Sherman-Bodenstab Rites Held at Nazarene Church

Miss Lilly Marie Bodenstab became the bride of Ronald Elvin Sherman in a ceremony held Saturday, July 23, at Medford Church of the Nazarene. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Bodenstab, 2020 Sunset drive, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Sherman, 419 Haven street.

The double-ring ceremony was read at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, pastor of the church. About 240 guests attended.

Mrs. Arnold F. Kornstad, organist, played the wedding music. The bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Rex J. Vowell, was soloist, with violin accompaniment by Kenneth Laurence.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-skirted gown of silk tulle over satin with chapel-length train. The long-sleeved bodice was of lace with Peter Pan collar, and her finger-tip length illusion veil was held in place by a pearl-beaded Juliet cap of lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis, and as "something old," a lace handkerchief that had once been owned by the bridegroom's great-grandmother. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bruce Webb of Pasadena, Calif., was matron of honor. Her gown was of green nylon net over taffeta with matching lace jacket. She carried a fan of carnations, with matching flowered head-dress. The bridesmaid and matrons were Miss Lenora Albright, Mrs. Loyal Smith and Mrs. Rex Goble. They wore gowns matching that of the matron of honor, in pastel shades, and carried fans of carnations. Mrs. Marvin Smith had charge of the guest book.

The gown of the flower girl, Sandra Kay Vowell, cousin of the bridegroom, was of ballerina length dotted nylon sheer. She wore a miniature shoulder-length bridal veil and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. The bridegroom's cousin, Larry Vowell, was ring bearer.

A cousin of the bridegroom, Gerald I. Webber, of Crescent City, Calif., was best man. Ushers were Granville Brittan and Marvin Smith, Medford, and the bridegroom's cousin, David Arnett, Klamath Falls.

Church decorations were baskets of pink gladiolus, and sprays of gladiolus marked the ends of the pews. An arch of gladiolus and ferns formed the background for the ceremony.

A reception in the church annex followed the wedding. Mrs. Nolan Arnett, aunt of the bridegroom, completed cutting the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Bill Perkins, cousin of the bridegroom. Mrs. Charles LeSchensky served the punch. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Al Larson, Mrs. Loren Scheel and Mrs. Grace Bohl.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a two-piece dress of lilac dacron with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of green sheer dotted swiss with white accessories. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Arnett and family, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Perkins and Brenda, Pleasanton, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Webber and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Webber and Melody, Crescent City, Calif.

The bride, who has lived in Medford most of her life, was graduated from Medford Senior

Country Club Plans Dance

"Tahitian Night" will be the theme of an informal supper and dance planned for Saturday, August 6, at Rogue Valley Country club. Tables will be placed on the new "Polynesian" terrace for the event, and club members and guests are to wear cottons and sports' dress.

Mrs. Larry Marsh and Mrs. Don Wood are co-chairmen in charge of decorations, while Mrs. Richard Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Simmons planned the invitations and menu.

Assisting with the decorations will be Mr. and Mrs. William Thorndike, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Blackhurst, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Webber, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. Norton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Van Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Harbert, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tomy and Mr. and Mrs. Harper Hamilton. Punch and hors d'oeuvres will be served from 8 to 9 o'clock, and the buffet supper from 9 until 12 midnight.

The club entertainers will provide music for dancing between 9 o'clock and 2 a.m., and dancing will also be on the terrace.

Club members are asked to make their reservations at the club no later than Thursday, August 4.

Littrells Give Cocktail Party For Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell were hosts Wednesday evening for a cocktail party which honored Glen Fabrick and his bride, the former Ellen Owen of Eugene, Ore. The party was held at the Littrell home, Country club estates, with 55 guests attending.

The Fabrick-Owen rites took place June 12 in the Eugene Congregational church, and the newlyweds are living in Medford at 358 Highland drive. Mrs. Fabrick is a daughter of Mrs. Anna Hammericksen of Eugene.

Among the guests at the party Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wolcken, Oakland, Calif., Mrs. Wolcken being the former Dorothy Nyswerner of Medford.

Airman, Fiance Visit in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Harper, Spokane, Wash., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Magilyn, to Darell Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Edwards, 414 West Jackson street, Medford. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. Edwards, an airman second class in the United States Air Force, is assigned to duty at Geiger base, Spokane. The airman and his fiancee, accompanied by Miss Carol Long, Spokane, recently visited the Edwards here, leaving Thursday for Spokane. Miss Harper, who attended Spokane schools, is employed at Weisfield jewelers in that city.

Airman Edwards, who attended school in Klamath Falls, received his training at Parks Air Force base, Oakland, Calif., Keesler field, in Mississippi and Chanute base in Illinois. Later he attended typing school at McChord field, Tacoma, Wash., and is now a secretary to the director of the service club at Geiger base.

Arlene Arnold, Loyal Smith Married in Church Ceremony

Miss Arlene A. Arnold became the bride of Loyal John Smith July 15 in 8 o'clock evening rites at the Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. R. G. Keller, a Free Methodist minister from Portland, read the ceremony which was attended by about 200 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Arnold, 1915 Stewart avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Smith, 300 Oregon street, Jacksonville.

Miss Ruby Beal of Portland was the honor attendant. Mrs. Ira W. McDonald was bridesmatron and Miss Joanne Root was bridesmaid. Linda Calkins and Cheryl Houston were the flower girls.

Serving as best man was Richard Merriman, Ashland, and ushers were Ira W. McDonald Jr., and Lynn D. Bernston of Jacksonville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown, first worn by her sister, was of satin over net and was designed with long train. A headpiece with pearl trim held her nylon tulle veil.

