

Adarel Eastern Star Chapter Celebrates 75th Anniversary

Jacksonville — Hundreds of Order of Eastern Star members and their friends assembled here Saturday night for a program and reception which observed the 75th anniversary of the founding of Adarel chapter Adarel, third chapter instituted in the state, now is the second oldest in Oregon since the chapter instituted third gave up its charter.

Mrs. Charles E. Coggins, worthy matron, and Fred Gardner, worthy patron, introduced and welcomed a number of grand officers, grand representative, grand committee members and visiting matrons and patrons from chapters throughout Oregon.

The delegation was headed by Miss Carlotta Wiseman, Grants Pass, worthy grand matron of Oregon and A. Ray Martin, Eugene, worthy grand patron.

Other members of the "grand family" in attendance were Mrs. Irma Martin, Eugene, grand Ruth; Mrs. Merle Laman, Silverton, Adah and Mrs. Bess M. Hopper, Glendale, grand chaplain.

Past grand officers present were Mrs. Lorena McNair, Ashland, and Mrs. Carl Wimberly, past grand matrons, Roseburg and Sylvan O. West, Portland, past grand patron.

A surprise feature of the occasion was the announcement by Miss Wiseman of the appointment of Mrs. Margaret Lasate, Cottage Grove, as grand representative to Manitoba. Mrs. Lasate was introduced and presented her commission.

Histories of the chapter, divided into 25-year periods, were read by Mrs. Fred Fick, past matron, Menno Bachmann, past patron, and Mrs. W. R. Peabody.

Mrs. Frank B. Root, a past matron of Adarel, provided part of the evening's music playing on an organ which was presented to the chapter soon after its organization by Frank Ennis and Todd Cameron, members. Miss Susan Brill played prelude music on the piano, and a string trio composed of the Misses Nancy Walstead, Mira Frohnmayer and Shirley Stafford, Medford played two numbers.

Vocal soloists were Mrs. Martel Peters, Ashland, and Mrs. E. C. Randolph, Medford.

A group of members wearing old-fashioned dress presented a drill which had been planned by Mrs. Ralph Lue. Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry, a past matron, read "Musings of Adarel's Birthday Cake" which she had written, and also read a letter from Mrs.

Allean Maxwell, a past matron now living in the mid-west. A large birthday cake was wheeled into the chapter room by Mrs. Marion Lance, a member of Adarel chapter for more than 50 years. Mrs. John Pond, Adarel member who is a member of the endowment fund committee of the grand chapter and Mrs. Pease. During the reception which followed, Mrs. Lance made the first cut of the cake, and Mrs. Pond and Mrs. Pease completed the cutting.

Mrs. Fred Gardner, who headed the decorations committee, had painted for the program two large pictures which hung on one wall of the gymnasium. One is of the Masonic hall in Jacksonville, and the second of one of Jacksonville's historic churches. Committee chairmen for the anniversary include Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Lue, Mrs. Joe Gregory, Mrs. Root, program and Mrs. Minnie Offenbacher, refreshments. Mrs. Clarence Mathison designed the program cover.

Grand representatives introduced were Mrs. Ed Pease, Medford, representative to Alabama; Mrs. Helen McCormack, Klamath Falls, for the state of New York; Mrs. O. C. Maust, Ashland, to Alberta; Mrs. Rena Oldham, Klamath Falls, Colorado; Mrs. Marjorie Williams, Grants Pass, Michigan; Mrs. Reta Gorrie, representative to supreme grand jurisdiction of Scotland; Mrs. Margaret Carlson, Lebanon, representative to District of Columbia.

Grand committee members introduced were Mrs. Pond and W. Morris Boughner, both Medford, and the latter a member of the astral committee; Mrs. Elsa Hickok, Cottage Grove; Mrs. Letha Murphy, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Everett Faber, Central Point; Mrs. Ronald L. Gilson, Lebanon and Henry Tardiff, Portland.

Matrons and patrons of other chapters present were Mrs. Janet Childreth, Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Nelson, Cottage Grove; Clifford Wilson, Portland; Mrs. Jack Ward, Medford; Mrs. Dorothea Alberts, Grants Pass; Bill Evans Jr., Roseburg; Howard Jenks, Salem; Mrs. Sally Rees, Mt. Shasta, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Stalcup, Tigard; Mrs. Juanita Harris and T. W. Laird, Ashland; Mrs. Luther Day and Merritt Swing, Central Point; Mrs. Letty Genre and Mrs. Elma Sherman, Salem and Mrs. Lucille Harris, Glendale.

Three Named On Staff of CFG Camp

Mrs. Herbert Gifford has been selected by Mrs. Naomi French, executive director of the Klamath council of Camp Fire girls, as archery instructor at Camp Esther Applegate for the four weeks, 1955 camp season, July 31 to August 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford are members of Rogue Archery club and do much hunting on Hart mountain in eastern Oregon. Mrs. Gifford is one of the Rogue council's new Camp Fire guardians, is president of the American Legion auxiliary and was program chairman of Washington Parent-Teacher association last year. Mrs. Gifford's daughter Susan will attend camp with her.

Misses Judy Wyatt and Juanita Easter have been selected to attend camp as program aides. Program aides must be 15 years old and have a substantial number of hours work at day camp and bible school and with younger girls.

Camp Fire Girls in the Rogue council are preparing their bed rolls, taking their medical examinations and otherwise getting ready for camp. Girls from the Rogue Council attend Camp Esther Applegate at Lake O' Woods, known to all Camp Fire Girls as Camp Ka-Est-A. The camp, owned and operated by the Klamath council, includes 20 acres of forest land and will accommodate 100 campers and a staff of 25.

A registered nurse is on 24-hour duty at camp and doctor is on call in case of emergency. Swimming and boating are closely supervised by a qualified staff of American Red Cross swimming instructors and life savers. It is stated, Check board, buddy buddy system and patrol boats are used, and the girls swim in groups of their own proficiency. Parents and friends are welcome to visit camp any day between reveille and taps.

Among girls leaving for camp are many who won campships during the annual candy sale last May. Annie Ashton won her entire campship for one week by selling 200 boxes of candy. Ernestine Shelton, Becky Rowan, Judith Benson, Charlotte Keeble, Karen Mayfield, Connie Miller, Judy Coffman, Patty Zander, Mary Margaret Barr, Bonnie Brantley, Susan Gifford, Carol Booth, Elaine Davenport, Sandy Elrod, Ernestine Ownby, Toni Spence and Dorothy Daniels also sold candy as a camp effort.

Other girls going to camp are Sandra and Carolyn Edwards, Kathy Crosby, Gail Moelder, Joan Davenport, Barbara Petty, Sharon and Kay Huffman, Betty Falk. Girls attending the Wagner Creek camp are Donna Ungar, Joan Seitz and Jean Hayes.

This year's camp attendance will be the largest in the history of the Rogue Area council, the field director states. Registrations are still coming in and those planning on attending should notify the Camp Fire office immediately.

Visitors Here

Jacksonville — Mr. and Mrs. John M. Saulsberry, Berkeley, Calif., arrived here yesterday to spend a vacation with Mr. Saulsberry's mother, Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry. The visitors made the trip north by the coast route, and will remain in the valley for the first week's plays of the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Ashland.
