

Gates Open at 7 for Second Annual IWL Sportsman Show

Gates will open at 7 p.m. today for the second annual Sportsman's show, sponsored by the Izaak Walton League. The show will be held at the Medford high school stadium.

Featured events on the program will include demonstrations of archery, spin casting, golfing, horse packing, fly casting, dog obedience, and retrieving. There will be displays by sporting goods companies and rod makers.

Movie To Be Shown

Also on the schedule is a 10 minute color movie showing fly fishing for Atlantic salmon. This will be shown on a small outdoor screen at least 10 times starting at 7 p.m.

Giving the archery demonstration will be Col. Joe Burns, a past president of the Rogue Archers and field representative of the Oregon Bow Hunters. Burns has competed in national tournaments, finishing fourth in 1953, and in many Pacific coast events.

Ems Drop 5-4 Game To Chiefs

By UNITED PRESS

An intentional walk that backfired shaved the Northwest league lead of the Eugene Emeralds to but one game over second-place Lewiston last night.

Wild Pitch

Wenatchee took the Emeralds 5-4 with a ninth-inning run which crossed when hurler Frank Chase was trying to walk Phil Marvint intentionally. His second pitch sailed over catcher Cliff Dapper's head and Bob Dureto scored easily from third.

Dureto had put the chiefs back in the ball game with a two-run homer in the seventh to bring it to 4-4.

Tri-City found the eighth inning profitable harvesting three runs for a 4-3 decision over Yakima. Singles by Rick Herrera, Danny Holden and Milt Martin and a double by Tom Perez did the damage. The Braves got their other marker in the sixth on Don Pries' triple and a sacrifice fly by Danny Holden.

Salem Drubbed

Spokane also used an eighth-inning rally to take Salem 6-2. Bill Sheets singled, Bob Cerrato walked, Eddie Murphy batted a one-run single, Johnny Bellone walked and Nap Gully came through with a two-run single during the big frame. The fourth run crossed on a double steal pulled by Bellone and Gully.

ABC WINNERS

Portland —(U.P.)—Darigold defeated the Legion All-Stars 8-1 and Archer Blower blanked Smith-Crosley 10-0 in state American Baseball Congress action at Skavone field last night.

USN, will demonstrate spin casting. Chief Herring is an expert with 10 years experience in the sport. He will use both light tackle and salt water spinning tackle.

Dog Obedience Work

The Southern Oregon Kennel club will present the exhibition of dog obedience work. Owners of dogs taking part in the show

Senior Golf Tourney At Rogue Club

First round play in Championship, second and fourth flights in Rogue Valley Country club's senior golf tournament will be completed by Sunday, when semi-final play is scheduled to start.

Losers of initial rounds in Championship flight will make up first flight contestants, while those eliminated from second and fourth flight initial round play will make up third and fifth flights.

Qualifying rounds for the senior club tourney were completed last week. Al Littrell is defending champion and is paired with Justin Smith Sr. in the championship flight.

Low Gross and Net

Marvin Clark, who is paired with Miles Doran in championship flight, posted a 77 for low gross in qualifying rounds, and Bill Catey, who is paired with Dr. Harvey Woods, shot a 63 for low net medalist.

The other championship flight pairing is Harry Terrill Sr. and M. G. Emmans.

Second flight pairings put Fred Engle against Ben Trowbridge, Bob Crossman against Ed Nichols, Stoy Elliott against J. E. Collins, and John Moffat against Bob Corbin. Losers will move into the third flight.

Gain Robinson and Jerry Cottingham are paired in the fourth flight, along with Dr. B. Lageson and Bill Bartlett and George Roberts and E. K. Ricker. A. C. Broyles drew a first round bye.

Dunsmoor New Coach at EOCE

La Grande —(U.P.)— Archie Dunsmoor, former Redmond High School football coach, has been named to succeed head football coach Roy Tatum at Eastern Oregon College of Education here.

Tatum resigned recently to become an assistant grid coach at University of Arizona.

