

Yanks Split Sunday Games, Open Red Sox Series Tuesday

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

The fired-up Red Sox had it all figured out today how they can smoke out the White Sox from first place in the American league by using the Yankees as convenient kindling wood.

Mike Higgins' Red Sox were the only first division club in the league to gain ground Sunday, climbing to within 1 1/2 games of the top by defeating the Athletics, 16-12, with the aid of Ted Williams' 1,999th base hit of his colorful career.

The Red Sox launch a three-game series in New York Tuesday night and Higgins has Yankee-killer Willard Nixon all set to shoot at the buckling Bronx Bombers. Williams also will be shooting for his 2,000th hit and by the time the dust clears following the series, Boston may have succeeded in loosening Chicago's death-like hold on first place.

Coming from behind Sunday, the White Sox grimly held on to the lead by battling the last-place Orioles to a 2-2 tie before the rain called the game in the 13th inning. The rain also washed out a scheduled second game.

Yankees, Detroit Split

The Yankees missed a chance to take over first place and fell three percentage points behind by splitting a doubleheader with the Tigers. Detroit won the opener, 4-2, but dropped the nightcap, 3-2, when Mickey Mantle hit his second homer of the game and 26th of the season in the 10th inning off Babe Birrer.

Cleveland also missed an opportunity to move into first place by losing to Washington for the third straight time, 9-3. The second game of a scheduled twin-bill was postponed by rain.

The Red Sox blasted out 19 hits off four Kansas City pitchers, sewing up the victory with a six-run burst in the eighth inning. Norm Zuachin poled his 22nd homer while Williams' 1,999th hit was a sixth inning single that drove in two runs.

Ex-GI Dick Brodowski picked up the win in relief.

Rain interrupted the White Sox-Orioles contest as Chicago had the potential winning run on second base in the 13th inning. Jim Busby beat out a bunt with one out and was sacrificed to second but before Bob Kennedy could come up, the downpour started and ended the contest.

Milwaukee Wins Two

Milwaukee broke a four-game losing streak by sweeping a double-header from Pittsburgh, 6-3 and 4-2. The Braves clinched the opener early when they knocked out Vern Law with a four-run burst in the first inning and Hank Aaron hit his 23rd homer with one on in two more runs in the eighth. Bob Buhl limited the Pirates to seven hits for his eighth victory in the second game.

The Cubs beat the Dodgers, 4-3, but even with the defeat and the two victories by the second-place Braves, Brooklyn still led the National league by 1 1/2 games. Warren Hacker ended the game dramatically by striking out Don Zimmer with the bases full and two out in the ninth after relieving Hal Jeffcoat with a count of two balls and no strikes on Zimmer. Bob Rush was the winner.

Robin Roberts of the Phillies registered his 18th victory although he needed Jack Meyer's relief in a 9-6 decision over the Cards. Ed Waitkus hit a three-run homer for Philadelphia.

A three-run homer by relief pitcher Hersell Freeman powered the Redlegs to an 8-5 victory in the first game of the doubleheader but a barrage of four home runs, two by Gail Harris and one each by Hank Thompson and Bill Taylor, gave the Giants a 6-3 triumph in the nightcap. Wally Post and Willie also homered in the first game.

To Exhibit Fly Casting Tomorrow

Walton E. Powell of Chico, Calif., will demonstrate fly casting in one of several events in the second annual Sportsmen's Shows sponsored by the Izaak Walton League at Medford High school stadium tomorrow night.

Powell, who represents the Walton-Powell company, will arrive in Medford about 1 p.m. and prepare a display of rods, reels and lines. The company manufactures fishing equipment.

In addition to fly casting, other events in the show include spin casting by William O. Herring, archery demonstration by Colonel Joe Burns and various demonstrations on use of dogs by members of the Southern Oregon Kennel club.

A 10-minute color motion picture will be shown periodically starting at 7 p.m. on fly fishing for Atlantic salmon. A drawing for a complete camping equipment set will be made about 9:30 p.m. The camping equipment is on display at Crater Lake Motors.

ARRIVE FOR FIGHT

Portland — (U.P.) — Middleweight champion Bobo Olson and Jimmy Martinez arrived here yesterday to begin workouts for their non-title fight Saturday night at Multnomah stadium.

