

Daughter Of Governor Is Married

Salem—Jim Fred Dollard and his bride, the former Miss Virginia Patterson, daughter of Gov. and Mrs. Paul L. Patterson, will make their home in Tulsa, Okla., after a wedding trip to the Oregon coast and the Oregon Caves. They were married in rites Sunday, July 17, at Salem in the First Congregational church.

Crimson carnations and blue delphiniums decorated the church and the Rev. Julian Keiser officiated.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dollard, Claremore, Okla.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was designed with a Chantilly lace bodice with pearl trim and the full tulle skirt of net over silk was waltz length.

Her fingertip veil was of Irish lace and had been worn by her mother and a sister. A pearl trimmed cap held the veil in place and she carried a cascade bouquet of Happiness red roses.

Mrs. John Lane Smithson, sister of the bride, was her honor attendant. Mrs. Smithson wore a dress of ice blue chiffon over taffeta and her flowers were crimson carnations.

The maid of honor was Miss Arliss Barnes of Anaheim, Calif. Her gown was of crimson chiffon over taffeta and she carried ice blue delphiniums.

Karen Kristin Smithson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her ice blue taffeta dress was trimmed with a lace-edged bertha collar and her flowers were crimson carnations and delphiniums.

James Olson was best man. Ushers were John Lane Smithson and Wesley Allen Cook.

At the reception which followed in the church rooms, Mrs. LeRoy Bowditch, the bride's great-aunt, and Mrs. L. Glenn Hall, Oakland, Calif., the bride's aunt, poured.

Mrs. Wesley Allen Cook and the Misses Blanch Britton, Jean Percy, Kathryn Kroeger and Carol Hardie assisted at the reception.

The couple plan to be in Tulsa by August 1.

Service League Annual Party Held at Graffs

Junior Service League members gave the annual summer party last Sunday evening, with husbands of members as guests. The event was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graff on Hillside drive, and about 70 attended.

Swimming preceded a barbecue supper.

Mrs. R. E. Hibbs was general chairman, with Mrs. Robert Cunningham assisting.

Medford Couple Home From Europe

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. DeVoe have returned to their home on Glen Oak court after spending the past several weeks traveling in Europe. The trip included a stay with their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Sheridan W. Davitt in Athens, Greece.

The DeVoes were in England, visiting friends and relatives of Mrs. DeVoe in Wales, and also traveled in Holland, Belgium, France and Italy.

Mr. DeVoe, a lumberman, and his wife were particularly interested in the forests of England and the continent, and commented on the fact that they are extremely well kept and are used for the recreation and pleasure of everyone.

The trip was in the nature of a cruise on the Caronia, and the travelers returned to the United States on the Media.

Coffeen Hosts At Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Coffeen, 108 Stewart avenue, were hosts Wednesday evening for a dinner served in the yard at their home. The event was attended by 42 persons, 41 of them being relatives.

At the event were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruch, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Squire and Gerald Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Squire Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Aldrich and Danny, Mrs. Gerald Calhoun, Pamela, Johnny, Rocky and Sterling; Mrs. Lena Burleson of Yakima, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Caster, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Caster and Ronnie; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Caster and Dennis; Gordon Lee Caster; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Rhoads, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. A. M. Rhoads of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vance, Steve, Barbara and Teresa; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lee, Bud and Carol; Mrs. Jack Coffeen, Jerry Philbrook Jr. and Mrs. Louise Lee.

Fries-Benson Wedding Held At First Presbyterian Church

An event of Sunday, July 17, was the wedding of Josephine Haupt Benson to Archie Clinton Fries Jr. The double ring ceremony was read at two o'clock at First Presbyterian church, with the Rev. John Reynolds officiating.

The reception which followed, was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Haupt, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, 2123 Capital avenue.

For the ceremony the bride wore a dress of pink and white checked polished cotton with full pleated skirt and white lace and rhinestone trim. Her small hat was trimmed with sequins and she carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis centered with a pink orchid.

The bride was attended by her twin sister, Mrs. R. E. Mencke, and Mr. Mencke served as best man for Mr. Fries. Mrs. Mencke wore a frock of white batiste with full skirt and blue velvet trimming, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Haupt gave his sister in marriage and ushers were Robert L. Fries, son of the bridegroom, Kenneth S. Campbell and Fred M. Gatter.

The church was decorated with large baskets of pink and white gladiolus and laurel leaves and two seven-branched candelabra held white candles. Sprays of laurel and white bows decorated the candelabra.

Mrs. Stanley Lacy sang "Wedding Prayer."

At the reception Mrs. Haupt cut the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Gatter, Mrs. S. B. Milne and Mrs. Campbell. The bride's table was covered with a pink tablecloth and the centerpiece was of pink and white gladiolus and daisies.

