Studs Face Bearded Nine In Game Here Wednesday

The famed House of David baseball team from Beloit, Wis., will furnish the opposition for the Medford Cheney Studs in a game starting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the fairgrounds park, and the contest has been booked as one of the major sports attractions in this area this season.

The bearded aggregation is managed by George Anderson, a utility player who has been with the Davids since 1923 and has piloted the group since 1942. The Davids, who have been touring the northwest, promise to provide entertainment which is said to be worth the price of admission alone. Bobo Nicholson, the Screwball of Baseball, takes part in the famous "pepper game" in the fifth inning.

Oregon Man Wins World's Longest Race

Redding, Calif. — (U.P.) — Arvid Nyléen, Willamania, Ore., swept into Kutrass lake 13 minutes ahead of seven other big boats to win the tortuous, 316-mile Stockton-Redding diamond cup race Saturday.

Nyléen traveled the distance up the Sacramento river and through the turbulent waters of Iron Canyon and China Chutes in seven hours, nine minutes and 36.35 seconds. Harold Concklin, Ephrata, Wash., was second with a lapsed time of seven hours and 22 minutes and 21 seconds.

Nyléen took a $1,000 pot, and another $1,000 went to the next three finishers, including Concklin, Frank Pennisi, Daly City (7:27.54) and M. A. Bailes, Oakland (7:36.22 3-5).

Forty-Niners Favored To Beat Washington

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The San Francisco Forty Niners, making their first start under new head coach Red Strader, are a two-touchdown favorite to whip the Washington Redskins in an exhibition game at Kezar stadium today.

A crowd of about 30,000 is expected to witness the battle. Clear, cool weather is predicted.

WINS LITTLE LEAGUE

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland defeated Walla Walla, Wash., and Kirkland, Wash., shutout Chehalis, Wash., 5-0, here Friday night in opening round games of the single eliminations playoffs for the Section 7 Little League Baseball championship.

Thomson In O'Shanter Golf Event

Chicago — (U.P.) — British Open Champion Peter Thomson stood off the challenge of PGA titleholder Doug Ford with a two under par 70 Saturday to cling to first place after 54 holes of Tam O'Shanter's "All American" tourney with a total of 206, 10 under par.

Thomson and Ford, playing together in the next to the last threesome of the day, waged a dings-dongs battle in an intermittent drizzle all around the 6,915 yards links, and Ford finished with a 69 for 207.

Thomson, making his third appearance in the event and who led the tourney at this same point last year, began the day two strokes up on Ford and he increased the margin to three after nine holes yesterday, when he was two under par with a 34 compared to Ford's 35.

Pulls Closer
 But Ford chipped four inches from the pin on the 10th hole to pull a stroke closer with an eagle and he gained another stroke with a par on the 14th compared to Thomson's bogie five. Both birdied the 15th, bogied the 16th and parred in.

Meanwhile 39-year-old Freddie Haas, Claremont, Calif., who started Saturday's play four strokes behind Thomson, gave up with the best round of the day, a five under par 67, to move into a second place tie with Ford, one stroke off Thomson's pace.

Veteran Jimmy Demaret, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., and defending champion Jerry Barber, Los Angeles, deadlocked at 212 for seventh place.

Heavy rain after half the field was on the course hampered nearly everybody, leaving the fairways soggy and the greens slow for the last finishers of the day. Still 31 of the 80 pros in the field matched par of 72 or were better.

Chicago Keeps AL Lead Of 1 Point

By UNITED PRESS
 The Chicago White Sox lead in the American league pennant race was reduced to one percentage point Saturday when the cellar-dwelling Baltimore Orioles walloped the Pale Hose, 8-1, behind the home-run hitting of Dale Philley and Gus Triandos.

The New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians both blew excellent chances to take over the lead. The Yankees suffered a 7-5 defeat at the hands of the Detroit Tigers, while the Washington Senators edged the Indians, 8-5.

Following these upsets, Chicago held down first place with a .594 percentage, while New York and Cleveland had identical marks of .593.

The Orioles wrecked the White Sox with a six-run uprising in the third inning, picking up four runs on a grand-slam homer by Philley and adding two more on a homer by Triandos. Ery Palica held the White Sox to three hits in seven innings as he gained his first victory since May 17.

The fifth-place Tigers, who now trail Chicago by 5½ games, rallied for four runs in the seventh inning to defeat the Yankees, Pinch singles by Jim Delsing and Frank House highlighted the Tigers' uprising and helped offset a three-run homer by Yogi Berra in the eighth.

