

PCC Fines Members $12,900; Oregon State Levied $2,650

San Francisco—(U.P.)—The Pacific Coast Conference Saturday slapped a total of $12,900 worth of fines against its members for numerous violations after a two-day secret session.

H. P. Everett, vice president of the University of Washington and conference spokesman, said that the fines were levied for the first time since 1950 because "We very seldom have had offenses repeated by institutions so assessed."

Everett added that although the conference would not name particular names or instances to the press the schools concerned could do so if they desire.

Everett characterized the fines as "punitive," but added that the objective was to be more of a "corrective measure than one of punishment."

OSC Fined $2,650

Harshest hit was Oregon State which was assessed $2,650. UCLA was fined $2,200 and Washington State $2,050.

No individuals were singled out in the Conference announcement but the head basketball coaches of UCLA, Oregon State, Southern California and Idaho were found guilty last year of criticizing game officials.

The coaches involved were Johnny Wooden, UCLA; Slats Gill, Oregon State; Forrest Two-good of Southern Cal; and Harlan Hodges of Idaho.

Other conference schools were fined as follows: Washington, $1600; California, $1200; Idaho, $1200; Southern California, $900; Oregon, $600; Stanford, $500.

Everett said the total of $12,900 was not the highest ever assessed by the PCC. "Our fines totaled about $20,000 in 1950," he said, "before we shelved the operation for a five year period."

Basketball offenses figured in six of the school's fines with Stanford, Washington State and Washington the only schools not mentioned as violators in some phases of the winter sport.

Violations Listed

A breakdown on the outstanding violations by schools:

Oregon State—Improper administration of a scholarship; unauthorized commitment for a grant-in-aid; unauthorized employment allowances on campus jobs; failure to follow proper procedures in correspondence with prospective student athletes; failure to issue complimentary tickets furnished to prospective athletes in accordance with regulations; four cases of criticism of game officials of head basketball coach.

UCLA—Among several violations the Bruins were fined for permitting a student to practice when he was ineligible to practice. Apparently this referred to Ronnie Knox who was alleged to have worked out with the Bruin football squad last fall before his transfer from California was completed.

Washington—Fines were levied on the Huskies for three cases of off-campus interviews with prospective student athletes and permitting a student to compete while ineligible, among other offenses.

California—Fined for illegal pre-season basketball scrimmages and furnishing off-campus employment without adequate supervision.

Idaho—Fined for furnishing an unauthorized pre-season basketball training table and three cases of criticism by the head basketball coach.

Southern California—Fined for unauthorized employment allowances for campus jobs and criticisms of game officials by basketball coach.

Oregon—Fined for illegal try-out of prospective basketball players and authorized out of season basketball practice by several squad members.

Stanford—Fined for permitting some alumni to entertain prospective student athletes off campus.

Swim Title Goes To Joanne Royer

Houston, Tex.—(U.P.)—Joanne Royer, Riverside, Calif., bested six other mermaids Friday night to retain her national AAU women's synchronized swimming championship.

Miss Royer and six other swimmers were the finalists out of a field of 34 entered in the individual event of the national meet at Shamrock hotel.

Runner-up to Miss Royer was Marilyn Kramer, Oakland, Calif. Laura Lee Payne, Houston, was third.

TUNA FISHERMEN ANGRY

San Diego—(U.P.)—Tuna fishermen, angry at a $40 per ton reduction in prices paid for tuna by canneries, were to meet today to plan a campaign for government restrictions on imports of frozen Japanese tuna, which costs less than $310 per ton.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Washington State—Fined for improper administration of grants in aid and five cases of off campus interviews of parents of prospective athletes by coaches.

Decline Comment

Moscow, Idaho—(U.P.)—University of Idaho athletic officials declined to comment last night on $1,200 in fines levied against the school by the Pacific Coast Conference.

The school was fined for furnishing an unauthorized pre season basketball training table and for three cases of criticism by the head basketball coach.

