Southern Pacific Wins Damage Suit

Klamath Falls—(U.P.)—A U. S. District Court jury here yesterday returned a verdict in favor of Southern Pacific Railroad in a $150,000 damage suit brought against the railroad. The case, first to be tried in the Klamath Falls federal court session, was heard by Judge James Alger Fee of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. The suit was brought by the widow of Donald L. Daulton, railroad brakeman killed in a fall from the footboard of a worktrain engine near Klamath Falls in October, 1952. She had claimed the railroad was negligent.

Body of Prineville Man Found in River

Prineville—(U.P.)—The body of Jerry Battles, Prineville, was recovered from a wide, deep pool between two Crooked River rapids about a mile and a half upstream from Cove State Park yesterday. More than 100 men had been looking for Battles' body for the past five days. Battles and Martin Martinson, also of Prineville, drowned Sunday when their rubber raft capsized in rapids at the head of the Crooked River Gorge. Two other occupants of the raft survived.

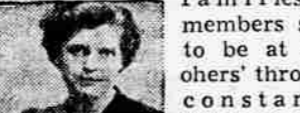

BELIEVING HIM DEAD, Una Schmidt, wife of Cpl. Daniel C. Schmidt (left), tells of marriage to Alford Fine, Soda Springs, Cal., lumberjack last September at time when Schmidt was war prisoner in China. Unaware of problem, Schmidt is returning to California after being released by Communists. Schmidt's wife stands with new husband and son, Danny Schmidt, 2½, after Enoch Arden story was revealed. She says she loves Fine. (International)

As We Live

By ELIZABETH HURLOCK, PH.D.

Family Friction Gets Mother Down Some families live together harmoniously with only an occasional quarrel, while in other families the members seem to be at each others' throats constantly.

unbiased way and see if she is right about what she says? Then ask for help in correcting these faults instead of getting angry at her.

Dr. Hurlock We are a family of five, my husband, two teenage children, a boy of 17 and a girl of 15, the baby of the family, a boy of eight, and myself. Until recently, we lived together very happily and everyone seemed to get along well with everyone else.
