

Hoover-Hilliard Ceremony Held in Central Point Church

Central Point—The Community Bible church of Central Point was the scene of the wedding of Miss Roberta Hilliard and Ian Hoover on the evening of August 6. The Rev. George Grey of Cave Junction, a friend of the family, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hilliard of 413 Sterling road, Jacksonville, and Mr. Hoover is the son of Mrs. Ada Ross Hoover of Oakland, Calif. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hoover are students of Simpson Bible college, Seattle, Washington, where his is a ministerial student.

With the exception of little Barbara Vincent of Central Point, who was the flower girl, all the members of the bridal party were college friends of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white lace over satin and carried a bouquet of cream colored roses. Her necklace was a Hoover family heirloom. Matron of honor was Mrs. Frank Swezey and bridesmaids were Miss LaVelle Goodman and Miss Jean Moffatt, all of Seattle, Wash. Their frocks were sky blue net over taffeta and each carried a white daisy nosegay.

Francis Swezey was best man, and ushers were David Foley and Monty Krebs of Tucson, Ariz.

Miss LaVelle Goodman sang and Mrs. Paul Kroon of Cave Junction was the pianist. The candelabra tapers were lighted by Miss Laurel Higginbotham and Miss Barbara McGonagle who wore pink gowns. Baskets of pink, white, and yellow gladioli adorned the altar.

The pink and white color scheme was also used in the reception room where pink daisies formed the centerpiece and the corsages of those assisting. Misses Marlene Addington and Dorothy Lawton served the wedding cake.

ding cake. Pouring were Mrs. G. H. Hansen and Mrs. Angus Todd; Miss Ruth Powell had charge of the gift table and guest book.

The bride's mother wore a steel-blue crepe dress with white accessories, and the mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of gold and green brocade with green accessories.

A wedding dinner was given by the bride's family in their home before the wedding ceremony for the out of town guests and members of the wedding party.

After a honeymoon at Crater lake the couple will make their home in Oakland, Calif., to continue their schooling in Simpson Bible college which is moving from Seattle to San Francisco.

Home Service Held Last Month Marries Couple

The wedding of Mrs. Hazel L. Van Dermark of Medford and Grover G. Rawls, Norman, Ark., was performed July 15 in the patio of the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hawk, 1907 East Jackson street.

About 40 guests attended. The ceremony was performed before the outdoor fireplace which was decorated with bouquets of gladioli.

Mrs. Luther Davis was matron of honor for her sister and Sherman Rawls, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Other attendants were three flower girls, all granddaughters of the bride. They are Kathy and Cynthia Stuart and Goldie Ann Brown.

Marty Davis and Bill Marvin served as ushers. At the reception, also held in the patio, Mrs. John McKinney and Mrs. Hawk served cake and punch and Mrs. Goldie Hawk had charge of the guest book.

From out of town for the event were Mrs. Don Marvin, a niece of the bride, and Mrs. Marvin's children, Mary Lou and Billy, all of Portland.

The couple is living for the present at 345 Apple street. The bridegroom is retired.

Jennings Return From Island Stay

Dr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings, Saginaw drive, have returned from a trip to Honolulu, Hawaii where they attended an annual Hawaii Osteopathic convention.

They were guests at the Reef hotel on the beach at Waikiki and they toured the island of Oahu, made a trip through Pearl harbor and did some traveling to other islands in the Hawaiian group. Prior to the convention in Hawaii, Dr. and Mrs. Jennings had attended the National American Osteopathic association convention in Los Angeles.

Phoenix Women Leaving Today

Phoenix — Mrs. C. W. Barnes will leave today by United Airlines for Columbus, Ohio, where she will spend the next few months with her son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Philip Sturdevant and the couple's daughter, Jean Elizabeth.

The officer and his wife returned about a year ago after a tour of duty in England, and during their stay in that country, adopted Jean Elizabeth.

Presbyterians Attend School

A group of Medford women returned home Friday after having been in Portland for the last week to attend the annual north-west leadership training school for the Presbyterian church.