Harlan Hodges, Idaho's head basketball coach, said he would make no comment on the fines or the charges until he had received official notification from the conference. "This is news to me," he said.

However, Robert Gibb, University of Idaho athletic director, admitted that "it was true that Idaho did use a training table last November, but we didn't realize it was contrary to conference rules and stopped when we found out."

Other than that, Gibb declined to comment until he heard from Dean Donald Hart, University of Idaho faculty representative at the conference session that handed out the fines.

Dickey was in trouble several times but managed to work his way out for the win. In the third, Seattle at one time had Bubba Church was credited with the win while Steve Nagy, who came in during the eighth and walked one man, suffered the loss.

Six Runs in Ninth

Oakland, Calif.—(U.P.)—The Hollywood Stars jammed over six runs in the ninth inning to defeat Oakland, 11-6, Saturday in a sea-saw opener of a Pacific Coast League series.

Curt Roberts, who hit 5 for 6 in the game, opened the top of the ninth with a two-base hit off starter Charlie Beamon (1-2) and before the inning was over the Stars had added five more hits, a sacrifice, walk and double steal to assure the victory.

The lead changed hands five times as Hollywood banged out 16 hits to nine for Oakland. Lefty Rober Bowman started for the Stars but was knocked out in the eighth when the Oaks scored two runs to take a 6-5 lead. Al Lyons took over for the Stars to gain credit for his 10th win against three defeats.

Show Plans, Diamond Lake Film On Waltonian Agenda on Monday

Details concerning the second annual Sportsmen's show will be announced and colored films of the Diamond Lake trash fish eradication project will be shown Monday, Aug. 1, at a meeting of the Jackson County chapter of the Izaak Walton League.

The 30-minute film was taken by J. Orbin Cooksey of Cooksey Motor company. His movie of the big fish killing project last September is scenic as well as of considerable interest. Cooksey has done considerable big game hunting in Alaska and many of his pictures have appeared in outdoor magazines.

Date of the Sportsmen's show is Tuesday evening, August 9. This second annual presentation will be at the senior high school football field. There will be displays by sporting goods companies and local firms and several types of sports exhibitions or demonstrations. The league, itself, will have an exhibit. An expensive camping outfit is being offered.

At Monday's meeting there will be a short report on the recent state directors session here. Refreshments will be served at the meeting and members are encouraged to invite their friends.

Concentration of the local chapter is now on the sportsmen's show. Tickets for the event are on sale at Sam's and Lampert's Sporting Goods stores.

Guardsmen Seek Softball Rivals

Company A, one of the Medford units of the National Guard, has issued a challenge.

The Guardsmen have a softball team and are itching for some competition. Any organization or group interested can answer the challenge by telephoning Denny Burns at the Armory.

If enough teams can be interested a play-off or tournament for a city championship could be organized.

There has been no league softball play in Medford this summer since the Medford Softball association has been inoperative.

Beavers Sign Up Two Outfielders
Portland—(U.P.)—The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league have signed a pair of young outfielders and both were to have been in uniform last night when the Beavers open a series against Sacramento in the California League.

The newcomers are William Eastburn and William Girdley, both discharged from the Marines Thursday. Eastburn, 21, is primarily an outfielder, although he played shortstop and third base for the Camp Pendleton Marine team. He is a right-handed batter with a Marine batting average of .436.

Girdley, a left-hander and also 21, has a service batting average of .395.

Shrine Grid Participants Conditioning

Late afternoon or early evening workouts, after their regular day's chores are done, have become routine in recent days for three athletes who finished Medford high school football careers last fall.

The three, Mike Devore, Rocky Stone and Paul Eckel, will represent their alma mater and their city in the annual Shrine prep all-star gridiron contest in Portland on August 20. They aim, following word from their coaches, to be in the best physical condition possible when they report next Sunday for the two weeks of intensive drill preceding the conflict.

