

Beavers Break Tie to Post 4-3 Win Over Seals in PCL

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers broke a sixth inning tie to edge out San Francisco 4-3 and even their Pacific league series with the Seals, 1-1, yesterday.

The Seals scored first with one run in the fourth inning. But the Beavers bounced back with three runs in the bottom of the frame. Artie Wilson singled to left, stole second and was doubled home by Luis Marquez after Wally Westlake got on with a walk.

Westlake was brought around by consecutive walks to Ed Mickelson and Don Eggert, and Marquez scored on Jim Robertson's sacrifice.

Belardi's home run plus a triple by Dave Melton and a double by Bill Serena tied the score 3-3 in the sixth.

The Beavers broke the tie with a walk to Westlake, and singles by Marquez and Eggert.

Wins 15th Game

Oakland, Calif. — (U.P.) — Sacramento's Marino Pieretti won his 15th game of the season Saturday with a masterful three-hit, 2-0 victory over Oakland that evened the Pacific Coast league series at one game apiece.

The little righthander dueled with George Bamberger until the seventh inning when Harry Bright rammed a lead-off homer 400-feet into the center field stands — his eighth four-bagger of the season.

Pieretti gave up singles to Len Neal in the third, Joe Brovia in the fourth and Jim Marshall in the seventh. He didn't walk a man until the ninth inning when Al Van Alstyne was passed and reached third on two infield outs. Pieretti got Brovia to ground out to end the game.

Second Win for Angels

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — The Los Angeles Angels defeated the San Diego Padres 7 to 4 Saturday to continue their drive for the Pacific coast league's first division.

Bob Zick, who relieved starter Johnny Piktuzis in the second inning, got credit for his second win against six losses, although he also needed help from Moe Bauer in the sixth inning.

Charley Bishop was the loser, making his record 5-5. Bishop was tossed out of the game in the fifth inning when he dropped his bat on umpire Chris Valenti's foot in a dispute over a called strike.

It was the second straight win for the fifth-place Angels over the third-place Padres.

College All-Stars Beat Cleveland Browns 30-27

By ED SAINSBURY
 United Press Sports Writer
 Chicago — (U.P.) — Curly Lambeau's hand-picked collegiate football players can play professional style as well as the best of the veterans, it appeared today.

Lambeau's 1955 aggregation, selected to play the platoon system, were more adept in both offense and defense than the National Football league champion Cleveland Browns and turned on the pressure in the last half for a 30-27 victory in the 22nd annual battle Friday night.

There were nearly as many heroes as All-Stars, but tiny Tad Weed, a 146 pound left footed place kicker from Ohio State, L. G. Dupre, speedy half-back from Baylor, and Ralph Guglielmi, Notre Dame quarterback who played the full game for the collegians, stood out on offense.

Bettis and Grier Shine
 On defense the flashiest were linebacker Tom Bettis of Purdue, tackle Rosey Grier of Penn State, and Jim Temp of Wisconsin, and halfback Frank Bernardi of Colorado.

Weed set a game record with three field goals, from the 28, 20 and 41 yard lines, while Guglielmi completed 10 of 19 passes for 129 yards and hit Henry Hair of Georgia with a five yard pitch for one touchdown.

Dupre ran 74 yards on 12 carries and caught three passes for 49 yards, including one 19 yard toss which took the Stars to the pro's one yard line to set up a touchdown by Toledo's Mel Triplett.

The final All Star touchdown was by Frank Eidom of Southern Methodist one a two yard plunge after Ron Drzewiecki of Marquette returned a kickoff 43 yards and Dupre turned in a 19 yard run to get in scoring position.

The Browns stayed in contention in the first half when George Ratterman plunged a yard for one touchdown, passed to Ray Renfro for 25 yards for a third. But the All Star defense held Cleveland, winners of a divisional or league championship every year since its organization, without a first down for more than 20 minutes of the last half.

Morrison Closes Gap
 Then, trailing by 10 points, Ratterman sparked a passing surge downfield which ended when Fred Morrison plunged from the five for the final pro points.

