

O'Shanter Tourney Underway

Chicago — (U.P.) — American "name" golfers and 20 top foreign pros begin play today in the O'Shanter "all American" golf tourney, but the $25,000 event will be only a prelude to next week's so-called "world" event with a purse for pros of $157,200.

The two tournaments will be exactly the same, 72 holes of medal play for four divisions, men and women pros and men and women amateurs, but the payoff will be far richer in the second whirl around the par 72 course.

Several American stars, such as Doug Ford, Cary Middlecoff, Sam Snead, Tommy Bolt, Walt Burkemo, Bob Toski, Earl Steward, Johnny Palmer, Ted Kroll, Gene Littler and Chandler Harper, were rated likely winners this week as well as next.

No Foreign Contender

None of the foreign contingent, with the exception of Australia's Peter Thomson, was rated a solid contender. In the past only Bobby Locke of South Africa has won the "All American" or done well in the world, and recently only Thomson has been challenging during the events.

Eighty-five players, including all of the "name" entrants and foreign group, were exempt from playing an 18-hole qualifying round which the more than 300 unknowns went through Tuesday and Wednesday. From this group came 72 players to challenge the tourney swing stars for the title. Lionel Hebera, Erie, Pa., led the qualifiers with a sizzling 65.

Even the amateurs and women pros also had to go through the qualifying rounds with 12 women pros qualifying to join Louise Suggs, Patty Berg, Betty Hicks and Betty Jameson in the playoff event. Defending champion Babe Didrikson Zaharias, also exempt, was not competing.

4th Round In Tennis Tournament

South Orange, N.J. — (U.P.) — Davis Cupper Ham Richardson, shaky in his third-round triumph, was called on today to face dangerous Roger Becker of England today in the feature quarter-final match of men's singles in the Eastern Grass Courts tennis championships.

The only other quarter-final scheduled today matched fifth-seeded Gil Shea of Los Angeles against Johann Kuppenburger, eighth-seeded foreign entrant from South Africa.

Others owning berths in the quarter-finals are second-seeded Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, Sammy Giammalva of Houston, Tex., Eddie Moylan of Trenton, N.J., and Kurt Nielsen. In matches Friday, Seixas will play Giammalva and Moylan will meet Nielsen.

Quarter-final berths in women's singles have so far been won by top-seeded Barbara Breit of North Hollywood, Calif., second-seeded Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., Janet Hopps of Seattle, Wash., and Althea Gibson of New York.

Richardson, ranked third nationally behind Tony Trabert and Seixas, might be called on for an important Davis Cup assignment late this month if Trabert's back injury fails to respond to treatment.

Women's Golf

Second round play for the Club Championship among the women golfers at the Rogue Valley Country club has been completed. In the championship flight, Mrs. Belle Schenck defeated Mrs. C. B. Collins; Mrs. W. W. Davies defeated Mrs. Robert Templeton; Miss Sue DeVoe defeated Mrs. Thomas Culbertson Jr. and Mrs. Maxine Hammond defeated Mrs. Clayton Lewis.

In the first flight, Mrs. George Harrington won from Mrs. Richard Finch by default; Mrs. W. Stoy Elliott defeated Mrs. Ray Frisbie; Mrs. Roger Clark defeated Mrs. Warren Leseg and Mrs. Paul Walker defeated Mrs. H. D. McClure.

In the second flight, Mrs. W. L. Stark defeated Mrs. Robert Lockwood; Mrs. Fred Conrad defeated Mrs. T. C. Groomes. In the third flight, Mrs. C. H. Barrell defeated Mrs. Reese Alexander and Mrs. Ed Milne drew a bye.

Most of the nine hole players drew a bye in their tournament. Mrs. William Blackledge defeated Mrs. William Schei and Mrs. Ray Sorenson defeated Mrs. Robert Morris.

August 10th, women golfers are invited to Grants Pass for the second play on the trophy furnished this year by Grants Pass. Medford won the first play for the trophy on their home course last month.

Dichromatism, the inability to distinguish between reds and greens when those colors are adjusted to the same brightness, is the most commonly found form of color blindness.

Charles Upset By Jackson; May Have Return Fight

Syracuse, N.Y. — (U.P.) — A return match instead of retirement was considered today for 34-year-old Ezzard Charles despite the ex-heavyweight champion's upset defeat Wednesday night by Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson at War Memorial auditorium.

Matchmaker Billy Brown of the International Boxing club said, "It was a great television fight, and I'll ask Jim Norris to rematch them some place in September or October."

Salem Edges Eugene In NW Contest

By UNITED PRESS

Eugene, the Northwest League leaders, appear ready to be taken, but the circuit's six other clubs seem bashful about moving in.

Eugene dropped another one last night as Salem edged the Emeralds 5-4 despite a four-run Emeralds spurge in the eighth. Bud Francis of Salem pitched seven innings of no-hit ball before Eugene got moving in the eighth, but Bill Dials snuffed out the rally and blanked Eugene in the ninth.

Don Edwards of Yakima blanked the Wenatchee Chiefs 9-0 on five hits but had to work his way out of two tight jams to gain his shutout.

Wenatchee loaded the bases in the fourth with none out but Edwards fanned the side. He repeated the trick in the ninth when the Chiefs had runners on second and third with nobody out.