In the group were Mrs. Edith Baker, superintendent of the junior department of First Presbyterian church; Mrs. Wayne Jamison, superintendent of children's work; Mrs. Robert Fleming, Mrs. Marshall Sweet and Mrs. Victor Birdseye.

A visitor in the city last week was Mrs. Charles G. (Kathleen) Norris, the well known American author who makes her home in California. Pictured here with Mrs. Norris (center) are her granddaughter, Miss Nellie Norris, San Francisco, a freshman student at Stanford university last year, and Mrs. Benjamin Dreyfus, Mill Valley, Calif., who is a niece of Mrs. Norris. The three visitors attended performances of the Shakespearean festival in Ashland and yesterday Mrs. Norris spoke at a picnic sponsored by Jackson County Republican Women.

jamin Dreyfus, Mill Valley, Calif., who is a niece of Mrs. Norris. The three visitors attended performances of the Shakespearean festival in Ashland and yesterday Mrs. Norris spoke at a picnic sponsored by Jackson County Republican Women.

University Plans Rush Schedule For Transfers

Eugene—A new rushing schedule for transfer women students and university coeds who have at least 36 term hours of credit has been worked out by the office of women's affairs, University of Oregon. The new schedule will enable the students to go through rushing the week before registration and move into the dormitories they pledge at the beginning of fall term.

Rushing, under the new plan, will be from September 16 through 19. During this time the women will live in Carson hall on the campus. They will go through a simplified rush and will move into houses they pledge September 20. Freshmen women who rush will arrive on the campus September 18 and rush week will be September 23 through 27.

In the past, transfers and upperclass women who pledged during the regular rush week, were required to live in the dormitories during fall term. Cost of room and board in the dormitories during the short rush period will be $10. There is also a $5 rush fee. Those wishing to obtain further information concerning the revised plan may write or contact Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, director of women's affairs.

Luncheon Honors San Franciscan

Mrs. George M. Roberts entertained Friday at a luncheon which honored Mrs. James Alger Fee, San Francisco. Mrs. Fee is in Medford with her husband, a judge of the federal circuit court of appeals.

The luncheon was at the Colony club.

Among other guests were Mrs. Charles G. (Kathleen) Norris, San Francisco and Palo Alto, Calif., the well known author, and Mrs. Benjamin Dreyfus, Mill Valley, Calif., niece of Mrs. Norris.

The Fees have been in Medford for a week and will remain for the coming week.

Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Dreyfus and Mrs. Norris' granddaughter, Miss Nellie Norris, San Francisco, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Norris of that city, spent the past week here and planned to leave today.

Spelling Bee Planned For Barracks Fourteen

A spelling bee has been planned for the entertainment of members of Barracks 14, Veterans of World War I, Friday, August 19. The veterans will be guests of the Barracks' auxiliary at a meeting in Veterans' hall at Camp White.

Mrs. Grover G. Rawls, president of the auxiliary, states that a "watermelon feed" will follow the program.

Shower Honors Julie Tolman; To Wed Soon

Miss Julia Nan Tolman, bride-elect of Elson L. Putnam, an airman second class, was honored Thursday afternoon at a kitchen shower held on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Mitchell of the Home Mobile lodge, 2495 West Main street. Those who attended were mobile home owners and residents of the lodge.

Miss Tolman is a daughter of Mrs. R. M. Watson and her fiancé is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Putnam, Grants Pass. He is stationed at Williams Air Force base, Chandler, Ariz.

They have set their wedding for September 3.

Families who attended were the Floyd Timmons, Floyd Jones, David Gates, Richard Harts, H. D. Beatty, William Hoffee, John Q. Adams, Willard Stones, Gene Leys, Leslie Hilemans, Ted Shuras, Eugene Walkers, M. J. Winningsham, Ross Twedells and R. M. Watsons.

Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Shura were cohostesses for the event which was in the form of a surprise.

Four Students On Honor Roll

Four Rogue valley students attending Washington State college were on the honor roll for the spring semester of 1955, a release from the college states. To qualify for the roll, students must have made 50 or more grade points for the semester.