The victory was the seventh for the collegians in the annual struggle, in which the pros have won 13 and tied two. The last All Star win was in 1950, 17-7 over Philadelphia.

This year was the first the All Stars were coached by professional mentors, and the team played like pro's. The 30 points was a new high for a college team in the event, surpassing the 28 scored against Washington's 16 in 1938 and the 28 scored against Green Bay's 45 in 1940.

Qualifying for Ashland Golf Tourney Starts
 Ashland — The Ashland golf championship will be determined in a three-day tournament starting Aug. 26, Chuck Sullivan, owner of Oak Knoll Golf club, has announced.

Qualifying rounds for the tourney started Friday, and will continue through Sunday, Aug. 21, Sullivan said.

Anyone interested in competing in the tourney may contact Sullivan at the club.

Newport Net Finals Today

Newport, R. I. — (U.P.) — Top-seeded Ham Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., and fourth-seeded California, will be pitted against each other in today's final singles match of the 74th invitation tennis tournament at Newport Casino.

Richardson gained the finals by defeating 19-year-old Bob Wilson of England, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2, while Flam advanced by beating third-seeded Atsushi Miyagi of Japan, 6-4, 6-4.

In the quarter-final doubles matches, second-seeded Kurt Nielsen of Denmark and Irving Dorfman of New York City teamed up to defeat Ed Cauder and Robin Willner of Los Angeles, Calif., 6-3, 5-7, 10-8. Top-seeded Richardson and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, topped Roger Becker and Bob Wilson of England, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3.

No Changes In Elk Hunt

Portland — (U.P.) — The State Game Commission said it is not considering any changes in the Sled Springs controlled elk hunt in Wallowa county, despite telegrams opposing the hunt.

Local groups sent telegrams to Gov. Paul Patterson protesting the hunt because of large numbers of livestock scattered through the area and the danger of forest fires.

The hunt is scheduled for Aug. 20-25. State Game Director Phil Schneider said the early dates were set to help eliminate grain and clover crop damage caused by grazing elk. He said a later date would not ease the problem, since elk would have moved back into timbered areas.

Bo Winger Moves Into Tourney Lead

Chicago — (U.P.) — Bo Winger, a 32-year-old pro from Oklahoma City, Okla., moved into first place after 54 holes of Tam O'Shanter's "World" tournament Saturday with a third round 69 for a total tally of 209.

But he got the lead only because the front runners played give-away on the next to the last round of the richest event of the tourney swing, a total purse of $157,200 with $106,000 earmarked for the winner.

Bob Rosburg, Palo Alto, Calif., the pace-setter for both 18 and 36 holes with rounds of 66 and 67, slumped to a horrible 80 and the par 72 course for a total of 213. Wally Ulrich, Rochester, Minn., runner-up to Rosburg with previous scores of 69 and 66, came up with 75 to total 210.

Gains 11 Strokes
 Thus Winger gained 11 strokes on the leader on the single 18 hole tour and went into the final day of play today with a one stroke margin on Gene Littler, Palm Springs, Calif., who tallied 70 yesterday for a 210, with Ulrich.

Julius Boro, Southern Pines, S. C., who three years ago won the event, taking in $25,000 cash, also made a bid for the prize again, tallying a 69 to match Winger and gain fourth

QTs Lose Two Games In Tourney

The Rogue Valley QTs were eliminated from the Oregon Women's Softball tournament at Klamath Falls Friday night, when they dropped a 9 to 0 decision to Roseburg behind three-hit pitching.

The QTs lost their opening game in the double-elimination tourney Thursday, 14 to 7, to Salem.

Friday afternoon, the Rogue Valley girls handed Forest Grove a 4 to 2 defeat scoring all their runs in the fifth inning.

In that game, Dorothy Shear-in singled and scored when Ellen Callahan tripled, who later scored when Diane Tuttle was safe on an error. A single by Bernice Bigham drove in Diane Tuttle and Doris Hickson, who had walked.

Home Runs in 1st
 Forest Grove scored both its runs when June Ruhlin homered in the first inning.

