

Cannonading Yankees Blast Orioles To Move Past White Sox Into 2nd; Eye Opportunity To Surge in Front

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Manager Casey Stengel was dining on his own words today but couldn't be happier because his New York Yankees are feasting on rival pitchers again.

Only a week after Stengel labeled them "the worst hitting New York team I've had," the Yankees unleashed a total of 30 blows good for 49 total bases in crushing the Baltimore Orioles, 7-2 and 20-6.

As a result of the heavy cannonading the Yankees:

1. Moved past the Chicago White Sox into second place in the American league race only a half game behind the Cleveland Indians.
2. Stretched their winning streak to four games—the longest they've put together since July 2.
3. Attained their largest single game run output of the campaign and scored in double figures for the first time since June 2.
4. Can take over first place by beating the Orioles twice again today.

The Yankees sliced a game-and-a-half off the Indians' margin when Cleveland bowed to the Kansas City Athletics, 7-3, Sunday. They defeated past the White Sox, who moved past the Detroit Tigers, 5-4, and held their three-game lead over the fourth-place Red Sox who walloped the Washington Senators, 9-6 and 2-1.

Yankees Rout Lopat

Hank Bauer homered in each game and Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra also hit homers in the Yankees' tremendous assault. They routed ex-Yankee Ed Lopat in a four-run fifth inning in the opener and blasted seven pitchers for 20 hits in the nightcap. Whitey Ford received credit for his 13th win in the opener and comeback kid Tommy Byrne hit his 11th victory in the second game.

The Athletics pounded Mike Garcia for six runs in the three innings and went on to snap Cleveland's six-game winning streak with the aid of Art Ditmar's fine relief performance. Ditmar took over for ailing Bobby Shantz in the fifth inning and yielded only two hits in 4 2-3 innings to gain credit for his eighth win. Garcia, a 19-game winner last season, now is 8-11.

Fleet Jim Rivera scored from third base on Walt Dropo's infield out in the eighth inning to give the White Sox their third win in four games. Billy Pierce won his ninth game of the season and first over his former Detroit teammates in two years. George Susce Jr., pitched a seven-hitter for his sixth win for the Red Sox after Norm Zauchin's 23rd and 24th homers paced the Boston to its first-game triumph. Billy Klaus' double, Ted Williams' single error and Jackie Jensen's sacrifice fly gave the Red Sox their two runs in the first inning of the nightcap. Zauchin drove in five runs in the opener.

Roberts Beats Newcombe

In the National league, Robin Roberts and Don Newcombe finally met in their long-awaited duel with the Philadelphia Phillies' star coming out on top of the Brooklyn Dodgers' ace, 3-2, in 10 innings. The Dodgers rebounded to win the second game 5-4, on Carl Furillo's 13-inning single and still lead by 1 1/2 games. Their magic number is "24" with 40 games to play.

Roberts' victory was his third in a row and made him the first major league pitcher of the season to win 19 games. Newcombe suffered his second straight loss and now has an 18-3 record.

Sid Gordon's 200th homer of his career gave the New York Giants a 4-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in their opener and the 37-year-old veteran also homered in New York's 3-1 nightcap win. Johnny Antonelli won his 10th game and Jim Hearn his 13th for the Giants.

Ted Kluszewski's 40th and 41st homers of the year were not enough as the St. Louis Cardinals shaded the Cincinnati Redlegs, 5-4, in 10 innings and the Milwaukee Braves won a 4-3, 10-inning decision over the Chicago Cubs in the other National league games.

PATTY, LARSEN FINALISTS

Munich, Germany — (U.P.) — Defending champion Budge Patty, Los Angeles, and Art Larsen, San Leandro, Calif., will meet in the singles final of the Bavarian International Tennis Tournament. Patty advanced by downing Tony Mottram of England, 6-0, 6-3, yesterday while Larsen gained the finals by defeating Enrique Morea of Argentina, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

SOX BEST 1954 TOTAL

Chicago — (U.P.) — The Chicago Cubs, the only major league club which doesn't play night games at home, passed the total attendance figure for the 1954 season yesterday as 24,947 fans watched the team play Milwaukee at Wrigley Field. With 12 home games left to play, the Cubs' 1955 attendance stands at 763,390 compared with 748,183 for the entire 1954 season.

