

Talent — Mrs. Nell Kilburn, 107 Valley View, announces the engagement of her granddaughter, Miss Sharon Lee Kilburn, to Jay Lloyd Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wood, 203 South Second street, Talent. The bride-elect is a junior at Talent High school. No wedding date has been set.

Altrusans Plan Barbecue Dinner; Board to Meet

Medford Altrusa club will entertain husbands and guests at a barbecue steak dinner at seven o'clock Thursday evening, August 18, on the patio of the home of Mrs. Fred Rankin, Richmond avenue. Mrs. William Frake will be co-hostess for the event, which is the third such social occasion held this summer by Altrusa. The first was at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel in June, and the second a family Sunday picnic in July at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haskins on the upper Apple-gate river, with fishing, swimming and outdoor games as pastimes. Mrs. Haskins, the retiring president of the local club, is now an advisory member of the new executive board.

Mrs. Maud Coddling, president, has called a meeting of the new board at her home, August 14 at 7:30 to make plans for the coming year's activities which will begin officially with a dinner meeting Thursday, September 8. Dr. Loretta Miller, new governor for the 10th Altrusa district, will be the honored guest of the local club. Dr. Miller will be speaker for the evening program and during her stay in Medford will conduct a workshop for local officers and committee chairmen.

Members of the board are Miss Lotus Eaton, vice-president and program coordinator; Miss Myrta Otterdale, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Helen Reuter, recording secretary; Mrs. Francis Grant, treasurer and Mrs. Edna Mole, Mrs. Rankin and Miss Grace Smith, directors; and Mrs. Bertha Haskins, advisory counselor.

Janice Stanford, Preston Thiel Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Alvey D. Stanford of 930 Shafer lane, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Janice Maxine Stanford, to Preston D. Thiel, son of Mrs. Arthur Thiel, Ames, Iowa.

Miss Stanford was graduated from Medford Senior High school in 1953 and is employed by Abner O. Clark of the Oakdale Dental clinic.

Mr. Thiel was graduated from Ames High school in 1946 and was graduated in 1952 from Iowa State college. He is assistant manager of the J. J. Newberry company in Medford. The wedding is set for early spring.

Miss Janice Stanford (Brainerd photo)

Tedrick-Hammer Rites Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tedrick, whose marriage was an event of July 23, will live at Eugene after a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and San Francisco.

The bride, the former Miss Anita Hammer, is a daughter of Mrs. Marvin McDole, 921 Reddy street. She has been employed for the past four years in the Jackson County Public welfare offices.

Mr. Tedrick, a representative of the Willamette Valley district council of the American Federation of Labor, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tedrick, 2104 Spring street.

The ceremony was performed at Reno, Nev., in the First Methodist church. The Rev. Stephen C. Thomas, pastor of the church, read the double ring rites.

The bride wore a white lace dress, ballerina length, with white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid and she carried a white Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Merri-man, Medford, attended the couple.

A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony.

Phoenix — Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dudley, Phoenix, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Shirley Dudley, to Terry Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Maddox, Jacksonville. Miss Dudley is a junior at Sacred Heart school of nursing in Eugene and Mr. Maddox is a junior student at the University of Oregon where he is majoring in geology. No date has been set for the wedding.

New Garden Club In Shady Cove Holds Meeting

Shady Cove — A constitution and by-laws were adopted at a meeting of the new Shady Cove Garden club held August 8 at the home of Mrs. Max Hawks. Mrs. Tom Tepper and Mrs. Dolf Larson were co-hostesses, and Mrs. Edwin Strother, the president, presided.

Mrs. Tom King, chairman of the constitution committee, read the documents.

Membership of the group has been extended to 35, and this number will constitute a closed membership.

Committee chairmen named are program, Mrs. Charles Cushman, Trail; horticulture, Mrs. Floyd Kelley, Shady Cove; flower arrangements, Mrs. William Shepherd, Shady Cove; year book, Mrs. Scott Brill, Trail; and publicity, Mrs. Carroll Watson, Shady Cove.