Hickson gave up five hits in going the distance for the QTs Friday afternoon.

Joy Engle allowed eight hits in pitching the first five frames of Friday night's game against Roseburg. Hickson relieved her and held Roseburg to one hit. The QTs committed 11 errors.

Oswego and Salem, the only two undefeated teams left in the tournament, were to meet last night for the championship.

In the third-round action Friday night, Oswego defeated burg, 2-1, and blanked Oakridge 3-0 in extra innings.

Salem downed defending champion Klamath Falls 7-3 and nipped Albany 3-1.

Miss Sears Sets Swimming Record

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Defending champion Mary Jane Sears of Washington's Walter Reed Swim Club set a new meet and American citizens record Saturday in the qualifying heats of the 200-meter breaststroke women's national AAU swimming championship.

Miss Sears bobbed over the new 50-meter John B. Kelly pool in Fairmont Park here in 3:04.8 to break the mark of 3:07.4 she set at Indianapolis last year.

Only Marie Gillette, a teammate came close to Miss Sears in the other nine heats to determine the qualifiers for the 3.8 seconds slower than Miss Sears.

Carin Cone Wins
 Unheralded Carin Cone, 15-year-old Ridgewood, N.J., girl, became the first double winner of the 1955 National AAU swimming tournament last night when she upset defending champion Shelly Mann of Washington, D.C., to win the 100-meter backstroke title.

Miss Cone, who equalled the world 50-meter course record in winning the 200-meter backstroke medal Friday night, traversed the 100-meter race in one minute, 15.6 seconds, one-tenth of a second off the American record, to win her second title.

It was a close race with only inches separating the first four girls at the finish.

Rainiers Dump Stars

By PETER HAYES
 United Press Sports Writer
 Seattle's Lou Kretlow rode to his 12th victory without defeat on a 19-hit barrage that buried Hollywood, 13-5 Friday night in the opener of an important four-game Pacific Coast league series.

Jerry Zuvela batted in five runs with his first homer and a double and a pair of singles as the front-running Rainiers increased their lead to three games over second-place Hollywood.

Eisewhere, Los Angeles downed San Diego, 7-5, to drop the third place Padres four games off the pace; Wayne Belardi's two home runs helped San Francisco inch past Portland, 6-5, and Oakland dropped Sacramento, 9-3, behind Karl Drews' four-hit hurling.

1,500 Golfers Enter USGA Meet

New York — (U.P.) — An all-time record field of approximately 1,500 golfers, including the entire U.S. Walker Cup team, has entered the 1955 national amateur championship, Joe Deya, executive secretary of the USGA, has announced.

The huge field will compete at 31 sectional qualifying sites for 189 places in the tournament proper, to be held at the Country Club of Virginia, in Richmond, Va., Sept. 12-17. These qualifiers and 11 exempt players will form a 200-man field for the championship proper.

WONDERS LOSE
 Moscow — (U.P.) — The Wolverhampton Wanderers of the British Soccer league lost their second straight game to Russian teams when they bowed to Moscow's Dynamo club Friday, 3-2.

Expect 150 to Start in First Marathon Here

About 150 drivers are expected to start in the first annual 24-hour marathon hard-top auto race at the sheriff's posse grounds here Labor Day weekend, Bill Rozelle and J. D. Pierce, co-chairmen of the Roseburg, 2-1, and blanked Oakridge 3-0 in extra innings.

They said over 250 drivers along the west coast have been invited to participate in the event, which is sponsored by the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Qualifying trials will be start Sept. 3, with the marathon starting at 4 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 4, and ending at 4 p.m. Monday, Sept. 5.

Prall Sets Pace In Medal Play

Vancouver, Wash. — (U.P.) — Bob Prall of Salem set the pace for more than 170 entrants in the 5th annual Oregon Golf Association medal play tournament yesterday by firing a three-under-par 69 over the Royal Oaks course.

Roy Atkins, Portland, with a 70, and Vince Legler, Portland, and Joe McAuley, Yakima, Wash., with 71s, were the only other golfers to break par.

The final 18 holes will be played today.