On the honor roll were Miss Mary Ann Birdseye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Birdseye; Douglas Phillips, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Phillips; and Robene Starcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, all Medford, and Jim Earl Perry, Eagle Point.

Student Awarded PTA Scholarship

Miss Sally Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue, is one of 23 Oregon State college students who have been awarded full-tuition scholarships for 1955-56. Miss Harris and the others who received the awards are preparing to be elementary school teachers. The scholarships are furnished through the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The awards are designed to encourage capable young people to enter elementary teacher training in Oregon where the demand for teachers far exceeds the supply. They are based on scholarship, character and leadership and are renewable for more than one year.

Miss Harris is among 12 who won the study grants for the second year.

Roxy Ann Club To Meet Wednesday

Roxy Ann Home Economics club women plan to meet Wednesday, August 17, at 8 p.m. Mesdames Cameron and Bish will be hostesses.

JEAN HART SAYS

They're here

...our

David Crystal
Suits

Handsome town suit to flatter your figure in wool and rabbit fur blend with double-score jacket detail, perfectly pared skirt. By DAVID CRYSTAL
as shown in Harper's Bazaar.

OURS
EXCLUSIVELY

a David
CRYSTAL
Fashion

Shop at the Pink Store
Where You Park at the Door

617 East Main • Phone 2-8992

LAY-A-WAY NOW

FOR BACK TO SCHOOL

with "chromatic" luggage
by Skyway

Juliet
Cosmetic Case
$17.75

Burma, Jet,
Danube, Matador,
Frost, Mint,
Cedar
All in scuff-proof,
dirt-proof Kerosol®
*TM Reg. B. F. Goodrich Co.

Wide
Selection

Use Your CHARGE ACCOUNT

Matched Luggage is the dream of every young graduate, and you can give your lucky favorite a honey of a start with Skyway. The streamlined chromium locks and Liftomatic hinges are newer than tomorrow...
the out-of-this-world colors are forever matchable for future selections. Pick a starter set from a tremendous choice of styles and colors
—let them fill in for themselves whenever the need arises.

Swem's
BOOKS • GIFTS • RECORDS
217 EAST MAIN MEDFORD, OREGON

PLANT these NOW! Evergreens

and Boxwood
(in containers)
WERE $1.50
NOW 98¢ 12 FOR $10.00

Garden Center Nursery
(Formerly NEWHALL'S)
3 1/2 Mi. So. of Phoenix,
Pacific Hiway

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Mirick
(Brainerd photo)

Newlywed Couple Makes Home Here After Recent Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Mirick, married June 26 in Eugene, Ore., are living at 305 Stewart avenue, Medford. The bride is the former Charlotte Lou Ledingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Ledingham, Kenton, Wash., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mirick, 509 West Eleventh street.

The wedding took place in St. Mary's Episcopal church in Eugene, with only members of the two families attending.

The bride wore a dress of white embroidered batiste and carried a bouquet of miniature white gladioli and pink rosebuds on a white prayer book. Her headdress matched her bouquet.

Mrs. L. D. Pederson, Eugene, was her sister's only attendant. Her frock was of blue batiste and her flowers matched those carried by the bride.

Mr. Ledingham gave his daughter in marriage, and Mr. Pederson was best man for the bridegroom.

A family dinner at the Pederson home followed the ceremony.

The bride has attended Willamette university, the University of Oregon and Mexico City college. The bridegroom, who attended Medford High school, was graduated from Willamette university in June, taking a degree in music. He participated in many of the school's musical activities and was affiliated with both social and honor groups.

