OFFICIALS SETTING UP FOR PITA GRAND SHOOT

Gordon Hull, Salem, Herman Kuhlmann, Spokane, Wash., and Clyde Wonder, from the Portland area, were to have arrived here today to set up for the Pacific International Trapshooting association's Grand Pacific shoot at Medford Gun club.

Hull is secretary-manager of the PITA. Kuhlmann will be head cashier and Wonder assistant cashier for the big shoot that is expected to draw scattergunners from eight western states and British Columbia.

From 75 to 100 local and visiting shooters are anticipated on Wednesday at the Medford club to fire in a 150-target day-long practice program. Regular registered shooting for PITA championships begins Thursday and continues through Sunday. Total entry is estimated at 300 shooters.

About 20 club members participated in practice shooting and in work around the grounds Sunday. All 10 traps were tested. E. W. Pease, president of the Medford club and the PITA, reported that "everything checked out on the traps down the line."

The work consisted of "odds and ends" in readying the grounds for the shoot. The tasks included spreading gravel and burning weeds.

Class championships at 16 yards will be fired Thursday with first half of the singles at 16 yards set for Friday morning and doubles rivalry for that afternoon. Second half of the singles will be fired Saturday morning with the preliminary handicap in the afternoon. The

Padres Move Half-Game Up In PCL

The San Diego Padres climbed back a half-game toward their old spot at the top of the Pacific Coast League last night, and they're hoping the Oakland Oaks will give them another half-game boost today.

If their hopes are realized, the Padres will move in against league-leading Seattle Thursday trailing the Rainiers by only half a game.

San Diego was involved in the only game played last night, and the Padres saw-sawed their way to a 4-3 victory over the San Francisco Seals. It was a contest of wild pitching, but John Carmichael managed to survive for his 10th win of the year against five defeats.

and a wild pitch by San Francisco starter Tony Ponce, but the Seals bounced back with two runs in the fourth on two walks, a single and a wild throw by shortstop Buddy Peterson.

The Seals evened it at 3-3 in the seventh, but San Diego broke the deadlock in their half on a single, an error by relief pitcher Steve Nagy, and a sacrifice fly. Nagy took his seventh loss against three wins.

San Diego and San Francisco will be idle tonight, but Hollywood goes against Sacramento, Seattle meets Oakland, and Los Angeles plays Portland.
