Students Complete Work for Degrees

Ashland — Eighty students have completed requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education during summer session at Southern Oregon college.

Only seven of the graduates will be teaching for the first time starting this fall. All of the others have had prior teaching experience.

Graduation exercises and awarding of diplomas will take place June 1, 1956, at the college. Jackson county graduates include:

Bernice Marie Archer, Mary Ann Athanas, Dorothea Crowley, Clara Louise Fader, Barbara Ruth Heath, Stafford Griffith Thomas, and Ronald Keith Wilderson, all of Ashland.

Margaret Ellen Bishop and Eleanor Curry Hamilton, both of Central Point.

Mary Francis McGovern, Eagle Point.

Nancy Rachel Rethemeyer, Gold Hill.

Lois Matheny Kamberg, Jacksonville.

Marguerite Watson Black, Lillian Grace Brownlee, Dealous Lafayette Cox, Fern Burcham Graves, Leona Daugherty Gilinsky, Monte Joseph Kounz, Mary Norvell, Corinne Inez Robbins, Rachel Erin Scheel, Loren F. Soderlund, and Lora N. York, all of Medford.

Ida Eleanor McArthur and Beverly Gean Thanos, both of Phoenix.

Ruth Hilda Granby and Nellie Donaldson Young, both of Talent.

Draft Board Offices To Close Aug. 16-17

The local offices of the selective service system will be closed Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 16 and 17, so that members of the board and staff may attend a meeting in Portland at which Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Washington, D.C., national director of the system, will be the main speaker.

A banquet meeting also is scheduled at the Bonneville administration building.

Guy Applewhite, chairman of the local board and Gary E. Garrett, a board member; Miss Helen McDonnell and Mrs. Violet Jackson of the office staff plan to make the trip.

Gold Hill

Gold Hill — Mrs. Ruby Quakenbush has sold her interest in the Flycatcher cafe, on Highway 99, north of Gold Hill, to her former partner, Mrs. Ward Garrett of Rogue River. Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. Quakenbush have been operating the cafe since the first of June.

Mrs. Quakenbush is planning to leave soon for California to be present for the departure of her son, Cpl. Bart Quakenbush, who is leaving for overseas duty with the US Marine Corps. Mrs. Quakenbush will have no further connection with Flycatcher cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parker have had as visitors recently, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Parker and daughter Gail, Burlingame, Calif. Russell is the son of Jim Parker.

Donald Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parker, is nursing two badly cut fingers he received while working at the mill on Galls creek.
