Couple Honored At Shower Party

Central Point—A pre-nuptial shower in honor of Miss Joanne Poet, Portland, and her fiance, Molly Clark, was held recently at Community Bible church in Central Point. The event was sponsored by the church congregation and serving as hostesses were Mrs. Floyd Lefler, Mrs. Marvin Wright, Mrs. Jesse Stout, Miss Dorothy Lawton and Miss Ruth Powell.

Gifts for the couple were placed on a table centered with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Appropriate games were played and a book with stores and cartoons of Mr. Clark's life was made and presented to the bride-to-be.

Refreshments were served to 52 guests.

Miss Poet and her mother, Mrs. John R. Poet, were house guests for a time of Mr. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Clark, Central Point. They have returned to Portland and the wedding is set for August 27 in that city.

Church Women Plan Meeting on Thursday

Women of St. Peter's Lutheran church will meet at the church Thursday, August 18, at 9 a.m. to pack clothing for the needy and to clean the church kitchen. Luncheon will be served by Mrs. Roland Holmes.

A short business meeting will be conducted at 1 p.m.

Dinner Meeting Held by Groups In Butte Falls

Butte Falls — Butte Falls Lions' club and auxiliary held a potluck dinner at the high school for the July meeting. There were about 25 members and wives in attendance.

Mrs. Bruce Pingle, auxiliary president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Glen Cathy and Mrs. F. E. Poole reported on the state convention.

The next joint meeting will be August 24, and hostesses for the meeting are to be Mrs. Pingle and Mrs. Albert Hartlerode.

This meeting is to be a picnic in the park. Everyone is to take chicken for their own group, and cards will be sent to members with instructions for the rest of the meal.

Medford Student Home From School

Miss Robene Starcher returned to Medford Sunday after attending summer session at Washington State college, Pullman. Miss Starcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, 1570 Stage Road south, will return to WSC the first of September to enroll for the last semester of her senior year. She is a member of Kappa Delta sorority.

Mr. Starcher motored to Pullman last week, and the two returned home together after visiting in Lewiston, Ida., with Mr. Starcher's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Rifenberick.

Travelers To Arrive In Sweden

O. H. Bengtson and his mother, Mrs. Anna G. Bengtson, were scheduled to arrive August 10 at Boteborg, Sweden. They left July 28 from Medford by plane and made the trip across the Atlantic on the Swedish American liner, the MS Kungsholm. They embarked from New York City August 2.

En route across America they stopped at Denver, St. Louis, and Chicago.

In a letter to The Mail Tribune dated August 4, Mr. Bengtson explained that the ship carries 800 passengers with a crew of 355 and remarked on the fine service given them.

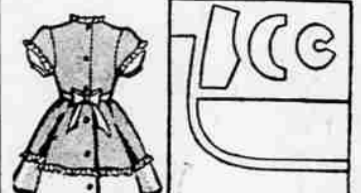

"We started eating as we left port, right after waving goodbye to the Statue of Liberty, and we eat as follows: breakfast at 8 a.m., coffee and rolls at 10:30 a.m., with string orchestra furnishing entertainment; luncheon is at noon; coffee, rusks and cakes, 3:30 p.m.; dinner at 6 p.m., after a large smorgasbord, and snacks are served from 11 p.m. to 1 a.m. Fruit at all times between meals. Yesterday the captain entertained.

"We have met many charming and interesting people including a street sweeper from Brooklyn and engineers, architects, scientists, businessmen and others.

"My Swedish which I have not used since 1948 is coming back surprisingly fast and it is great fun to use it even though haltingly at times.

"We are some 600 miles (August 4) at sea and it has been a

State Policeman And Family Here

Mrs. Rex Note, 32 Hamilton street, returned home Sunday from Crescent City, Calif., where she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Beck at their beach home for a few days. Returning to Medford with Mrs. Note were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Note, Salem, and small daughter, Mary Melinda. Mrs. Note and daughter flew to Crescent City last week, and were joined by Mr. Note, member of the Oregon state police department, over the weekend.

The Salem family will return home tomorrow. Mrs. Note is the former D'Ann Beck, daughter of the Michael Becks.

VEGETABLE BROIL

New York —(U.P.)—Vegetable variation: try broiling canned, fresh or even leftover vegetables by using either the broiler pan or rack for cooking. The vegetables will take on the flavor of meat drippings if the bottom of the pan is brushed with fat.

Cake icing substitute: White or brown sugar, chocolate, coconut or nut meats sprinkled on the top before baking or when the cake is partly done.