San Diego Wins Region 8 Title

Santa Monica, Calif. — (U.P.) — San Diego, Calif., clubbed out four homers in an 11-hit attack Saturday to defeat Cedar City, Utah, 17-4, for the Little League Baseball region eight championship.

The victory earned San Diego the right to represent the west in the Little World series starting Aug. 23 in Williamsport, Penn.

Colton, Calif., behind Wayne Thornton's two-hit pitching, beat Vancouver, B. C., 11-4, for third place in the tournament.

OPTION SHORTSTOP
 Philadelphia — (U.P.) — The Philadelphia Phillies have optioned shortstop Robert Micelotta to Syracuse of the International league. Micelotta was brought up from Syracuse July 23 when Gran Hamner and Roy Smalley were injured. Both are now back in action.

Indians Win 6th Straight; White Sox Slump Continues

By UNITED PRESS
 The Cleveland Indians stretched their winning streak to six games last night when they beat the Kansas City A's, 5-3, and opened up a two-game lead in the American league pennant race.

The six-game streak equalled the Indians longest of the season.

Herb Score struck out five in limiting the A's to seven hits and gaining his 12th win. Jim Hegan's fourth-inning homer put the Indians ahead to stay.

Two Homers
 Ted Kluszewski's two homers paced the Cincinnati Redlegs to a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in the other night game.

The White Sox, encountering their first serious slump of the season, fell before the Detroit Tigers' ninth-inning rally, 9-8, while the Red Sox were battered, 18-9, by the Washington Senators. The third-place Yankees were rained out at Baltimore. The White Sox now have lost six of nine games and the Red Sox five of seven.

Tri-City, Eugene Win NWL Games

By UNITED PRESS
 Vern Kindsfather hasn't been around the Northwest league too long but the former Seattle Rainier already owns a 10-2 mark.

His hurling has been one of the big reasons the Tri-City Braves are but two games behind league-leading Eugene after a so-so first half.

Kindsfather scattered eight hits Friday night in hurling the Braves to a 7-2 decision over Wenatchee. Phil Marvier hit him for a solo homer in the fourth and Wenatchee added another run in the sixth but that was all.

Eugene engineered a little breathing space atop the league standings.

The Emeralds took Yakima 11-5 although out. A five-run eighth inning on three hits and four walks did most of the damage. The victory moved Eugene a game and a half out in front of second place Lewiston.

Bill Dials turned in another victory as Salem edged Lewiston 5-3. Don Frailey's bases-empty homer in the sixth was the eventual winning run although the Senators added another run in the ninth.

WIN UPSET
 Portland — (U.P.) — The Legion All-Stars, aided by a triple play, upset Smith-Crosley, 2-1, and Archer Blower bounced Darigold, 7-4, Friday night in the state American Baseball Congress tournament here.

Harvey Kuenn's sacrifice fly sent Fred Hatfield home with the run that gave the Tigers their victory over the White Sox. Frank House started the rally by beating out a hit and he went to third when Hatfield singled. Then Nelson Fox threw wildly on a possible double play grounder by Red Wilson, House scoring and Hatfield going to third to set up the sacrifice fly.

Long Game
 A total of 35 players saw action in the three-hour and 20-minute game with the Tigers employing 19.

The Senators came up with an 18-hit attack on four Boston pitchers to stage their biggest run-outburst of the campaign. Mickey Vernon hit a grand slam homer and Carlos Paula drove in four runs with three doubles to lead the assault. Mickey McDermott received credit for his seventh triumph.

In the only National League day game, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, with the aid of Ed Mathews' 30th homer. Bob Buhl out-pitched Sam Jones to win his 10th game.

Cudd Into 3rd At Tam

Chicago — (U.P.) — Bruce Cudd of Portland, Ore., shot a 73 Friday for a two-day total of 147 to move into third place in the men's amateur division of the "world" golf championships at Tam O'Shanter.

Leading the amateurs is Doug Sanders of Cedartown, Ga., with a 137. Jim Tom Blair, Jefferson City, Mo., is second with 146.