The newlywed couple made a wedding trip to Yachats, Ore., and are living at 2317 East Main street.

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. L. Josephine Haupt, 2123 Capital avenue, attended Drake university and Iowa State college and is a member of Kappa Delta sorority. She is a secretary for the Haupt Tractor company here.

Summer Parties In Valley News; Visitors Arrive

Several parties and numerous visitors have made recent social news.

One of the largest of the summer social events was an outdoor party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Buffington and Mr. and Mrs. David Holmes. Guests were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes on Hillcrest-Phoenix road for cocktails and a hay-ride party followed. A chuck-wagon supper was served at the ranch home of the Buffingtons.

About 115 guests attended. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dillon, San Mateo, Calif., who with their son, Gerald, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes. Mr. Dillon will return home soon, with Mrs. Dillon and Gerald remaining for a longer visit.

Also among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hazelton, San Marino, Calif., who are spending a few days in Medford with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Alley, 3 Greenway circle. The Hazeltons flew to Medford in their plane. The visitors and the Alleys enjoyed a picnic on the Rogue river earlier in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George McGill and Mr. and Mrs. Don Herried will be hosts this evening for a swimming and cocktail party at the McGill home on Black Oak drive. About 100 guests have been bidden to the party.

A guest of the McGills last week was Mrs. James Hubbard, Eugene, and earlier this month Donnie Michel of Los Angeles was a guest of the McGills' son, Cary.

Last Saturday Dr. and Mrs. B. Brant Bartels, 35 Valley View drive entertained at a cocktail party which honored Mrs. Bartels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Merritt of Colorado. The Merritts had been guests of the Bartels for a month, and the party was in the nature of a farewell.

Luthers Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther Jr., Fern Valley road, arrived home Saturday after vacationing last week at Crescent lake. They were accompanied home by their twin daughters, Mimi and Marta, and the girls' cousin, Laine Donker of Pasadena, Calif.

The children had been for a month vacationing at Camp Tamarrack near Sisters, Ore. The Luthers drove there Saturday from the lake to return them home.

Mrs. Helene Salade Donker will arrive about August 1 from Pasadena to join her daughter and to visit her mother, Mrs. Lillian Salade; her sister and family, the Martin Luthers Jr., and her brother, William Salade, and family, Old Stage road.

Relatives Visit At Hagerty Home

Recent guests of Mrs. F. R. Hagerty, 211 Cottage street, and her brother A. R. Clement were their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Clement and daughter, Lorraine, of Santa Rosa, Calif. Miss Clement is a teacher in the public schools of Santa Rosa.

Entertaining for the guests were the daughters of A. R. Clement, Mrs. Martin Clogston and Mrs. Chester Guchess, and his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Clement.

The California family has visited in Medford a number of times in the past several years and continued north for the balance of their vacation trip. He was formerly with a Santa Rosa newspaper firm.

Newlyweds Make Home In Eugene

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Iven are living at Eugene following their wedding June 25 in St. Mary's Catholic church there and a wedding trip to the Oregon coast. The bride is the former Miss Charlotte Laemmle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Laemmle of Eugene. The bridegroom's parents, who went north for the wedding, are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Iven, 322 Laurel street.

Others from Medford who attended the ceremony were Miss Honora Malone, aunt of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Sterton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rickman and daughter and George Green Jr.

The Very Rev. Edmund J. Murnane performed the double ring ceremony at 10 o'clock in the morning. Calla lilies and white stock were used to decorate the church.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar. Her gown was of satin trimmed with Chantilly lace. It was designed with a tight bodice, a drape about the waist of self material which ended in a bustle at the back, and chapel-length train. A halo-shaped hat of satin covered with lace held her fingertip veil.

Mrs. Benjamin Andreason was matron of honor, and other attendants were Mrs. Milan Jacobs, Mrs. Jack Ragus and Mrs. William Clausen. Their gowns were of mint green taffeta with darker green sashes and matching portrait hats. They carried nosegays of asters and Shasta daisies.

Robert Iven, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Rodger Sterton, Neil Iven, another brother of the bridegroom, and William Clausen seated the guests.

The reception was held at the Woman's club in Eugene. Miss Elizabeth Ing poured. Miss Marilyn McWilliams and Mrs. Arthur E. Dillon served punch and the bride's cake was cut by Mrs. John Breeden and Mrs. Andrew Andreason. Miss Gail Laemmle, a sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a wheat colored dress and white accessories and Mrs. Iven's dress was blue and her accessories pink. Both wore orchid corsages.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Iven and family, Hennessey, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Neil Iven and family, San Bernardino, Calif., Mrs. Julia Rocha, grandmother of the bride, Oakland, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Martin great aunt and uncle of the bride, also from Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heinig, Milwaukee, Ore.
