Group Attends National Session In Los Angeles

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard and Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Heatherington have returned home after attending the annual national convention of osteopathic physicians and surgeons held in Los Angeles. The sessions opened July 17 and closed July 23.

En route home Dr. and Mrs. Howard visited friends in Pasadena, San Jose and San Mateo, Calif., arriving home Monday night. Dr. and Mrs. Heatherington traveled south early and preceding the convention visited Mrs. Heatherington's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greene and daughter in Long Beach.

Also attending the convention were Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff, who were accompanied by their three children, Todd, Larry and Gay. They are expected home tonight after having visited Mrs. Dierdorff's parents in Santa Barbara, and a sister and brother-in-law in Burbank, Calif.

The three women attended the national auxiliary convention as delegates of the local auxiliary.

Amaranth Holds Picnic at Lake

Thirty-six members of Roxy Ann court, Order of the Amaranth, together with their families and guests, attended a picnic at Diamond Lake Sunday, Mrs. George Rehart, royal matron, reports.

The picnic was held at the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schulze, Klamath Falls, past grand royal patron and assistant grand lecturer, respectively.

Six additional courts participated including Mirror court, Bend; Emerald court, Eugene; Friendship court, Klamath Falls; Douglas court, Roseburg and Willamette court, Eugene. Also represented were Ionic court, Portland, Honey Lake court, Susanville, Calif., and Rockridge court, Oakland, Calif.

Boating, swimming and games were enjoyed.

There were approximately 150 present and plans for another picnic next year were discussed informally. It was the consensus that there would be a much larger attendance at future gatherings.

Family Gathers To Observe Couple's 55th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Childreth, 2920 Cummings road, who have lived in Medford since 1901, observed their 55th wedding anniversary at a family dinner Sunday.

It was held at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brewold, Jacksonville highway.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Irish, Medford, son-in-law and daughter of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Childreth and Mr. and Mrs. William Childreth, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Childreth, Gladstone, Ore., sons and daughters-in-law.

The Childreths were married July 26, 1900, in Mt. Grove, Mo., and came to Oregon the following year. Both are members of First Baptist church here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Childreth left Monday after having visited here with members of Mr. Childreth's family. Mr. Childreth is with the United States Department of the Interior in Portland.

Saturday night Mrs. Childreth attended the program and reception given in Jacksonville by Adalee chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, to observe the 75th anniversary of founding. She is worthy matron of Pioneer chapter at Oregon City.

The couple planned stops in Klamath Falls and in California cities before returning north.

Food Prices Shown Higher in Portland

San Francisco — (U.P.)—Food costs in major cities on the West Coast showed slight declines during June with the exception of Portland where housewives paid about 0.5 per cent more than the previous month.

The Department of Labor reported San Francisco food expense to families of moderate income was down 0.3 per cent and in Los Angeles about 0.1 per cent compared to May. Seattle showed a 0.2 per cent decline.

The San Francisco Bay Area registered the biggest single drop in cost of living expenses with the consumers index standing at 115.3, down 0.3 per cent from March costs. It was 1.3 per cent below the same index for June, 1954. Items showing the biggest drops included transportation and reading and recreation.

Portland's increase in food costs was registered highest in the meats, poultry and fish items, with prices for pork chops and ham in the lead.

Portland Juvenile Burglary Ring Broken

Portland — (U.P.)—Police said today a series of burglaries which involved loss and damage of property worth thousands of dollars in recent weeks had been cleared up with questioning of five juveniles aged 8 to 15, including two girls.

Detective Sgt. George Hempe said the break came when Detective Vernon Tilden stopped a juvenile for questioning Monday night and the juvenile admitted breaking into a refrigerator car. Detectives said the youth implicated four others and that after questioning the group admitted breaking into a number of places.

The juveniles were being held for further investigation.
