

Recital Set For Today

Ashland — Guest artists will present a recital of 17th century music at the second Shakespearean festival Sunday concert at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the festival theatre.

Featured will be Miss Edith Woodcock of Seattle playing the piano, and Mrs. Mabel Pittinger, Mill Valley, Calif., playing the viola.

Miss Woodcock teaches piano at the University of Washington and is a music research student. Mrs. Pittinger is director of music at Tampalis High school in Mill Valley, and was formerly a violinist with the Seattle Symphony orchestra and violinist with the Cleveland Symphony orchestra.

The concerts are a part of this season's expanded music program, which also includes half-hour programs of folk music before the plays, and special lectures and displays of ancient instruments. Two more Sunday concerts will be given by festive musicians. All concerts are free to the public.

This afternoon's program will include a viola concerto by Teleman, a harpsichord sonata by Galuppi, and dance forms of the 16th and 17th centuries by composers including Byrd, Lully, Locatelli, and Corelli.

Bride-Elect Guest At Shower Party

Miss Mary Anne Birdseye, a bride-to-be, was honored at a party given last Monday evening by Mrs. Gordon James. Miss Birdseye's marriage to Dan Wayne Doty of Endicott, Wash., is set for September 9 at First Presbyterian church here.

The party was held on the patio at the home of Mrs. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell, 6 South Keeneway drive, and the honored guest was presented a shower of gifts for her new home. The refreshment table was centered with a simulated ring enclosing a bouquet of flowers.

Invited to the party were Miss Carolyn Coleman, Mrs. Wesley Coleman, the Misses Priscilla and Ellen West, Mrs. J. Vern Shangle, Mrs. Albert James, Miss Margaret, Huson, Miss Bernice Bingham, Mrs. Kenneth Phillips, Miss Tanya Trowbridge, Miss Donna Witter, the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. Victor Birdseye.

Miss Birdseye left Thursday for Colfax, Wash., to visit friends and attend another party planned in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stoughton (Landis-Shangle photo)

Miss Ann Rentchler Wed To William C. Stoughton

First Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ann L. Rentchler to William C. Stoughton on Friday, August 5. The Rev. John Reynolds officiated for the double-ring rites, held at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Rentchler, 25 South Groveland avenue, and Mr. Stoughton is a son of Mrs. Corinne Stoughton, Newport Beach, Calif.

Baskets of blue delphinium and white stock provided a setting for the bridal party and blue bows knotted with white bells marked the pew ends. Mrs. Charles Champlin was soloist, and Miss Priscilla West provided the accompaniment and other wedding music.

Mr. Rentchler escorted his daughter down the church aisle and gave her in marriage. She wore a white floor-length cotton lace gown of princess design with matching mitts, and her finger-tip length veil of French illusion net was held by a net bandeau. She carried white roses with stephanotis, and a lace handkerchief made by her paternal grandmother which her mother had carried for her wedding.

Miss Nancy Jennings was the bride's only attendant. She wore a street length princess style frock of pale blue faille with matching shoes, hat and gloves. Her bouquet was a nosegay of white carnations.

Richard Durkee, Newport Beach, Calif., was best man for his brother-in-law and serving as ushers were Robert Rentchler, Eugene, brother of the bride, and John Gischel, Ashland.

Fifty guests attended the wedding and the reception which followed in the fireplace room of the church. White gladioli and blue daisies further carried out the blue and white color theme of the wedding, and white roses and blue candles decorated the bride's table. The knife used to cut the wedding cake was one of the bride's gifts.

Mrs. Robert Rentchler, the bride's sister-in-law, took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Richard Durkee, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. John Gischel poured punch.

Both the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore pink linen and lace dresses with corsages of white roses for the occasion.

Mr. Stoughton and his bride are traveling in Glacier National park and Canada for their wedding trip and will live at 383 Bridge street, Ashland. The bride will be on the faculty of the new Jefferson school in Medford beginning with the fall term, and Mr. Stoughton will again teach at Briscoe school, Ashland. The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college, and the bridegroom attended Pasadena Junior college, University of California at Los Angeles and was graduated from Southern Oregon college.

In addition to the wedding party those in Medford for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. W. Donald Grow, Pasadena, Calif., Miss Erlene Daniels, Cottage Grove, and Mrs. George Ward, Bandon, Ore.

Here for Festival Judge and Mrs. Max Church, Sequim Bay, Wash., are in Ashland this week end to attend Oregon Shakespearean festival plays. On Monday they will be houseguests of Mrs. Paul Janney and that evening will be dinner guests of Seth Bullis and Miss Helen Bullis. They plan to leave for home Tuesday by way of Crater and Crescent lakes.

