Waibel Hurls 4-Hitter
As Portland Blanks Stars

Portland—(U.P.)—Young Dick Waibel held Hollywood to four hits as the Portland Beavers defeated the Stars 3-0 here last night.

The Stars copped the series, however, 4-2.

Waibel faced only 30 batters in earning his shutout, which brought his record to nine wins and six losses. He struck out nine Stars.

Hollywood starter Ben Wade struck out 11 Beavers and yielded eight of the 10 Portland hits during his seven innings on the mound. He was replaced by Portland was not able to score until the seventh, when Wade walked Wally Westlake with the bases loaded. Singles by Jimmy Robertson and Frankie Austin and an intentional walk to Artie Wilson filled the bases.

Portland picked up two unearned runs in the eighth as a result of Curt Roberts' error at second. Roberts bobbled Waibel's grounder with two out, letting one run score. Wilson singled as the next man up to drive in the other.

San Francisco blanked Seattle, 2-0, on Dave Melton's two-run homer in the eighth inning. In other series closers, Oakland pounded out a 13-hit, 10-3 win over third place San Diego and Sacramento staved off a ninth inning rally to down Los Angeles, 6-5.

Melton's homer off Ewell Blackwell last night gave the last place Seals the series, four games to one.

Tony Ponce blanked the Rainiers until the ninth inning when, with one out, Bill Glynn doubled and Joe Ginsberg singled. Ponce was replaced by Don Fracchia who got Bob Balena to hit into a double play ending the game.

Oakland helped Al Gettel notch his 12th win and capture the series, 4-1. Gettel allowed seven hits, including home runs by Dick Sisler and Ray Jablonski accounting for all the Padre runs.

Los Angeles was trailing 6-1 going into the bottom of the ninth but closed to within one run of the Sacs on a walk, a wild pitch, Piper Davis' double, an error and Jim Fanning's pinch homer with Ed Winceniak aboard.

The Solons scored three runs in the third inning on homers by Ed Mierkiewicz and Dan Baich. Mierkiewicz's solo blast was off starter Hy Cohen who took the loss. Baich led Sacramento's 13-hit attack with three singles in addition to his four-bagger.

Salem Beats
Spokane In
NWL Contest

By UNITED PRESS

Last night was Jack Steinagel night once again in the Northwest League.

The Salem socker bombed two homers and drove in five runs as Salem swamped Spokane 11-2 to move to within three games of league-leading Eugene.

Bill Wortham picked up his seventh victory against eight defeats as he scattered six hits.

However, Salem wasn't the only team to gain on Eugene. Wenatchee closed the gap to two games with a 10-5 decision over the Emeralds.

An error with the bases loaded allowed one Wenatchee run to cross in the first inning and Joe Rossi piled it on with a three-run triple. Rossi scored on a single by Phil Marvier.

Art Preston, Eugene, homered in the fifth with one aboard and Chuck Lundgren of Wenatchee homered in the eighth also with one man on.

Wenatchee hurler Gene Hayden notched his 13th decision of the year against eight losses.

Yakima stopped Tri-City 9-3 with the help of four Tri-City errors. The Bears got six runs in the fifth on three hits, three walks and two Tri-City errors.

Tom Perez of the Braves hit a solo homer in the fourth and Danny Holden of the Tri-City club homered in the sixth with the bases empty.

Babe Zaharias
Not Thinking of Golf Tourneys

Galveston, Tex. —(U.P.)—Babe Didrickson Zaharias was in good spirits today, confident she'll get well, but "not thinking" about any more golf tournaments.

The famous woman athlete is in John Sealy hospital in Galveston suffering from recurrence of a rectal cancer. She spends most of her hours watching television and visiting with her husband, former wrestler George Zaharias.

"I'm not thinking about golf right now," she said. "I'm just worried about getting well."

Savage Wins
Over Mims

Salt Lake City—(U.P.)—Fistic fame, which for years had fled Salt Lake prize fighter Milo Savage, arrived suddenly but not unexpectedly last night for the Utahn, who pounded out a unanimous 10-round decision over Holly Mims of Washington, D. C., the world's number two middleweight.

The victory before 3000 partisan hometown fans practically assured the 28-year-old Utah fighter a shot at other top ranked boxers in the scrambled middleweight class.

The upset win also came in the form of sweet revenge for Savage, who was making the initial appearance of his career before Salt Lake fight fans. Previously Savage dropped an unpopular split decision to Mims last winter in New York in the celebrated bout in which Savage used boxing's old "shoe lace" trick against Mims.

No Trickery

In last night's battle Savage used no trickery and there was no question as to the outcome of the fight as Savage stayed on top of Mims throughout the slugfest to gain the victory nod from all three judges. The United Press score card gave Savage five rounds, Mims three and two even.

All-Stars Are 12-Point
Underdogs Against Browns

Chicago —(U.P.)—The 1955 College All Stars, coached by professional tutors for the first time, were 12 points underdogs today for tonight's 22nd annual battle with the National Football League champions, this year the Cleveland Browns.

A crowd of 75,000 was expected for the Soldier Field spectacle with a gross gate, including television and radio receipts, of about $400,000, equaling the 1954 record.

The All Stars were prepared for the scrap by Curly Lambeau, former Green Bay Packer, Chicago Cardinal and Washington Redskins coach, with assistance from Steve Owen, one-time New York Giants coach; Hunk Anderson, once with the Chicago Bears, and Hampton Poole, former coach of the Los Angeles Rams.

Switch To Pro Coaches

In the past, the collegians were trained by college coaches, but the sponsors switched to the professional staff this season after four straight defeats by the pros by one-sided margins.

The collegians have won six games, the last in 1950 with a 17-7 triumph over Philadelphia, while the pros have 13 triumphs with two games tied.

The pro's were the favorites this year chiefly because the Browns, champions of the All American Conference for each year of its existence, will bring into the game the same experienced personnel which carried to the league crown last year, with only one exception.

Quarterback Otto Graham retired during the winter and will be replaced tonight by George Patteman, who saw only incidental service last year, but who averaged 8.77 yards gained with each of his passes.

Squads Ease
Up After Scrimmage

Portland—(U.P.)—Rival coaches said today that competition for starting positions on State and City teams for the 8th annual Shriners' all-star football game Aug. 20 is "extremely keen."

Both coaches Lee Gustafson of State and Tom DeSylvia of city said every starting position was still "wide open."

The two 24-man squads eased up today after an all-out scrimmage yesterday. DeSylvia said he planned a game-type scrimmage again Saturday.

Gustafson said three guards, Doug Minthorn of Pendleton, Larry Newsum of South Salem and Glenn Evans of Vale were temporarily out with injuries and that Minthorn, who has a twisted knee, is a doubtful starter.

Olson, Martinez
Taper Off for Non-Title Bout

Portland —(U.P.)—Middleweight Champ Bobo Olson and Jimmy Martinez tapered off today after rugged workouts yesterday preparing for their Saturday night non-title fight at Multnomah stadium.

Olson, making his first appearance since losing to light-heavyweight King Archie Moore, is a top-heavy favorite but Martinez is in a good position for an upset.

A large crowd turned out yesterday at the New Haven hotel gym to watch Olson knock about his sparring mates.