Relief Pitching Wins
 Shee enabled the Senators to defeat the Indians. The ex-Yankee right-hander choked off a

Cleveland rally in the sixth inning and went on to complete 3 2-3 innings of shutout pitching. The Kansas City Athletics rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to defeat the Boston Red Sox, 6-5. The Red Sox, who remained two games back of Chicago, gained a 5-3 lead with three runs in the seventh but Kansas City struck back to post its second straight victory over Boston.

There were surprises, too, in the National league as the Pittsburgh Pirates handed the Milwaukee Braves their fourth straight loss, 2-0, and the Cincinnati Redlegs walloped the New York Giants, 13-4.

Bob Friend limited the Braves to five hits as he outdueled Ray Crone and registered his eighth triumph of the season. Crone allowed only seven hits, but one of them was a fourth-inning homer by Dale Long.

Drives In 5 Runs
 Wally Post drove in five runs with a homer and a double as Ted Kluszewski walloped his 36th homer to lead the Redlegs to victory. Art Fowler missed a shutout when he gave up three singles, a sacrifice fly and a three-run homer to Sid Gordon in the ninth.

In a night game at St. Louis, the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Cardinals, 5-3, on a two-run homer by Stan Lopata in the eighth inning. Former St. Louis Pitcher Murry Dickson halted his old mates with six hits in gaining his ninth triumph of the year. Harvey Haddix was the loser.

The Brooklyn-Chicago game was rained out.

Contests Mark Close Of Summer Baseball School

Some 373 boys between eight and high school ages were registered in the summer baseball school, which finished here last week, according to Lee Ragsdale, one of five instructors for the school. Total attendance for the 27-day school was 5,340.

Besides Ragsdale, Bob Newland, Barney Riggs, Curt Holzgang, and Cliff McLean were instructors. McLean also coached the Central Point - Medford American Legion Junior baseball team, which won the Southern Oregon championship.

The school was divided into three groups — those 8 and 9 years old, known as the Sandblowers; those 10, 11 and 12 years old, known as Pee Wee's; and for those 15 and under. The latter group was divided into two organizations, the Intermediates and Cubs.

League Titles
 In Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league play, Medford's Pee Wee's won the championship with 10 wins and one loss, and the Intermediates finished with a record of five wins and one loss and the championship in their division. The Cubs finished in second place with two wins and two losses.

In contests held Thursday, Leon Maurer won the Pigmy throwing contest and Tom Deakins won the Pigmy sliding contest. Ken Durkee and Dick Duffley won the Pee Wee throwing and sliding contest, respectively.

In Cub competition, Gary Ackley won infield throwing contest, Terry Turpin won outfield throwing, and Bob Pond won sliding contest. The throwing contests were for accuracy.

Leading the hitting for Medford Intermediates was John Jones, who went to bat 17 times and got 12 hits for an average of .706.

Batting Averages
 Other Intermediates, and their averages, are: George Koch, .666; Ray Konoposek, .600; Bob Pond, .588; Paul Moore, .545; Gary Ackley, .438; Bill Peek, .411; Dwight Friesen, .400; Dean Goodard, .385; Jerry Fields, .321; George Ice, .200; and Dennis Barr, .143.

Beavers Clinch Series With Saturday Victory

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers defeated San Francisco, 5-4 Saturday and clinched the Pacific Coast League series four games to one in a slugfest featured by five home runs which accounted for all but one run in the game.

Don Eggert's pinch homer over the left field wall behind Luis Marquez's single in the eighth inning drove in the tying and go-ahead runs off Bill Bradford after the Seals had scored all their runs in the fourth inning on three four-masters.

Portland's Dick Whitman touched off the homer parade in the first inning when he belted his seventh of the season into the right field bleachers after Artie Wilson had singled.

The Seals came back in the fourth inning to take a 4-2 lead on homers by Wayne Belardi, Walt Judnich and Mike Baxes off Bob Hall.

Forced In Margin
 San Diego — (U.P.) — Los Angeles relief pitcher Turk Lown Saturday hit batter Al Federoff with a pitched ball with the bases loaded to force in the winning run and give San Diego a 4-3 Coast League victory.

Lown, however, was not the losing pitcher. Ray Bauer, who took over in the ninth for starter Don Elston, was the loser. Eddie Erault went the route for the Padres.

The win closed the Angels edge to 2-1 in the five-game series. It also preserved the two games separating the Padres from league-leading Seattle, which beat Hollywood.

Blows Lead
 Hollywood — (U.P.) — The Hollywood Stars blew a three-run lead to Seattle Saturday as the league-leading Rainiers scored eight times in the last three innings to beat the Stars, 12-7, in a Coast League game before 4,204 fans.

The Stars lost despite a seven-run fifth inning.

Hollywood used 16 players while Seattle had 18. Each side used four pitchers with Bill Kennedy winning the game and Al Lyons losing.

The Stars' loss dropped them four games behind league-leading Seattle and preserved the
