

Women's Golf

The battle for Rogue Valley Country Club championship among lady golfers is now in final play. The championship flight has been narrowed down to a play off between Mrs. W. W. Davies and Miss Sue DeVoe. Miss DeVoe moved into the finals by defeating Mrs. Maxine Hammond, and Mrs. W. W. Davies won by default from Mrs. Belle Schenck.

In the first flight Mrs. W. Stoy Elliott defeated Mrs. George Harrington and Mrs. Paul Walker defeated Mrs. Roger Clark. Second flight rounds have been completed, and Mrs. W. L. Stark won the title of club champion for her flight by defeating Mrs. Fred Conrad. The third flight was won by Mrs. Ed Milne who defeated Mrs. C. H. Barrell.

The consolation flight in the championship bracket was taken by Mrs. C. B. Collins by defeating Mrs. Robert Templeton. The consolation flight for the first flight will be played this week between Mrs. Richard Finch and Mrs. Warren Lesseg. They won their place in the final round after defeating Mrs. Ray Frisbie and Mrs. H. D. McClure. The consolation flight for the second flight was awarded to Mrs. Robert Lockwood after defeating Mrs. T. C. Groomes.

In the 9-hole tournament championship flight, Mrs. William Blackledge defeated Mrs. William Schei. The winner will be determined in a final play between Mrs. William Blackledge and Mrs. Ray Sorenson. Mrs. Sorenson reached the final play by defeating Mrs. Robert Morris. In the first flight the next play will be Mrs. Dan Adams vs. Mrs. Leonard T. Anderson.

In the consolation flight, Mrs. Sam Colton defeated Mrs. Thomas Fuson and will play the winner of the round between Mrs. Dorothy Dowson and Mrs. Ward Samuelson.

On Thursday, Aug. 4, team one defeated team two by one point. The losing team bought lunch for winners.

Wednesday, Aug. 10, lady golfers play at Grants Pass for the second play for the Grants Pass-Medford trophy. Starting time will be between 8 and 8:30 p.m.

Play for Thursday, Aug. 11, will be a flag tournament, also the 4th play on the Rogue Valley Women's Golf trophy. The pairings will be as follows:

Minor League Chief Sees Realignment of Leagues

Columbus, Ohio — (U.P.) — President George M. Trautman of the minor league baseball organization today predicted possible realignment of some of the leagues next season.

Any rearrangements of the leagues must be voluntary on the part of the clubs and leagues concerned as there is no baseball law to force a change.

"But I think we can all see the benefits of realignment, intelligently done," Trautman said. The shuffling, which Trautman puts in the "perhaps" category, may be what the doctor ordered for the minors.

Optimistic About Future

Trautman, just back from an extensive tour of the Southwest and Mexico, said he was optimistic about the future of minor league baseball.

He based his cheerful outlook on two points:

First, an attendance survey by his office for the first three months of the season showed attendance gains in as many leagues as showed losses.

Second, the enthusiasm and interest he found on his tour.

"There can be no doubt but that realignment has helped baseball," Trautman said.

Changes Have Helped

"The shifting of major league baseball to Milwaukee certainly was an important realignment cog in the National League. The same goes for transferring major league baseball to Baltimore and Kansas City.

"The addition of Denver and Omaha has helped the American association. The entry of Columbus into the International league has helped that league.

"El Paso, as a new member, has helped the West Texas-New Mexico league."

He said that the 33 leagues in operation at the beginning of the season are still in business. He also has had inquiries about the possibilities of forming three new leagues. Last season, three leagues folded during the campaign.

Amoros To Rejoin Dodgers for Series

Brooklyn — (U.P.) — Outfielder Sandy Amoros was scheduled to rejoin the Brooklyn Dodgers tonight when they open a home stand by meeting the New York Giants.

Amoros, unable to play regularly for more than a month because of a back injury, did not accompany the team on its just-completed Western trip. He has been working out at Ebbets Field.

2,500,000 Fish Planted in State

Portland — (U.P.) — An estimated 2,500,000 legal-sized fish have been planted in streams throughout the state, the Oregon Game Commission reported today.

The commission said another 500,000 remain to be planted. In addition, some 10,000,000 fry and fingerlings will be planted before the end of the summer.

IN GOOD SHAPE

Portland — (U.P.) — Coaches Lee Gustafson of State and Tom DeSylvia of City said today their 24-man Shrine game football squads were in better condition than they had expected, but nevertheless planned some tough drills before the annual game Aug. 20. The players were to visit the Shrine hospital for crippled children this afternoon.

INTERCEPTS PASS—Washington Redskins' back Chuck Drazenovich (36) follows Chet Ostrowski's interference (left) as he straightarms San Francisco 49er back Billy Tidwell after intercepting a 49er pass in 2nd quarter of game in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium. San Francisco won the exhibition contest by score of 7 to 6.