Doug Ford Wins Tam O'Shanter With 277

Chicago — (U.P.) — PGA champion Doug Ford, vaulting into third place in 1955's money winners with a 277 to capture Tam O'Shanter's "All American" tournament, said today he wouldn't settle for the same total in the far richer "world" event this week.

"No," he said, "the winner for this one will be better than that."

Ford played far more consistently than anybody else to grab the $3,420 first money in the "all American." He had three rounds of 69 and closed out the event with a two under par 70 to finish 11 under for the 72 holes.

The four rounds gave him 18 straight scores of 70 or better, including his performance in winning the PGA title two weeks ago.

Wins on 2nd Hole

Where he really won the event, which increased his 1955 earnings to $18,780.59, exceeded only by Cary Middlecoff and Mike Souchak, was on the second hole of the final round. Trailing Peter Thomson, the British Open champion from Australia, by one stroke to begin the day, Ford knocked his second shot over the green, then chipped so close the putt for a birdie four was no problem.

Thomson, meanwhile, chipped into the water and ended up with a double bogie seven. This left him two strokes behind Ford and even with Leo Biagetti, Wiloughby, Ohio, while Fred Haas, Claremont, Calif., and Bo Winger, Oklahoma City, Okla., trailed Ford by only one stroke.

From then on, Ford traveled downhill. With nine holes left to play, he had a three stroke margin on Winger and Haas and four on Thomson and Biagetti. But Biagetti stiffened to come up for second money of $2,360 with a 70 for a 280 total, three strokes behind the winner, while Thomson slumped to a 78 and took seventh place and $112.50 with a 284.

Ted Kroll, Tony Holguin, Jimmy Demaret and Haas tied at 283 for third, each getting $1,612.50.

OUT OF LINEUP

Milwaukee, Wis. — (U.P.) — Milwaukee pitcher Gene Conley, out of the lineup since July 22 with a sore shoulder, will remain sidelined for at least 10 more days, Braves officials said Sunday.

Dr. Charles Lacks, team trainer, said the big right-hander was still bothered with stiffness in his pitching shoulder despite daily treatments. He said Conley "won't be ready to pitch for another 10 days at least."

Chicago at Baltimore, 2nd game, postponed, rain.

College All-Stars Ready For Browns; Pro Football Exhibition Games Start

By UNITED PRESS

The College All-Stars, with the toughest part of their training grind behind them, honestly feel they can beat professional football's champion Cleveland Browns in the annual classic in Chicago's Soldiers Field Friday night.

For the first time since 1950, the All-Stars will go into the game without a serious injury and in fact, Trainer Carl Erickson has assured Coach Curly Lambeau, a mentor in the National Football League for many years, that every member of the 49-man squad will be ready to play.

Lambeau is confident the Stars will give Cleveland a real fight, but he won't go out on a limb and predict victory. Curly, disturbed by the excessive heat which his squad has had to drill in the past two weeks, plans to let the boys take things "easy" this week and will emphasize fundamentals and chalk sessions.

Browns Finish Training

Meanwhile, the Browns have just about completed training in their camp at Hiram, Ohio, and are expected to reach Chicago during the middle of the week for a final tuneup.

The San Francisco Forty Niners got their exhibition schedule underway Sunday with a crowd of 27,377 on hand in Kezar Stadium. The Forty Niners, paced by the passing of Y. A. Tittle and the running of John Henry Johnson, downed the Washington Redskins, 7-6.

It took San Francisco nine plays to score in the opening minutes of the second half with Tittle bucking over from the one-yard line for the score. Johnson carried six of the nine times to set it up and Gordie Soltau converted what proved to be the winning point.

Rams Outlast Steelers

On Saturday night, the Los Angeles Rams and the Pittsburgh Steelers put on a high-scoring exhibition in Portland, Ore., with the Rams outlasting the Steelers, 35-24. The Rams moved in front late in the third period, 21-17, and then wrapped it up with a pair of touchdowns in the final quarter. Bob Boyd and Tank Younger each scored two touchdowns for the winners.

Elsewhere, the Baltimore Colts enjoyed an off day but the club's five-man coaching squad journeyed to Hershey, Pa., to watch the Philadelphia Eagles, whom they meet in an exhibition game next Saturday, in an intra-squad game, while at Lake Forest, Ill., where the Chicago Cardinals are in training, tackle Bruce Schwager of Kings Point, N. Y., finally showed up, leaving only two players, rookie tackle Chic Fry of Maryland and Glen Nagler of Santa Clara, unaccounted for.

