the heel of Communism long to be free and will fight to the death to regain that freedom.

Answer, 'No'

"Do the people of Formosa think they will soon return to the mainland? The answer to that is 'No.' They are quite realistic. They say, 'It is only by World War III that we can hope to return to the mainland.' They fear that we will give in to the Communists and will sign over Formosa to them as we gave the Communists all of Manchuria and parts of Japan at Yalta.

"One very well informed American said, 'Why do we all-we could have defeated the Chinese in Korea had we been always throw away our victories? I would to and we could have saved China in so doing.' You may not agree with his position but it is one he holds along with many more who know the true situation.

"Today is Sunday and I have visited four church services already this morning and spoken at each service. This afternoon I have two more services at which I am to speak.

"If I am to get this out by the 2 p.m. mail I must stop now. More impressions will be sent from Hong Kong where we go on Tuesday."