Interim Pastor To Leave Tuesday

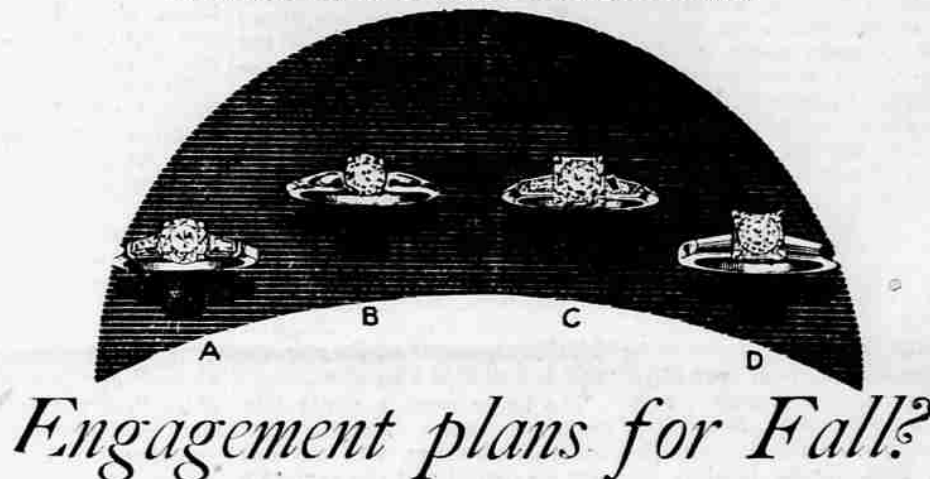

Rommie Moore who has been here for the summer vacation months as interim pastor for the Church of the Brethren is to leave Tuesday for Chicago, Ill.

where is a student at the Bethany seminary, a Brethren institution. On August 28 he will be married at Chicago to Miss Ellen Royer.

Mr. Moore's home is in Virginia. He remarked that this part of Oregon is similar to the part of Virginia where he lives and also that people here are much the same, "warm and friendly."

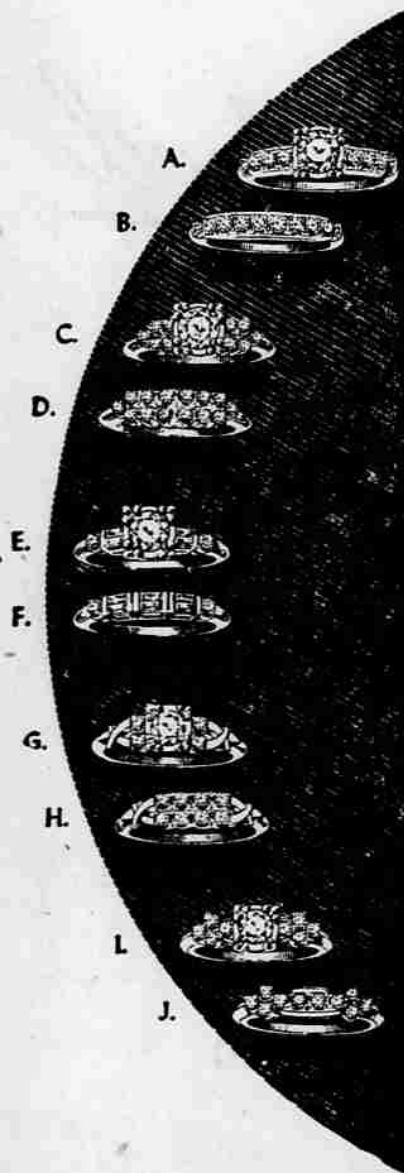

It's from Brophy's Medford
Medford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths

Engagement plans for Fall?

Then it's time to give careful consideration to the diamond. No matter what you plan to spend, you should know the qualities that determine the price of a gem - you should have variety in selection. Here, our Diamond Experts will show you - by means of unerring, scientific instruments - how diamonds vary in cutting, color and perfection.

A. Tapered baguettes; platinum $500 C. Channel-set diamonds $300
B. Flawless, gem color diamond $300 D. 14k white or yellow gold $200

Matchmates
for Matrimony

our look-alikes for the engagement and wedding. The small diamonds in one duplicate the design of the other to double the effectiveness and beauty of each - to strike a note of complete harmony. They are but five of the matched sets in our made-for-each-other collection.

A. $300 C. $300 E. $300 G. $200 I. $200
B. $155 D. $145 F. $155 H. $95 J. $110

All eighteen karat white gold mountings
Prices include Federal Tax

For the Diamonds
You'll Give With Pride... Let Brophy's
Be Your Guide.

Brophy's
JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON
Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century