Dunsmoor played football at Oregon College of Education and played in service teams in the Navy during World War II. He was head football coach at Redmond for the past nine years, and assistant basketball and track mentor.

will include Wally Kirsher, Ashland; Barbara Bruse, Medford; Margaret Jones, Phoenix; Caryl Gibbs, Medford, and Mabel Day, Medford. Mrs. Frank Catalano, Medford, has been in charge of arranging details of the event.

Presenting the golf demonstration will be Professionals Vince Aleksa and Allen Artach. In addition to approach shots and driving, they may attempt to drive a golf ball through a thick book.

An exhibition of fly casting will be given by Walton E. Powell, of Walton-Powell, Inc., Chico, Calif., makers of rods. Powell also will present a display of rods, reels and lines.

A complete set of camping equipment valued at $139 will be given away during the show, according to Col. Paul H. Weiland, president of the Jackson county chapter of the Izaak Walton League. Chairman of events committee is Tom Rickard, Medford.

Tickets are on sale at Lamports and Sams Sporting Goods. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted free of charge.

Net Aces Open Play

Newport, R. I. —(U.P.)— Five top foreign stars and three seeded American players began competition today in the wind-up of the opening rounds of the rain-delayed 74th Invitation tournament at Newport Casino.

A drenching rain Sunday night soaked the courts and postponed all but 13 of the scheduled 32 opening matches Monday.

No upsets were scored in any of the matches which boosted the up-and-coming record of third-seeded Sam Giammalva of Houston, Tex., who handily dumped Jerry Dalrymple of New Orleans, 6-3, 6-0.

Gil Shea of Los Angeles, whom Giammalva beat in the Eastern Grass Courts championships at South Orange, N.J., over the week end, did not play Monday though he was second-seeded among the Americans.

Top-seeded Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., defeated William Cullen of Fairfield, Conn., 6-3, 6-4.

Richland Team Loses In Pony Tournament

San Bernardino, Calif. —(U.P.)— San Bernardino plays Santa Monica, Calif., today in the third round of the Pony League baseball playoffs after shutting out Richland, Wash., 5-0, in second round play. San Bernardino is undefeated in the playoffs so far.

In other games today, La Mesa, Ariz., plays Temple City, Calif., and Richland plays Provo, Utah.

Yesterday Provo downed La Mesa, 3-1, and Santa Monica clobbered Temple City, 13-1.

Bevos Lose 4 to 1 To Hollywood; Seals Upset Suds 4 to 3

By PETER HAYES

United Press Sports Writer

According to the song it's a shame if the home team doesn't win, so the Pacific Coast league put in a pretty sad evening Monday.

There were only two games but the visiting firemen took both of them. And everybody in the league except Portland and Seattle profited.

Beavers Lose 4-1

San Francisco reared up from the depths of last place and plastered the league leading Seattle Rainiers 4-3 while Hollywood improved its third place spot at the expense of Portland 4-1.

Wayne Belardi, the Seals' new first baseman, merited his position in the cleanup spot by belting a two-run home run in the eighth inning to break a 2-2 tie and give the Seals the game. Seattle rallied in the bottom of the ninth and got one of the runs back but it wasn't enough.

Jim Walsh pitched the win with an eight-hitter while the Seals jumped on ex-San Francisco Elmer Singleton for nine hits and hung the defeat on him.

Alexander Loses

Joe Trimble pitched Hollywood's win to raise his record to six victories and one defeat. Bob Alexander was the loser.

Portland got nine hits off Trimble but he scattered them well and was tight enough in the clutches to leave 11 Beaver runners adrift on the bases.

Hollywood could muster only seven hits off Alexander and his relief, Bob Hall, but made them count for the victory.

Tonight the teams resume a full schedule with doubleheaders slated in Oakland and Portland.

Seattle Signs Softball Hurler

Seattle —(U.P.)— Windmilling Bob Fesler, one of the nation's top softball pitchers, has signed a contract to pitch for the Seattle Rainiers of the Pacific Coast League.