Members present for the meeting were the Mesdames Edwin Strother, William Shepherd, Tom King, Frank Cook, Edgar Vanderlip, Pearl Adair, Richard Pfeiffer, Frank Plink, Verne Wilson, Dick Bartus, Cecil Kee, Delbert Spain, Tom Tepper, O. L. Williams, Ed Houston, Dolf Larson, Max Hawks and Carroll Watson of Shady Cove and Scott Brill, Bob Chamberlain, A. Myklebye and Charles Cushman of Trail. Mrs. Cushman, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Cliff Green, Central Point, member of the Eagle Point Garden club. She gave a talk on the subject "Continuous Blooming of Border Perennials," illustrated by color pictures and samples of the different flowers about which the talk centered.

Ashland AAUW Member to Represent National Group at Canadian Meeting

Ashland—Mrs. C. D. Winston, vice-president of the North Pacific region, American Association of University Women, goes to Edmonton, Alberta for the week of August 16-20 to represent the national association at the triennial meeting of the Canadian Federation of University Women.

Both the Canadian federation and the American association are members of the International

AAUW Board Plans Events At Meeting

Special activities for the fall program of Medford chapter American Association of University Women, were planned at the first meeting of the new executive board held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Emerson Anderson, the president for the year.

August 25 and 26 were announced as rummage sale days, an annual money making project under the chairmanship this year of Mrs. R. J. Keeney.

September 16 and 17 Mrs. Anderson will represent the local group at the Oregon state board of AAUW at Klamath Falls.

Saturday, September 24, the traditional membership tea will again open the club's fall season. The hospitality chairman, Mrs. John Carnegie, will announce the place, time, and special committees later. All present, former and prospective members are invited to this tea as well as study group members. All college and university graduates interested in membership are asked to contact the new membership chairman, Mrs. Gordon MacKenzie.

Mrs. William Knope, study group coordinator, states that the new list of study group chairmen will be announced soon and that all will be present at the membership tea to register members interested in the wide variety of study programs. These groups are open to any woman interested whether she is eligible for AAUW membership or not.

October 18 AAUW will again sponsor the Children's Theatre of the West which will present two performances of a child's play "The Bremertown Musicians" at the Craterian Theatre. Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Harold Cook, fellowship chairman, who is rapidly forming her committees for this important event.

Arrangements for holding the annual art exhibit to celebrate National Art week early in November were reported by Mrs. John Warneke, new art chairman who will be assisted in the project by Mrs. R. H. Denning. This exhibit is open to all artists of the valley.

Other Committee chairman for the year were introduced by Mrs. Anderson. They are recent graduates, Mrs. Steve Harbert; education, Mrs. Harry Poston; international relations, Mrs. Justin Smith; social studies, Miss Rhoda Williams; status of women, Mrs. C. E. Gordon; legislation, Mrs. Dorothy Dawson; publicity, Mrs. Fred E. Rankin; program, Mrs. Joe Dugan; historian, Mrs. John Stong; telephone, Mrs. W. F. Reemer; radio and TV, Mrs. Fred Wilcox; courtesy, Mrs. M. D. Greary.

All committee chairmen, the advisors, Mrs. Herbert Seitz and Mrs. Frances Willett and the officers, Mrs. Gordon MacKenzie, first vice-president, Mrs. William Knope, second vice-president, Mrs. Jim McGowan, secretary and Mrs. Stanley Jones, treasurer, make up the board. Board meetings will be held monthly on the second Monday.

Church Council Plans Workshop

A fall Mission study workshop was planned by the board of Medford Council of Church Women when they met August 10 at First Methodist church. The workshop will be held Friday, September 30 at the Eastwood Baptist church beginning at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Ralph Matthews, chairman for the event, gave a resume of the work to be done and also displayed both home and foreign mission books that will be used this year in the churches.

The home mission study will concern American Indians, and the foreign mission study will be done in many fields including South America, Southeast and Southwest Asia and Japan.

Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morris and son, Bob, Mountain Home, Ark., are visiting with Mrs. Rosalee Davis, Evelyn apartments. Mr. Morris is a nephew of Mrs. Davis. They made a trip to Crater lake Tuesday and they also visited at the summer home of Mrs. Otto Jeldness on the Rogue.

Rent a Brand New
Gulbransen Spinnet
PIANO
from the Valley Music Co.
523 Crater Lake Ave.