Herman Lewis of Yakima belted a three-run homer in the fourth and Sam Mitchell went three singles and a double paced Yakima's 10-hit attack on three Wenatchee hurlers.

Spokane rolled up five runs in the seventh inning to nip Lewiston 8-6 and nullified a three-run homer by Jim Barrett of Lewiston a game and a half behind league-leading Eugene.

The Dalles Wins Legion Game, 3-0

The Dalles — (U.P.) — The Dalles was gunning for the State American Legion junior baseball championships today on the strength of its 3-0 victory over Roseburg here last night.

The victory gave The Dalles a 2-1 edge in the five-game series, and a win tonight would clinch the title. A rubber game would be played Friday night if Roseburg wins tonight.

Earl Griggs gave up only four hits in pitching his shutout but was helped along by steady defensive play from his, The Dalles, teammates. The victors collected nine hits off loser Dick Smith.

Only extra base blows in the contest were a double by Denny Peterson for The Dalles in the first inning, and a triple by Alben Lindbloom of Roseburg with one away in the fifth.

Medford Wins PWL Playoff

Dennis Painter pitched a no-hit game for Medford yesterday afternoon when the local Pee Wee representatives whitewashed Grants Pass 11 to 0 to capture the Southern Oregon league title.

Painter faced a total of 15 batters, and struck out 12 of them. Three batters grounded out. Painter also contributed two of Medford's seven hits off Grants Pass' Walker.

Jerry Anderson, who completed Medford's battery, sacrificed home two runs with bunts, and the only extra base hits were doubles by Kenny Durkee and Bob Quinney.

Medford took advantage of five Grants Pass errors, while the local youngsters didn't commit a miscue.

Medford regained the title which Grants Pass won last year in a no-hit 8 to 0 victory over Medford.

Beavers Purchase Wally Westlake

Portland — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers today announced purchase of right-handed hitting Wally Westlake from the Oakland Oaks of the Coast League.

Westlake, 35, spent several years in the majors, with Cleveland, Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

STARS SIGN SONNE
Hollywood — (U.P.) — Bill Sonne, a former bonus player with the Chicago White Sox, has signed with the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League and has been assigned to Salinas, Calif., a Stars' farm club in the California League.

Cooney's Bat, Kelly's Pitching Give Studs Win Over Dunsmuir

Manager Jack Cooney's three-for-four hitting, pitcher Jim Kelly's three-hit hurling, and poor ball handling on the part of the Dunsmuir Merchants combined last night to give the Medford Cheney Studs a 12-2 victory in a baseball game at Fairgrounds park.

Kelly pitched one of the best games of the season in striking out 11 Merchant batters. Seeming to tire in the sixth, Kelly issued two free trips in a row to the California boys. A quick recovery in the seventh caused fans to forget this as he swished three consecutive batters.

After a fruitless three innings in which only one man was left on base, the Medford nine started centering in on fast tosses by Dunsmuir's Harold Carrington. Terry Maddox scrambled to first on an error by shortstop Bob Richardson. Derold Wootton got a short reprieve to remain at the plate when his high foul was muffed by first baseman Geno Owens, but flew out to center field. Here the Studs stopped pawing ground and started moving. Dick Wootton singled to right field, moving Maddox on second. Larry Bigham filled the bags with another single.

Right fielder Howard Morris coming to bat with a make-or-break chance for the Studs, singled sharply to left field, scoring Maddox, and Dick Wootton tallied on a wild pitch, Bigham moving to third. Another bad pitch enabled Bigham to come home, making the score 3-0. Luck finally ran out when Jim Kelly grounded out to Carrington.

The Cheney Studs used the seventh inning to show the fans that the coming games with the Drain Black-Sox Saturday and Sunday could get interesting. They collected four runs off three hits.

Shortstop Bob Selser smashed a single between first and second base to set up what was to be a small scoring parade for the Studs. Cooney followed with his third hit of the game. Merchants' reserve pitcher Ron Benkie walked Maddox and Derold Wootton singled.

The hit, along with two errors and a wild pitch, spelled "That's all" to Merchant hopes of preventing Medford from extending its wins over California teams to nine straight. They gained back some face with a walk, a grounder by Ray Matous and a triple by Bob Pringle in the last inning which produced two runs.

The Merchants seemed to lack the fire that was expected from a team tied for third place in the Northern California league. Poor hitting also seemed to plague the team as they gathered only three hits, two of them in the last inning. However, the ninth-inning triple by Pringle and a smooth double play that cooled Medford down in the sixth inning beat anything the home team had to offer. The double play came off when Ed McCullough's long fly into center field was snagged by Pringle,

Orioles Won't Put Johnson On Disabled List

Baltimore — (U.P.) — The Baltimore Orioles today dropped their plans to put pitcher Don Johnson on the disabled list on receipt of orders from Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick.

Frick ruled yesterday that Johnson's case did not fulfill the conditions laid down in his directive of July 28 to all major league clubs regarding the disabled list. That directive was a result of what Frick believed to be abuses of the list to make room on the roster for extra players.

"We will comply with the order," said Manager Paul Richards of the Orioles, and declined further comment.

and then tossed to second to catch Howard Morris before he could scamper back to the bag. Dunsmuir 000 000 000—2 3 7
Medford 000 220 438—12 12 1
Carrington, Genkie (5), Matous (7), Achondo (8) and Mazzie, Kelly and Dick Wootton.