Dewey Soriano, Rainier general manager, announced the signing yesterday. The 25-year-old right-hander, who has spent 10 years in softball, will not only pitch from the standard 60-foot, 6-inch distance but will pitch underhanded in exactly the same manner that has pushed him to the top rungs of softball.

Fesler has been working out under the tutelage of Dick Barrett, former Seattle pitching great.

Casey Says Yankees Can Win; Cubs Hand Newcombe 2nd Loss

By MILTON RICHMAN

United Press Sports Writer

A dejected Casey Stengel hinted today that this is the weakest Yankee club he has ever managed but he insisted it's still strong enough to beat all the other contenders.

"I've never seen such poor hitting in all the time I've been here," Stengel said. "The team average is around .250 and the pitching ain't nothing to rave about, either. But bad as everything is, I still figure we can beat 'em all—if we start to play ball."

Stengel's remarks came as the Yankees, only three percentage points behind the first place White Sox, were about to launch a crucial three-game series with the fourth-place Red Sox, who are only 1½ games off the pace themselves.

Marty Marion's pace-setting White Sox, looking for their first victory in the last five games, also swung back into action tonight against the Athletics after enjoying the same day of rest all American League clubs did Monday.

Herb Score Faces Detroit

The defending champion Indians, who are only a half-game out of first place and still have a big stake in the pennant race themselves, will be trying to snap a three-game losing streak when they send their rookie southpaw fireballer, Herb Score, against fifth-place Detroit tonight.

Stengel's statement, concerning his floundering Yankees' pennant chances, put him in the same boat with Marion, Indian Manager Al Lopez and Red Sox Skipper Mike Higgins, all of whom have picked their own clubs to win, also.

"I said we'd win before the season started," Marion declared Monday, "and I see no reason to change my prediction now. We had our troubles the past week but I think we'll get straightened out now."

Lopez said he was particularly optimistic now that his Indians were off the road and back home at friendly Municipal Stadium again while Higgins insisted ed that the Red Sox' chances "are as good as anyone's."

In any case, the league's top three contenders — The White Sox, Yankees and Indians—will lead with their leftys tonight when they all send southpaws to the mound in a common quest for first place.

Billy Pierce (7-8) is Marion's choice to face Bobby Shantz of Kansas City; Whitey Ford (12-5) is Stengel's nominee to go against Yankee nemesis Willard Nixon (11-5) of Boston, and Score (10-9) carries Lopez' hopes against Ned Garver (10-10) of Detroit.

Washington is at Baltimore for a two-night twin-bill in the only other American League action.

Only one game was played in the majors Monday with the Cubs beating the Dodgers, 1-0, on Gene Baker's eighth inning homer. Don Newcombe, who has won 18 games suffered his second defeat of the season oddly, it was Chicago which also handed him his only other setback last June 12 at Brooklyn.

Sam (Toothpick) Jones held the league-leaders to four hits in registering his 10th victory but even though they lost, the Dodgers continued 14 full games ahead of the field. The loss for Newcombe was the first of his career at Wrigley Field after eight victories there.

Camp White Drops 2 RVL To Ashland

Camp White dropped a twin bill to Ashland in Rogue Valley league games Sunday, losing the first game, 9 to 3, and the second 4 to 3 despite four-hit pitching by Keith Johnson.

The losses left the White Sox in fourth place with four wins and six losses, while Ashland moved up from fifth place to tie for third place.

Eagle Point scored a 16 to 9 victory over Grants Pass, highlighted by a home run in the fifth by Richard Osborne. Jim Jones, Sid Peterson and Gordon Carigan shared pitching duties for Eagle Point, which finished with two wins and seven losses to hold down the cellar spot.

In the other RVL contest, Glendale maintained its pace and wrapped up the championship with a 10 to 8 decision over Butte Falls, which remained in second place with a 6-4 record.

Glendale and Butte Falls will meet in a playoff game at Glendale next Sunday for the league trophy.