Post, Auxiliary Announce Events For Shady Cove

Shady Cove — Several coming events of importance were announced last week for members of Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and auxiliary.

First will be a meeting Friday, August 19 at 8 p.m., when Maj. Gen. J. H. Hicks, director of Jackson county civilian defense, will speak on civilian defense.

Another is a dance scheduled for Saturday, August 20, with Jim Rhea's orchestra furnishing the entertainment.

On Labor day, September 5, a field day will be held beginning at 9:30 a.m., at Camp White domiciliary. Mrs. Harry Birch, department chairman, made the announcement and explained that the field day is being held in order that post and auxiliary members may become better acquainted with the personnel and the veterans. The auxiliary will sponsor a wheel chair basket ball game for the event.

Mrs. Dan Krotz reported that a safety drive is still being conducted and urged all to stay within speed limits as they drive through Shady Cove.

Mrs. Jim Hopkins pointed out that a membership drive is now being held and that a 100 per cent membership is the goal.

A special meeting and potluck dinner is set for September 23 at 7 p.m., when initiation ceremonies will be conducted for candidates of both the post and auxiliary.

Mrs. Krotz, also chairman of ways and means, announced a breakfast given by the past presidents' group.

The auxiliary was awarded $2 by the department head as a second prize for an Americanism project. Mrs. Frances Miller was the chairman.

An auction is planned by the post and auxiliary for November 6 with proceeds to be used toward a new heating system for the post home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Page were guests of the auxiliary and the post. He is commander of the Gold Hill post and Mrs. Page is chaplain of the auxiliary. They extended an invitation to the group to attend meetings at Gold Hill which are held the second Friday of each month.

After the meeting refreshments were served to the post and the auxiliary by Mrs. Harry Birch, Mrs. Dave Bergren and Mrs. Jim Cassal.

Guests who attended the "Tahitian Night" party at Rogue Valley Country club last Saturday night were served punch by two "island natives" pictured above. The men are (at left) Dr. Abner Clark and D. E. Berg, members of the committee which planned the event. Among the scores of guests were Sig Unander, Salem, (at right) who is state treasurer for Oregon. Others pictured are Mrs. Unander (at left), Mrs. Robert A. Elliott and Mr. Elliott. The cameraman snapped the shutter as Mr. Unander gestured to illustrate a story.

Woman Attends Wedding in South

Central Point—Mrs. Alex Tummers, Central Point, is to return Monday after being in San Francisco since Friday evening when she left here by plane. Saturday she attended the wedding of Miss Lolita Giovacchini to Robert Marlin held at 11 a.m., at the St. Peter and Paul Catholic Cathedral. The wedding reception was held at the Italian room of the St. Francis hotel. The bride and bridegroom both teach in the San Francisco public school system.

Eagle Point Gardeners Make Tour of Park

Eagle Point—The members of the Eagle Point Federation Garden club met August 3 at Lithia park at Ashland for a conducted tour of the park by Chester Corey.

During the afternoon a memorial, written by Mrs. John Huffman, was read in memory of Mrs. LeRoy Smith, who was a charter member.

Next club meeting will be September 7 at the home of Mrs. August Perry. Mrs. Calvin Lusk will be the cohostess.

The Fashionette

Vagabond
by Chippewa

... a treasure of Fashion ... gay, glamorous and charming as its name ... styled by Chippewa and presented in original 100% virgin wool fabrics of beautiful and colorful fancy checks, plaids and solid scarlet.

$15.00

Others ...

16⁵⁰ - 17⁵⁰ - 19⁹⁵

USE OUR LAY-AWAY PLAN

The Fashionette

22 South
Central

Across from Craterian

Custom-made . . . for you
Helene Curtis
Cold Wave Permanent

It's the easiest permanent you've ever experienced . . . it's incredibly quick . . . and suddenly you discover that your hair is much more beautiful than you ever dreamed it could be. Deep, shimmering waves that look born to you and that simply fall into place . . . you need comb it less often and the wave will last oh so much longer.

From 7⁵⁰

Air-Conditioned for Your Comfort

Mann's
MEDFORD

We Give the New
KALEIDOSCOPE
HAIRCUT

as advertised in the August issue of
"Seventeen"