The gridmen, who will join 21 other young men for State's battle with the Metropolitan team, are the only boys picked from the Rogue River valley area this year.

Jobs Helping
All three Medfordites have been laboring at jobs which should help them be in trim for the charity fracas. Stone has been working as a timber cruiser.

Eckel has been logging. He's played American Legion junior baseball this summer and both he and Stone attended National Guard camp. Devore is working as a carpenter's helper, digging ditches at White City. Earlier he had a job with Southern Pacific company.

Stone has indicated he hopes to be down around 170 pounds for the all-star clash, while Devore aims to weigh between 195 and 200, and Eckel about 190.

Before their selection for the shrine affair all three Medford youths received all-star recognition. Stone, a halfback, was on the Portland Oregonian all-state second team and was All-Southern Oregon Conference three years.

Devore, a center, and Eckel, a guard, along with Stone were among six Medford players named to the 1954 all-league first team. Devore was picked on the all-state crew of Exchange Vues, publication of Farmer's Insurance Exchange.

Eckel reportedly plans to enter Oregon State college or University of Washington this fall while Devore will enroll at University of Oregon. Stone may go into the Air Force.

Others Working Out

Norm Chapman, who'll be a sophomore at Oregon this fall, and Lorin Jacobs, who reportedly will enter UO as a freshman, have been conditioning at the high school field along with Devore and Stone. Chapman, a Shrine standout last year, was a star center for the UO Frosh last fall.

One of the coaches over the Medford Shrine delegation for the 1955 fracas will be the boys' high school tutor, Fred Spiegelberg.

Participation of four Medfordites in the game has boosted interest here and some choice seats have been placed on sale at Barker's Men's store.

WINS FIRST PLACE

Portland—(U.P.)—Lord Dar-mouth, owned and ridden by Carol Hirsch of Portland, won first place honors in the open hunters class of the Highland's Pacific Northwest all-Junior show here Friday night.

Trabert Into Finals Of Tennis Play

Southampton, N. Y.—(U.P.)—Tony Trabert, ace Davis Cup tennis player from Cincinnati, is suffering from a slight muscular strain but should be able to compete in the finals of the Meadow Club Invitation tournament today, it was announced last night.

Trabert gave Davis Cup officials a momentary scare when he complained of a sore back shortly after winning his semifinal match Saturday from Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., 6-8, 6-1, 6-4, 2-6, 6-1.

Later he visited Dr. Nils Berglund, a Long Island chiropractor, who diagnosed Trabert's trouble as a slight strain in a muscle leading from his back to his shoulder. Dr. Berglund said the strain should disappear and advised Trabert to go ahead and play today.

In the finals, Trabert will be pitted against defending champion Eddie Moynan of Trenton, N. J., who whipped Grant Golden of Chicago, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4, in the other semifinal match.

There Must Be A Reason Why . . . So Many People Buy Volkswagen!

Look around anywhere in Southern Oregon . . . you'll see Volkswagens . . . There must be a reason for Volkswagen's popularity . . . You bet there is! Plenty of them! Your neighbor may have bought his because of low initial cost . . . or because Volkswagen has the lowest operating cost of any car on the market . . . Maybe some people bought theirs because of superb ride, and cornering ability . . . or for ease of handling and easy parking . . . Many may have been impressed by the fine German craftsmanship . . . and the reputation for longer life . . . surpassing that of most of the much more expensive cars . . . Some possibly fell in love with the amazing mechanical features of the car . . . the rear-mounted air-cooled engine that needs no "warming up," the dual fuel tanks, the independently adjusted seats . . . There are those who liked the superb luxury and comfort built into the interiors and finishing of Volkswagens . . . It's probably a sure thing, however, that all owners bought their Volkswagen for all these features, and many more too numerous to mention . . . Why don't you look into the tremendous possibilities of Volkswagen . . . Drive out to Morse Motors, your friendly Volkswagen dealer for an interesting demonstration and test drive . . .