Garden Ceremony In Eagle Point Marries Couple

Eagle Point — Miss Patricia Mae Stock and Ralph Leon Hackney were married in a garden ceremony July 16 at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hackney, route 1, box 62, Eagle Point. The newly wedded couple is living in Medford.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. W. H. Harper, formerly of Brownsboro, but who now lives in California.

The bride wore a blue dress with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations. Miss Joyce Adkins was the matron of honor and Melvin Holder was best man for the ceremony. About 30 guests attended.

The couple made a trip to the coast. Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of Eagle Point high school.

Parties Honor Miss Coleman

Mrs. C. A. Winetroust and Mrs. I. E. Staples were hostesses for a luncheon Tuesday afternoon which honored Miss Carol Coleman. Miss Coleman's wedding to Arthur Schweikhart Monroe, Pasadena, Calif., has been set for Saturday, September 3, at St. Mark's Episcopal church here.

The event was held at the Winetroust home, East Fairview drive, and 18 attended. Among the guests was Mrs. Frank Bryant, Yreka, Calif., aunt of the bride.

Following luncheon, Miss Coleman was presented a shower of gifts.

A bridal shower and luncheon Thursday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lageson also honored Miss Coleman. Hostesses were Miss Margo Lageson, Miss Shirley Boitano and Miss Sharon Hogan.

In addition to the honored guest and hostesses, those present were Mrs. Wayne Hunter, Miss Chloe Fairweather, Mrs. Earl Newman, Mrs. Loren Soderlund, Mrs. James Shinn, and Miss Ruth Ann Pederson.

Charity Williams Honored at Party

Miss Charity Williams, whose wedding to Robert Ernest Small is planned for Tuesday, August 23, was honored at a shower party given recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilcox, 34 Elm street. Hostesses were Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Russ Jamison, Mrs. Fred Wilcox and Mr. Ralph Van Northwick.

Cards were played, and Miss Williams was presented gifts.

Guests included Mrs. Ralph Wilcox, Mrs. T. C. Barker, Mrs. Delno Sloan, Mrs. Miles Gammill, Mrs. Berthold Barnum, Mrs. Ruth Clark, Mrs. Dwight Houghton, Mrs. Lelia Paxson, Mrs. T. V. Williams, mother of the bride-to-be and her sisters, Miss Phyllis and Miss Rhoda Williams.

Hostess Gives Breakfast Party

Mrs. Charles Hoppe was hostess Wednesday morning for a breakfast at her home on Lozier lane. It was a "come as you are" party, with guests wearing the clothing which they had on when the hostess phoned the morning of the party.

Guests included Mrs. Leta Queen and Mrs. Edna Olin, Oxford, Calif., Mrs. Clarence Harwood, Mrs. Howard Basore, Mrs. Lloyd Caton, Mrs. Jack Ward, Mrs. Jack Clark, Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, and Mrs. L. G. Frink. Mrs. Queen formerly made her home in Medford.

Medford Woman Attends School

Mrs. Stephen G. Nye has returned to Medford after spending the past few weeks in San Francisco where she studied at San Francisco State college for the summer session. Mrs. Nye, former teacher and now a member of the Medford district school board, took courses in special education.

Here

Henry Mudd, Los Angeles, is in the valley this week on business. He is staying at the Crater Inn motel and Friday evening was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther, Talent.

Mrs. Dale C. Harris (Clayt Green photo)

Harris - McKeen Rites Held Sunday in Portland Church

Several Medford persons were in Portland Sunday, August 7, to attend the wedding of Miss Carla McKeen and Dale C. Harris. Miss McKeen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. McKeen, former Medford residents living now in Portland. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Harris, Salem.

The ceremony was read at 4 o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. Myron C. Cole in the First Christian church in Portland.

In Portland for the wedding were Mrs. Kenneth Phillips and Miss Carolyn Coleman, who attended the bride, Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and Mrs. Fred Gatter, who assisted at the reception, Mrs. Victor Birdseye, Mrs. Wayne Jamison and Mrs. Marshall Sweet.

The bride's gown was of tulle and lace over satin and was designed and made by her mother. The skirt was trimmed with lace applique and seed pearls. A leaf shaped cap of tulle and pearls held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a white Bible marked with white roses.

Miss Lorraine Landrud, Portland, was the maid of honor, Mrs. Phillips was bridesmatron and Miss Coleman a bridesmaid. They wore bon bon pink crystal-ette princess style dresses and carried bouquets of cherry red gladioli.

Miss Diana Eckelman and Miss Carolyn Hanlein, young cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. Their frocks were of pink crystal-ette.

Thomas Whitehead of Portland was best man. Ward Harris, a brother of the bridegroom, Clifford McKeen, the bride's brother, Hal Hargreaves, and Charles Hargrave, Salem, and Richard Scott, Lyons, seated the guests.

