

Local and Personal

Carpenters Needed — George Potucek business agent of the local Carpenter's union, said today he has been informed that carpenters are needed in Klamath Falls.

Dealer Ill — The Rev. L. G. Weaver, 1453 Poplar drive, retired Methodist minister and now a Raleigh dealer, has been confined to his home the past month with a severe illness. Mrs. Weaver reported this morning. His condition is somewhat improved and he is able to receive visitors, Mrs. Weaver said.

At Sacred Heart — Walter Charley and Richard Norris, both of Central Point, are medical patients at Sacred Heart hospital, attendants said yesterday.

Teenage Dance — A dance for teenagers will be sponsored Saturday, July 23, from 8:30 to 11 p.m., by the Youth Council of the YMCA at the "Y". The dance will be chaperoned and teenagers are invited.

Hazards Found — City Fire Marshal Truman Nelson inspected three business occupancies, one apartment house and one dry cleaning plant yesterday and issued seven orders for correction of hazardous conditions.

At Community — Two surgery patients were reported today at Community hospital, Dean Cook, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cook, 37 Winema way, and Linda Isaacs, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roby L. Isaacs Jr., route 2, box 463B, Medford.

Gasoline Spills — Firemen were called to flush down five gasoline spills from autos in downtown Medford yesterday. A pumper also stood by at police request at the scene of an accident at Riverside ave. and McAndrews rd. about 1:40 p.m. No fire resulted.

Square Dance — A square dance will be held at the Medford Moose Hall Saturday, July 23, at 8:30 p.m. The dance is open to the public and all square dancers are invited. Fran Cronin will call the squares. Ladies are requested to bring sandwiches for potluck refreshments.

Traffic Mishap — A truck driven by Frank Andrew Wald, Sixth and Hazel sts., Central Point, and an automobile driven by Dorothy M. Dorff, 112 Niantic st., collided at the intersection of Columbus st. and Pennsylvania ave., according to city police. No injuries were reported, police said. No citations were issued.

FOE Picnic — The annual family picnic for members of the Fraternal Order Eagles will be held Sunday, July 24, at the Rogue River park in Rogue River. The event will be a barbecue and the men will furnish the food. Soft drinks will be provided for the children. All Eagles members and their families are invited.

Cats Poisoned — Cats owned by R. K. Buxton, 2479 Sunnyview dr., were poisoned when he was away to camp at Yakima, Wash., according to Mrs. S. W. Richardson, manager of the Southern Oregon Humane society. Through reports from several sources, the Humane society cannot definitely put its finger on the guilty person or persons, Mrs. Richardson said. However, it can have its suspicions, she added. The cats were household pets of Buxton's daughter.

Barn, Chickenhouse, Destroyed by Flames

A barn and chickenhouse at the Gilbert Sorum home, 1309 Thomas rd., burned about 5:30 p.m. yesterday.

Two trucks were dispatched by the Medford fire department and firemen reported that the flames enveloped the entire barn. They said that hay in the barn apparently was accidentally ignited. Reports from another source indicated that a total loss in tools and furnishings resulted. The owner told firemen that there was no insurance on the barn.

The chickenhouse was badly burned but there were said to be no chickens in the structure. At 7:55 p.m., firemen were summoned to a reported house fire at the residence of Mrs. Emma Hooper, 1028 1/2 East 11th st. Damage was confined to a refrigerator motor, firemen stated.

Pinball Ordinance Fails in Tie Vote

Portland — (U.P.) — An effort by Commissioner Stanley Earl to put over an emergency ordinance in the city council to make pinball machines illegal whether operated by "turning a key, pressing a button or radar" failed by a 2-2 tie vote yesterday.

A similar ordinance without an emergency clause and which could be held up by referendum was up before the council today. Earl said he would ask it be continued for two weeks when a full council will be present. Commissioner William A. Bowes is in Tulsa trying to help bring the 1956 National Junior Chamber of Commerce convention to Portland.

Earl and Ormond R. Bean voted for the emergency ordinance and Mayor Fred L. Peterson and Commissioner Nate Boody voted no.

Wall Street

New York — (U.P.) — Stocks closed the week on a burst of strength that left all major departments of the list above their closings last Friday.

Railroads ruled strong. Chrysler and General Motors gained more than 2 each in their department. Oils, steels, chemicals, papers, metals, some electronics and special issues rose 1 to 2 points.

There were a few wide gainers.

Rogue River Man Jailed in Burglary Of Supply Concern

James Leroy Winslow, alias James Castle, 18, Rogue River, has been arrested and jailed by Jackson county sheriff's officers in connection with the theft of between $10 and $12 from the cash register at Shontz Supply company, route 1, box 400, Gold Hill.

Sheriff's officers said Winslow also admitted breaking into the Rogue River Shoe shop, 127 Depot st., last June 6. They said Winslow told them he found no money so disturbed nothing.

Youngster Arrested
A 12-year-old Rogue River boy has been arrested in connection with burglarizing the Chinook Sporting Goods store on Depot st. in Rogue River, sheriff's officers said.

The burglary occurred the night of July 20. Officers said the front door glass was broken and about $100 was taken from the cash register. They said $96.55 in cash was recovered, and that the 12-year-old admitted the burglary. The boy was turned over to juvenile authorities.

An attempted burglary at North Riverside Tavern, 1701 North Riverside ave., Medford, was reported, officers said. Tony Mete, owner of the tavern, discovered a piece of wire in the door Wednesday morning, officers said. Entrance to the tavern was not gained, officers reported.

BOXCAR SUPPLY BETTER

Spokane — (U.P.) — The boxcar supply for grain shipment in the Pacific Northwest has improved recently but is still far from adequate, Peter Stallcup, secretary of the Pacific Northwest Grain Dealers Association, said today.
