

Reunion Held By Casters

The annual picnic of the Caster family was held Sunday, July 31, at Jackson Hot Springs with 61 members present. The picnic luncheon was served at noon, with swimming following.

Four generations were present. Representing the oldest generation were Mrs. J. W. Pruett, Medford; Mrs. Otto Caster, Phoenix, and Mrs. John Caster, Central Point, and the family members present were for the most part descendants of these three women.

Their family members present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lester; Mr. and Mrs. Don Minear, Donalyn, Mary Jo and Rebecca; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Pruett, Bill Debbie and John; Mabel Cox, mother of Mrs. Dean Pruett; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Edwards, Janet and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vance, Steve, Barbara and Teresa; and Mrs. Jessie Mason, mother of Mrs. Orville Caster, all of Medford.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Caster, John and Todd, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Edward, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clafin, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Caster and Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Caster and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Caster and Dennis, and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Caster, Chet, Terry and Kim, all Phoenix.

Others present were descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laird, Mrs. Laird having been a Caster. They were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laird, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Laird, Michele and Laurel, Tulelake, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Laird and granddaughter, Stephanie Peterson, of Copco, Calif.

Couple Married In Recent Rites

Marla Stenbridge of Winlock, Wash., became the bride of Glen Parker in rites read July 23 at the home of Elder William E. Atkins of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. About 15 guests attended.

Mrs. Agnes Cocherell, Centralia, Wash., was the matron of honor and Miss Kay Stenbridge, also of Winlock, was bridesmaid for her sister.

Mark A. Green was best man. Mr. Cocherell gave the bride in marriage. She wore an orchid colored suit with white accessories and her corsage was of pink and white flowers.

About 30 persons attended a reception given by Mr. Green. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lucille Stenbridge, Winlock, and the bridegroom, who is employed at the Rogue Valley Country club as a musician came here from Portland. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker of Grandview, Wash.

Young-Kepley Ceremony Held In Reno Church

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Young, who were married July 17 in Reno, Nev., are living at 307 North Ivy street here. The bride is the former Doris Kepley, and is a daughter of Mrs. Jesse Minger, 781 Marshall avenue. Mr. Young is a son of Roy Young, 113 Tripp street.

The double-ring ceremony was held at First Methodist church in Reno, with the Rev. C. A. Thomas officiating. The bride wore a dark blue faille dress with white lace collar and her accessories were white, red and blue.

The couple chartered a plane to fly to Reno, and remained in the city.

The bride, who attended Cass Technical High school and Wayne university, Detroit, Mich., is employed by Haupt Tractor company. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and is with Simms Cycle and Hobby shop.

Couple Attends College Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Scott V. Davis left Wednesday via United Air lines for Oakland, Calif., to attend graduation exercises August 5 at San Jose college when their granddaughter, Miss Elaine Wurts, was graduated.

Miss Wurts will be married August 21 in Oakland to David Doerr of San Jose. Miss Wurts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wurts, former Medford residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will return to Oakland for the wedding.

Gold Star Mothers Announces Picnic

Medford chapter, American Gold Star Mothers, will meet Tuesday, August 9 for a noon picnic at Hawthorne park near the Girl Scout building. Table service is required.

Dakotans Hold Annual Picnic

The 20th annual Dakota picnic was held July 31, with about 200 former residents of North and South Dakota attending. A basket lunch was served at noon, and coffee, ice cream and punch were furnished by the association. Fred Kuest was in charge of serving these.

A program of music, games and contests followed dinner under the direction of Mrs. Eric C. Place, who also served as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. C. R. Alexander's band provided string music, and talks were given by "old timers."

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Murrey of Medford won a prize for being the couple married for the longest time. The Murreys have won the prize each year since it was first awarded in 1949. The Murreys, each 82 years old, have been married 57 years.

Named to the planning committee for next year are Mr. and Mrs. Kookan, Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Welch, Grants Pass.

Pythian Club Plans Meeting on Tuesday

Pythian club will meet Tuesday, August 9, at 8 p.m. at Girls' Community club with Mrs. Harry Barneburg and Mrs. Don Anderson as hostesses.

Past Chiefs' club and members' families enjoyed a picnic supper last week at Jackson Hot Springs, with approximately 20 in attendance.

Central Point Mothers To Meet Wednesday

Central Point—Navy Mothers club women plan to meet Wednesday, August 10 at 10 a.m. in the Legion Memorial hall. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon. Mothers who have sons and daughters in the Navy, Marine corps or Coast Guard are invited.

OSC Issues Circular On Vegetable Storage

Many vegetable crops—home-grown or good seasonal buys—can be kept fresh for several weeks or throughout the winter with proper storage practices outlined in a new pocket-size circular published by Oregon State college extension service. The circular contains illustrations for simple construction of small mound of pit-type storage, discussion of other suitable storage places, and instructions for handling specific vegetables. Copies of extension circular 592, "Vegetable Storage," are available on request from local county extension agents or the OSC bulletin clerk.

For a refreshing flavor to iced tea, add a sprig of fresh mint to the boiling water used in making the tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stoehr, San Francisco, visited last week with Dr. and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, 1 Eastwood drive. They were en route to British Columbia and plan to visit the Dippels again on their return. Mrs. Stoehr is a cousin of Mrs. Dippel.