The reception was held in the church rooms and presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. Leslie Wing, the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Budelman, an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Gatter. Assisting were Mrs. Donald Hobson, Salem, Miss Linda Budelman, Los Angeles, Miss Sandra Schuerman, Portland, and Miss Carol Hewitt, Burlingame, Calif. Mrs. Don Griffith had charge of the guest book.

The newly wedded couple plan to leave in mid-September to live in New York City where the bridegroom will do graduate work at the Union Theological seminary there. The bride, a senior university student, also will continue her education in New York City. The bridegroom is studying in preparation for the Methodist ministry. Both attended Willamette university and he was graduated in June.

In the meantime the couple will live at 470 Miller street in Salem. They made their wedding trip along the Oregon coast.

Presbyterian Women Plan Annual Silver Tea Tuesday

An important event on the social calendar this week is the annual summer tea of the Women's association, First Presbyterian church. The tea, given each year to raise funds to buy drugs for mission medical work, will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Bert B. Lowry on Fern Valley road.

Members of the Presbyterian association, their guests and friends are invited to attend, and hours will be from two to 5:30 o'clock.

Mrs. William Farrell and Mrs. Stanley Lacy are co-chairmen in charge of the tea, and assisting will be the presidents of the various circles of the association and members of Candlelight and Vesper circles. Pouring will be Mrs. Chester Wendt, Mrs. Horace Thompson, Mrs. Grace Collins, Mrs. Lila Thomas, Mrs. Aubrey Norris and Mrs. Charles W. Lemery. Assisting will be Mrs. William McAllister, Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Otto Emig, Mrs. G. T. Haupt, Mrs. John Wubbles, Mrs. Clayton George, Mrs. Paul Wray, Mrs. John Dellenbeck, Mrs. Vincent Bevis, Mrs. Kenneth Cook, Mrs. Richard Wyatt, Mrs. Gaston Floux and Mrs. Thad Hatten. Mrs. Dellenbeck is chairman of Candlelight circle, and Vesper circle is headed by Mrs. Bevis.

Several musicians will play during the afternoon, providing both background music and appearing as featured soloists.

Those planning to attend the tea are instructed to drive south on the Pacific highway to the Fern Valley road which turns east near the entrance to Phoenix.

Visits Sons Here

Mrs. M. C. Wright returned last week to her home in Bieber, Calif., after visiting here with her two sons, Wayne and Donald Wright, and their families.

Mrs. Wright, who made her home in Medford until recently, is now a co-owner of the Rainbow fountain and confectionery at Bieber.

"Dottie" Hall

Hair Stylist
Extends a warm welcome to old friends and announces she will take appointments for permanents and styling as late as 5:30 p.m.

Modern BEAUTY Salon
131 S. Central—Phone 3-5379

Adrienne's Special Buy

TRAVEL CREPE
SCALLOP
COAT DRESS

NEW
FALL
DRESSES

$1498

$1998

Value

Bettermade Garment Company Tailors 22 hand made Scallop with exacting detail making this dress one of Fashions most wearable successes... In a miracle Fashion First of Rayon and Acetate Travel Crepe especially designed for youthful half sizes. Just try one on—you will love its fit. Colors: Blue, Turquoise, Ruby, Purple, and Carbon

Sizes: 12½-24½

Don't Miss This Special Offer
Other Outstanding Values at $14.98

Adrienne's

214 EAST MAIN

PHONE 2-7169

The Fashion Silhouette Needs ...

Exquisite Form
BRASSIERES

Style 392 ... Broadcloth .....$2.50
Style 395 ... Acetate Satin .....$2.50
Style 391 ... Nylon Taffeta with nylon marquisette cups .....$3.00
A cup 32-36. B cup 32-40. C cup 32-38 ... white only

SEE OUR TV SHOW
OVER KBES-TV
TONIGHT — 9:45 P.M.

Leon's
21 N. CENTRAL

BURELSON'S

LADIES!
Burelson's
Beauty Salon

Will Take Appointments
Between 5 & 5:30 p.m.

ALSO OPEN THURSDAY EVENINGS
For Your Convenience

Phone 2-2096 for Appointments

As Advertised in Look

The most trusted diamond...

Artcarved
DIAMOND RINGS

As trustworthy as the faith you share, is love's eternal symbol, your Artcarved® ring. Yes, each Artcarved ring is guaranteed and registered for color, cut, clarity and carat weight. Come in today... choose from our magnificent selection of Artcarved Diamond Rings, and be assured of fine quality and outstanding value.

OPEN UNTIL 9 P.M. WEDNESDAYS
This Is An Excellent Time To Select Your Rings!

LAWRENCE'S

YOUR SILVER STORE

Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches, Tool

130 EAST MAIN

EST. 1908