

Medford Couple Married In Recent Episcopal Rites

An event of July 23 was the wedding of Miss Sonja Kristine Jorgensen to Robert Swindler, and the newlyweds are now living at 528 South Ivy street. The bride is a daughter of J. K. Jorgensen, Chicago, Ill., and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Edith Thompson, Gold Hill.

The ceremony was solemnized at St. Mark's Episcopal church at two o'clock in the afternoon, with the Rev. George R. V. Bolger reading the double-ring service. The reception which followed was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Marx, 1985 Kings Highway, uncle and aunt of the bride with whom she has made her home since childhood. Two hundred guests attended the ceremony and the reception.

The bride's gown was of champagne lace and net with close-fitting bodice, cap sleeves and bouffant skirt. Her short veil was held by pearlized orange blossoms and she carried a white orchid with yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Clifford Lawrence Sparks, Nev., was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a frock of green nylon dotted with white and carried yellow and white carnations. Miss Sue Harvis was bridesmaid and Mrs. Charles V. Herman was bridesmaid. Their frocks were yellow nylon dotted with white and they carried yellow and white carnations. All three attendants wore headbands of carnations.

Charles V. Herman served as best man for the bridegroom, and ushers were Douglas Dawson, James Minnis, Eugene Williams and Vernon Ritchie. Jack Day and Craig Phillips were acolytes.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the organ for the wedding music, and arrangements of yellow and white gladioli decorated the church.

For the event Mrs. Marx wore a frock of beige lace, net and taffeta with small hat covered in velvet flowers and beads, and her corsage was of green orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue summer sheer frock with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage. Mrs. Jorgensen's frock was a sheer pink silk worn with blue shoes and hat and her corsage was of pale pink orchids.

For the reception the bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white and yellow gladioli flanked with low bowls holding white magnolia blossoms and magnolia leaves. Other floral arrangements were of gladioli, delphinium and asters.

Fouring punch were Mrs. Harold Reichstein, Mrs. R. D. Semon, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., Miss Sue Reichstein and Mrs. Joan Phillips. Serving coffee were Mrs. Henry H. Pringle, Mrs. Lester Harris and Mrs. Stanley Phillips. Mrs. Kate Trowbridge, Mrs. Fred Carr and Mrs. L. Paul Walker cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Gordon Marx took charge of the guest book.

Coming from a distance for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Marx, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lawrence and sons, Craig and Jeffrey, Reno, Nev.; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Welwood, St. Helens, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ritchie, Jr., Crescent City, Calif.; Miss Susan Taylor and Miss Jeanine Wakefield, Modesto, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Noel Swindler and family, Redding, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. James McBee, Grants Pass.

The bride attended Southern Oregon college and Northwestern School of Commerce, Portland, after graduating from Medford High school. Mr. Swindler, a member of the Medford Fire department, is a veteran of service with the United States Army and was stationed in Korea for a number of months.

They made their wedding trip to Shasta lake in California.