Miss Beal wore a gown of soft coral shade and carried a bouquet of aqua blue daisies, while the bride's other attendants wore gowns of aqua blue and carried daisies of a coral shade. Their headpieces also were of matching colors.

The four candlelighters were Miss Mary Elliot, Ashland, the Misses Sylvia and Sharon Smith, nieces of the bridegroom, and Miss Tamra Johnson. Miss Elliot and Miss Sylvia Smith wore orchid colored gowns, and Miss Johnson and Miss Sharon Smith were dressed in yellow.

The church was decorated with gladiolus of various shades and candelabra holding tapers, and small bouquets marked the pews.

Miss Grace Stewart, Portland, furnished the wedding songs and Mrs. Jerry Sherman was organist.

The reception, held in the church annex, was attended by about 175 persons. The rooms were decorated with sweetpeas and gladiolus. Cake was served by Miss Alice Calkins and Miss Maixel Sharp while Miss Lois Kiplinger, a cousin of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Lilly Bodenstab had charge of the guest book. Piano music was furnished by Miss Loretta Kelley.

Sisters of the bride, Mrs. Bill Williams, Salem, and Mrs. Paul Dole, Prospect, assisted with the wedding gifts.

The couple is living at 811 West 13th street.

The bride, a dental assistant, attended Medford High and Los Angeles Pacific college. The bridegroom received his education in Jacksonville schools and attended Prairie Bible institute. He drives for Evergreen Bus lines.

From out of town for the wedding were Mr. Williams and their son and daughter, Salem, and Mr. Dole, Prospect.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rinard, 1708 Thomas road, and their daughter, Mrs. Stanley Smith and her son, Sidney, 801 Beekman street, returned the end of the week from a 10-day vacation trip. They visited friends and relatives in Baker and also at Portland and Oswego.

Travelers Plan Extended Tour; Leave for East

Miss Noreen Kelly and Miss Catherine Clabby will sail from New York City on the S. S. Liberte August 3 to spend the next several weeks in Europe.

After arriving in England the two will fly at once to Ireland for a tour of that country and later will travel in England and Scotland. Their itinerary also calls for time in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France, Italy and Spain.

In Germany the two young women will take delivery of Volkswagon which they will use for the remainder of their stay in Europe. They plan to register at youth hostels as often as possible in order to meet other young people living and traveling in Europe. They will return December 10.

Miss Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kelly, was graduated from the University of Oregon law school this spring and later took the Oregon bar examinations. She plans to enter practice here with her father. Miss Kelly left last week and will visit in Detroit en route.

Miss Clabby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clabby, attended Oregon State college and Southern Oregon college and taught last year in Portland. She left several days ago for Richmond, Va., flying from the coast to Washington, D. C., where she was met by her brother, James M. Clabby. After a stay with Mr. and Mrs. Clabby and small daughter, Martha Ann, in Richmond, she will continue to New York.

Great-Grandmother Here for Wedding

Mrs. Mary E. Greaves, formerly of Medford and now of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Bjorquist, Portland, are in Medford this weekend for the wedding of Miss Nancy Greaves to Edward Demmer.

Mrs. Greaves, who observed her 88th birthday anniversary yesterday, is the bride's great-grandmother.

The Demmer-Greaves wedding took place Saturday night at First Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Greaves, 716 West Thirteenth street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Demmer, 719 West Thirteenth street.

Wilma Sundahl, Philip Sanders Set Wedding Day

Among mid-August weddings will be that of Miss Wilma Sundahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Arrandale, Forestown, Calif., to Philip Lloyd Sanders, a son of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders, 6 Groveland avenue, Medford.

The ceremony has been set for August 14 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at Fairmount Presbyterian church, Eugene.

Both Miss Sundahl and Mr. Sanders are graduates of the University of Oregon in drama and speech and studied the past year towards master's degrees. Miss Sundahl is now in Medford as a guest of the Sanders.

Medford Woman Is Director of National Group

Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff, 2631 Hillcrest road, has been named to the board of directors of the auxiliary to the American Osteopathic association. Mrs. Dierdorff, elected for a three-year term, was given the office during the annual meeting at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles which concluded July 21.

The national auxiliary carries on an extensive program of scholarships and student loans and the treasurer's report revealed that $22,980 had been contributed by about 150 affiliated auxiliaries during the past year.

This amount was distributed over the four main projects of the national group, the scholarship fund, student loan and research fund, osteopathic progress fund and the Still memorial cabin fund, which honors Dr. Andrew Taylor Still.

The auxiliary awards 10 scholarships annually of $500 each. Mrs. George Cozma, Cleveland, Ohio, is the new national president, and Mrs. W. H. Bethune, Grand Rapids, Mich., is president-elect. A Californian, Mrs. Henry L. McDowell of Norwalk is the recording secretary.

Dance Planned To Raise Funds For Resuscitator

Phoenix — A "hard time" dance will be sponsored August 27 at the Phoenix Community hall by the Phoenix Fire department and auxiliary for the purpose of purchasing a portable resuscitator.

The apparatus, now on display at Giers Drug store in Phoenix, can be used in cases of near drownings, gas poisoning, suffocation, electrical shocks and heart attacks, those in charge point out. Donations are being accepted and tickets for the dance will soon be on sale.

A prize will be given for the costume judged best.

Former Residents Guest of Family

Mrs. Grant Hutchins and daughters, Candace and Alison, Ketchikan, Alaska, were dinner guests Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Kruggel Jr., 525 Boardman street.

Mrs. Hutchins and the girls are visiting for a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Daugherty, Kings highway. She is the former Miss Betty Daugherty. They will leave soon to rejoin Mr. Hutchins at Ketchikan where he is employed as chief storekeeper for the Ketchikan Pulp company.

The family lived here until about a year ago.
