Local and Personal

Assumes Name—Adco Northwest, Inc., Portland, has assumed the business name, Woodbury Medford, for an industrial supplies distribution and steel warehouse enterprise here, county clerk's records showed. Adco's acquisition of Woodbury interests was reported earlier.

Investigation Business—E. J. and Helen J. Perry, PO Box 961, Medford, have filed the name, Oregon-Nevada Bureau of Investigation, according to records filed with the county clerk's office. The two retired the business name, Oregon Detectives, and it has been assumed by Glen G. Thompson, Box 36, Phoenix.

Cited—Police reported that Johnnie Frank Rose, Santa Rosa, Calif., posted $5 bail on a citation issued for an improper turn. They said that the citation was made following an accident Friday involving autos operated by Rose and Iris Marvel Charley, route 2, box 377. Front bumper and fender of the Charley car and side of the Rose vehicle were damaged, officers indicated.

Wheel Taken—John R. McCabe, 327 North Fir st., reported to city police Friday that a tire and wheel had been taken from his Cadillac auto while it was parked at a service station at Central ave. and Jackson st.

Suffers Head Cut—John Clyde Fichtner, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fichtner, 227 North Oakdale ave., suffered a cut on his head Friday afternoon when he slipped and fell at Hawthorne park wading pool. The boy was treated at Sacred Heart hospital and the cut required a number of stitches.

Boy Injured—Two 16-year-old Medford boys suffered arm injuries Friday night when a sedan in which they were riding was involved in a collision at 10th and Laurel sts. The car, driven by Carl Randall Orgain, 40 North Peach st., collided with a car operated by James Edward Palmer, Central Point. Police reported that the Orgain vehicle going west on 10th, continued west after the crash, went over the right hand curb and hit a tree 67 feet from Laurel. It then went back into the street about 10 feet from the tree. Orgain and Basil Victor DeRushie, 322 Mary st., were taken to Osteopathic hospital by Medford Ambulance service.

Hotel Room Rate Increased Favored

Portland—(U.P.)—The Portland Independent Hotel Association Saturday recommended "reasonable" increases in hotel rates for both permanent and transient guests.

Association Secretary Dan Hay said the suggested increases ranged for 10 cents to 50 cents per day for transient accommodations to $1 per week for permanent rates. Hay said hotels were faced with increasing costs of operation and that most of them had not increased rates since rent ceilings were removed in 1946.

54-55 Tax Collections 85 Per Cent Completed

Tax collections on the 1954-55 tax rolls, which closed June 30, were 85 per cent complete, Jackson County Sheriff Howard Gault has announced. This compares with 85.7 per cent of collections complete at the same time last year.

Third Salem Garage Picketed by Machinists

Salem—(U.P.)—Pickets were posted at the Valley Motor Company here Friday, bringing to three the number of Salem auto dealers under fire by the AFL Machinists Union. P. F. Bennisson, Valley Motors president, emphasized that none of his workers left their jobs yesterday.

Other firms picketed by the machinists union this week in a dispute over a 20-cent hourly wage increase were McKay Chevrolet and Loder Bros. Oldsmobile.

Dead line for Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

Ladino Clover Market Favorable in Jefferson

Madras—(U.P.)—Farm observers here Saturday reported a very favorable ladino clover market situation in Jefferson county, brought on by the sale of the entire federal stock, and good weather.

Observers said prices, generally stabilized near the government price of 55 cents, this week rose to as high as 72-cents a pound to some growers. This year's yields are also expected to be above those of last year.

The government recently announced the sale of its 8,800,000 pounds to Continental Grain Company of Portland.

Lebanon Men Will Mine Ore. Tidelands

Salem—(U.P.)—The Oregon State Land Board has granted mining permits to George J. Roe and Van May, both of Lebanon, for work on part of the Oregon tidelands.

Roe and May applied for permission to remove precious minerals from the beach between high tide mark and a point one-half mile to sea.

Location of the permit is about six miles north of Gold Beach in Curry county. It is valid for five years but may be revoked by the state on 30 days notice. The state would receive 10 per cent of the value of any ores removed.

Berry, Bean Pickers Needed in Lebanon Area

Lebanon—(U.P.)—Unless additional pickers can be recruited soon, berry and bean growers in the Lebanon area face big losses, the Lebanon office of the State Employment Service reported Saturday.

Raspberry growers reported ripening of the berries as far ahead of available pickers. Bean growers are fearful that unless their crops can be picked soon they will grow beyond the size acceptable by canneries.

Roseburg—(U.P.)—Roseburg and The Dalles open their best-of-five series here tonight for the 1955 Oregon state American Legion Junior Baseball championship.

The two teams will meet again Monday night here and then move to The Dalles to resume the series Wednesday night.

Patients Flown By Mercy Flights

Two patients, the 371st and 372nd, were carried by air ambulance planes of Mercy Flights, Inc., Friday and Saturday.

Alta B. Bance, 1725 Oregon ave., Medford, was brought to Community hospital in Medford from Reno, Nev., where she had been receiving care for multiple fractures at the Washoe Medical center. He flight was made Saturday with Mrs. Mabel Day, a nurse, caring for the patient. Pilot John Childers and Mrs. Louise Burns Johnson was copilot.

Friday, an air ambulance piloted by Lee Flink flew to Yreka to pick up William Roy Caraway, 10, to take him to Children's hospital in San Francisco for treatment of polio.

Rodeo Rider in Coma After July 4 Accident

Eugene—(U.P.)—Donnie Pyeat, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pyeat of Gowdville, Ore., was still in a coma in a local hospital today from injuries suffered during the July 4 Yoncalla Rodeo, his mother reported Saturday.

The Cottage Grove Riding Club was to hold a benefit dance at Cottage Grove last night and a play day Sunday to raise funds to meet the Pyeat family's medical expenses. More than $400 was collected during the recent rodeo to aid the cowboy, who was thrown by his mount and kicked in the head.