Eugene Wins Two In NWL From Yakima

By UNITED PRESS

The Eugene Emeralds were another half-game out in front of the rest of the Northwest League baseball teams today the strength of a clean sweep of Sunday's only doubleheader.

The Emeralds took two close games from Yakima, 4-3 and 6-5, to finish off the four-game series with no losses.

Second place Lewiston, a game and one-half behind, walloped Tri-City, 7-5, in a single game. Spokane bounced back after two Saturday losses to beat Wenatchee, 11-6.

The opener at Eugene was an 11-inning affair. Granny Gladstone singled to put the Emeralds' winning run on base, was advanced on George Huffman's sacrifice, and scored on Ted Hesse's pinch single. In the nightcap, Ron Jackson hit his fourth single of the game to drive home George Matile with the winning run in the seventh, and last, inning.

Spokane beat Wenatchee with a fourth inning rally which brought in seven runs with four hits. Two of those hits were home runs by Bill Sheets and Dick Hogan.

Lewiston scored as many runs in the first inning of its game as Tri-City did during the entire contest. To pile up a margin, the Broncos scored more runs in the third, fourth, fifth, seventh and ninth innings.

In Saturday's Northwest League ball, Lewiston took two games from Tri-City, 7-1 and 10-2, and Wenatchee beat Spokane twice, 9-6 and 14-1. Eugene scored a 5-0 victory over Yakima.

Studs Drop Two Games To Drain; Meet Davids Next

The Studs will meet the House of David baseball team in a game starting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the fairgrounds park.

The bearded aggregation is currently touring the northwest, and recently completed a series of games with members of the Northwest league. The game here is booked as one of the top attractions for the Cheney Studs this season.

The Medford Cheney Studs received 6-1 and 8-3 setbacks Saturday and Sunday from Southern Oregon league-leaders Drain Black Sox and fell into fifth place in the league.

The Studs were stymied Saturday night by strong, fast pitching from Black Sox pitcher Jerry Cade as he struck out 15 Medford batters. Besides strong pitching from Cade, Medford had to contend with three for five hitting by Black Sox left fielder Jeep Stetter and right fielder Pat Wohlers. Two of Stetter's hits were doubles, second one a triple.

Drain scored two runs on three hits in the first inning Saturday. Their first two batters, Vern Marshall and Bob Boub, singled and scored on a hit by Wohler and a wild Medford pitch. The Black Sox worked uphill against a determined but outclassed Medford team to register their 6-1 win.

Drain's Don Porter stretched out a should-have-been three bagger that bounced over left fielder Terry Maddox's head in the fourth inning to score.

Drain tallied two runs in the sixth canto on three hits and a wild pitch, and finished scoring with 2 runs in the ninth frame. Medford collected its only run in the third inning through two walks and an error by Drain shortstop Bob Boub who threw high to second attempting to tag Medford manager Jack Cooney.

Medford's 8 to 3 loss Sunday was a heart-breaker to fans as they watched the Studs fight a last ditch final-inning battle to gain three runs, fill the bases, and then die on outs.

Medford stood by scoreless in the first eight innings to watch Drain score five runs in the first inning, one in the third period and two in the fifth.

Black Sox second baseman Ad Rutschman hit three for four, aiding in two runs in the first and third frames and knocking a long homer over left field wall in the fifth, driving in Don Porter. Drain collected its eight markers on as many hits and one Medford error in the first inning.

Struck Out Four
Medford's Terry Maddox struck out four Drain batters, against seven by Black Sox pitcher Dick Duerr.

The ninth canto helped in rectifying Medford's slowness in preceding innings as Derold Wooton, Howard Morris and Terry Maddox were issued free tickets by a tiring Duerr. Larry Bigham, on base by an earlier hit, scored along with Wooton and Morris as Jack Fassett and Jack Cooney also were walked.

The game ended when Duerr struck out Bob Seisor.

Other League Games
In other league games, Grants Pass and Bandon suffered losses to Bend and Coquille.

Grants Pass, scoring its single marker in the third inning against one-hit pitching, received a 10-1 licking by Bend. Sunday, the Elks were held scoreless by the Loggers until the eighth inning when they scored two runs, dropping a 10-2 league game to Bend.

The Bandon Millers lost 10-6 to Coquille Saturday, and dropped a 6 to 2 contest yesterday.
