News About Servicemen

GRADUATED

Pvt. Leonard J. Keene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Keene, 142 Glenwood rd., was graduated July 16 from paratrooper school at Ft. Campbell, Ky. He successfully completed the prescribed course in general airborne subjects, ground training and jumping from an aircraft in flight. He now is attending school in Germany, with Operation Gyroscope, sometime in January, 1956. Private Keene is a Phoenix high school graduate and attended Southern Oregon college before joining the Army airborne.

PROMOTED

James R. Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins, 113 Ross lane, has been promoted to sergeant in the Army, his mother has learned. A paratrooper, Sergeant Hopkins has been in the Army for almost three years, and is due for discharge next March.

A graduate of Medford High school, he returned recently from service in Korea, and now is at Ft. Carson, Colo. He took paratrooper training at Camp Campbell, Ky.

VISITS PARENTS

Richmond Havnear, radioman seaman apprentice, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vencill, Coleman rd., after completing a course in Navy radio school at San Diego, Calif. He will leave Monday for Japan for about 18 months.

Runaway Held—A 15-year-old boy from Pittsburg, Calif., is being held in the county jail after being arrested by city police yesterday as a runaway.

Scout Head's Good Deed Unappreciated by Cop

St. Paul—(U.P.)—A Boy Scout administrator, Carl Kaepfle, had to pay $5 for his good deed. Kaepfle had a cup of coffee in a downtown restaurant and then went to his office without paying for it. Figuring the waitress might get docked, Kaepfle climbed into his car, fought the traffic downtown, parked his car across the street from the coffee shop, ran inside, handed over the dime and dashed out again. Before he could get to his car, a traffic officer had made out a $5 rush hour parking tag. Dead line for Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

CONNIE IS UNDECIDED—Hurricane Connie, a roaring giant undecided where to strike, slowed to a virtual standstill in the Atlantic 225 miles to the southeast. From its present static position, the hurricane could move in any of three directions (shown by black dotted arrows), inland over the Carolinas, up the East Coast toward New York, or out to sea.

WALL STREET

New York—(U.P.)—Stocks moved higher today under the lead of metal shares.

Standard Oil of New Jersey rose more than 3 points to feature a firm oil department. Du Pont rose nearly 5 in the chemicals and Union Carbide was up nearly 3. Allied Chemical lost 2.

The deceased was born May 24, 1883, in Canada, and had lived in southern Oregon for the past 35 years.

Boy Suffers Minor Injury in Bike Mishap

William J. Hedrick, 13, of 409 South Peach st., was hurt slightly yesterday as the result of a two-bicycle accident on Front st. between Ninth and 10th sts. yesterday, according to the city police department.

The accident occurred after Eugene Howard Vincent, 11, of 326 Benson st., lost control of his bicycle and fell before the wheels of a bicycle ridden by Howard Duwayne Hansen, 11, of 418 Plum st., on which the Hedrick boy was a passenger, police said.

The bicycle ridden by the two boys ran into the Vincent boy's bike and overturned. In falling, the Hedrick boy was struck in the left side by the handlebar of the Vincent bike and had the wind knocked from him, police added. An ambulance was called by policemen but was dismissed after the boy stated he was feeling better.

Canned Salmon Cargo Arrives From Alaska

Seattle—(U.P.)—The biggest cargo of canned salmon to arrive here from Alaska this year was unloaded from the Alaska Steamship Co. freighter Tonsina at Pier 24 yesterday.

The 7,500 tons were packed in 15,211,360 cans and the value of the shipment was estimated at $9,250,000—more than the United States paid for Alaska in 1967.

Undersecretary of Commerce Walter Williams of Seattle was among dignitaries gathered to watch the unloading.