Anne Quast Ties Course Mark of 73

Lake Geneva, Wis. — (U.P.) — Defending champion Anne Quast of Marysville, Wash., tied a course record yesterday when she fired a 73 in the qualifying round of the Western Junior Invitational Open Golf tournament.

Miss Quast shot a 37-36 to tie the Lake Geneva club women's course record set by Betty Jamieson several years ago.

Match play in the tourney begins today, with the championship round set for Friday.

New Partridge Strain Started

Portland — (U.P.) — A new strain of wetland Hungarian partridge has been introduced in Marion county, near Sublimity, according to the State Game commission, for experimental purposes.

The wetland Hun is about twice the size of the valley quail. The 265 birds released are expected to form the nucleus of a hearty flock of game birds, since their original habitat in Denmark is similar to the Willamette valley.

Four All-Star Gridders Hurt

Chicago — (U.P.) — Four members of the College All-Star team were listed as doubtful starters today for Friday night's game against the professional champion Cleveland Browns at Soldiers Field.

All of the injured were linemen — guard Eldred Kraemer of Pittsburgh, tackle Frank Varichione of Notre Dame, and ends Dean Dugger of Ohio State and Jim Hanifan of California. All missed last Friday's scrimmage against the Chicago Cardinals.

All-Star Coach Curly Lambeau was believed to be readying a starting offensive backfield of Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame at quarterback, Dick Moegele of Rice and L. G. Dupre of Baylor at halfbacks, and Alan (The Horse) Ameche at fullback.

Virgil Akins Defeats Logart

New York — (U.P.) — Virgil Akins split TV victory over Cuban Isaac Logart brought him an offer today for a big outdoor fight at Newark, N. J., on Sept. 26 or Oct. 3.

Akins of St. Louis, fifth-ranking welterweight contender, would meet Vince Martinez of Patterson, N. J., number four, at Ruppert Stadium, Newark, according to promoter-matcher Tex Sullivan's proposal.

Sullivan and his London Sporting Club staged the excellent Akins-Logart television 10-round at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night. Akins won a split decision because of his stronger finish. Virgil weighed 146 pounds; Logart, 144½.

Al Williams Tips Caperna

Oswego — (U.P.) — Host Pro Bob McKendrick shattered Oswego Country Club's par with a red-hot 63 in qualifying play yesterday and then won his first match in the opening round of the Oregon PGA tournament.

McKendrick defeated Dan Strike of Eugene 2 and 1, to join seven others in the quarterfinals — Harold West of Eugene, Bunny Lamberger, Portland, Duke Matthews, Eugene; Al Williams, Medford; Tom Marlowe, Eastmoreland and Bill Johnson, Riverside.

Williams defeated Ron Caperna of Astoria 3 and 1 after trailing by one hole at the end of nine.

Reno Golfer Leads Lefthanders Play

Reno, Nev. — (U.P.) — Jim Metrovich of Reno, aided by an eagle, fired a one-under-par 71 yesterday to lead a field of 159 in the 16th annual National Lefthanders Golf Tournament at the Washoe County Golf Course.

Metrovich scored his eagle 2 on the four par, 418-yard 9th hole.

Other leaders in the tournament which ends Thursday were: 72—Tom Pinckley, Pomona Calif.; Bill Smith, Phoenix, Ariz.

73—Dick Eckelman, Los Angeles; Jack Walters, Tacoma, Wash.; Nelson Cullenward, Los Altos, Calif.; William Hendrix, Los Angeles.

74—Bill Case, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Don Wearley, Toledo, O. Defending champion; Harold Oakes, San Francisco.

Local Dogs Win In Tacoma Event

Two Medford dogs placed in a field of about 140 entries in the Tacoma, Wash., retriever trials held at Ft. Lewis Military reservation Saturday and Sunday.

Rip, a male Labrador owned by Gene Hunt, finished second among a field of about 42 in the derby, and Meg, a female Labrador owned by William M. McAllister was awarded the judge's award of merit.

Others from Medford who attended the meet included Mrs. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Westcott, Lee Skaggs, Ken DeFman, and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Middlekauff.

The Rogue Valley Retriever club will hold its annual runoff trials at Hoover lake trail course Sunday, Aug. 14, starting at 9 a.m. Following the trials for stake trophies, members will attend a picnic at Bybee bridge when trophies will be awarded to winners of 1955 stakes.

Davey Williams Has Hopes of Playing

New York — (U.P.) — Ailing second baseman Davey Williams was keeping his "fingers crossed" today and so were the New York Giants in the hope that his baseball career is not yet finished.

The 26-year-old Williams was more hopeful today following X-ray examinations at New York Medical Center which revealed that he was not suffering from a slipped disc as had been previously diagnosed.

"The X-rays gave us a little hope, anyway," said Williams' wife, "and we're both keeping our fingers crossed."