ROCKY GETS REST

SPORTS

Olson Gets Easy Verdict Over Martinez Saturday

Portland — (U.P.) — Middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson was resting today but didn't need to recuperate from a non-title 10-round fight which he won by unanimous decision from Jimmy Martinez here Saturday night before some 8500 fans.

Olson demonstrated some of the brilliant infighting which made him a popular champion and backed the younger Phoenix, Ariz., fighter repeatedly around the ring. He had control from the start.

Martinez, who weighed in three pounds lighter than the champ at 162, proved a game and wily opponent and Olson could never quite nail him.

The nearest Martinez came to the canvas was in the 10th round when the hairy-chested San Francisco champ curled his lip and walloped him with a right and a couple of staggering left hooks that had Martinez hanging on.

Grants Pass Boy Wins Axe Throw

Quincy, Calif. — (U.P.) — An 18-year-old Grants Pass, Ore., youth, Milton Mayfield, bested seasoned loggers Saturday to win the Paul Bunyon axe throw at the 10th annual Pacific Coast loggers championships.

Young Mayfield came the closest to hitting a snuff box placed in a log 21 feet away with a thrown axe. His father, Don Mayfield, was third.

WORK IN LITTLE RING

North Adams, Mass. — (U.P.) — Charley Johnston, manager of Archie Moore, said he'll have Moore training in a 16-foot ring in order "to be ready for an emergency." Johnston claims Al Weill, heavyweight champion Rock Marciano's manager, may try to have their title bout on Sept. 20 fought in a 16-foot ring "to make it easier for the champion to bull Archie into the ropes."

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Spokane — (U.P.) — Marvin (Bud) Ward, defending champion from San Mateo, Calif., won the annual Washington State—Esmeralda Open Golf tournament yesterday with a 72 hole total of 282. It was the fourth Esmeralda Open title for the former national amateur champ. He pocketed $900 top money.

Trick Rider Set To Take Part in 1955 Glad Festival

Monte Montana, well-known trick rider and roper, will arrive in Medford by plane at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday to take part in the annual Grants Pass Gladiola festival. He will be met by a group of members of the Grants Pass Cavemen.

Montana has appeared in Oregon at the Portland Rose festival and on several occasions, at the Pendleton Round-Up.

The Gladiola festival, scheduled from Aug. 17 through 20, opens at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday with the gladiola parade, which will include about 30 floats.

Festival officials recommended that Jackson county residents planning to attend the parade arrive in Grants Pass early because of traffic problems created by the event.

The coronation of the Gladiola queen is scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday, at the Josephine county fairgrounds. Members of the Realm of Gladioli are Ruth Whisler, Lee Irwin, Lynne Smith, Shirley Wallace, Beverly Crisp, Jackie Strohkirch, and Dale Pernell. Court chaperone is Mrs. Joe Harper.

Dates of the festival coincide with those of the Josephine county fair.

Four Auto Mishaps Listed in County; One Man Injured

Four automobile accidents, one of them resulting in an injury, were reported in Jackson county over the week end, according to state police.

Hurt early Sunday in a one-car mishap near Bybee corner, was Jerry Lehmen, 20, of 1800 Crestbrook rd. The accident occurred at about 2:20 a.m.

Investigating officers said the car Lehmen was driving went out of control when a front tire went flat. The vehicle, which had been going about 50 miles an hour, left the road and turned over.

Lehmen was taken by Medford Ambulance service to Community hospital, where he was treated for ear and arm injuries. Attendees this morning listed his condition as good.

Dixie Hinks, 19, of 340 1/2 North Central ave., a passenger in the car, also was taken to the hospital, where she was treated for shock, police said. Three other passengers in the vehicle were uninjured.

Cars operated by John R. Miller, 19, Modesto, Calif., and John

Ross Barnes, 81, Gold Hill, were involved in a collision at Rogue River junction on Highway 99 at about 4:10 p.m. Saturday, police reported. There were no injuries and damage to the two vehicles was listed as minor.

Car Hits Pole

A one-car accident occurred Sunday at about 6:45 p.m. at the junction of Highway 66 and Dead Indian rd. Police said a coupe operated by June Phyllis Mitchell, 29, of 807 Beach st., went out of control as the driver attempted to make a turn. She told officers that her foot slipped from the brake pedal onto the gas pedal. The car struck a telephone pole, causing extensive damage. No injuries were listed.

The fourth accident occurred near Klamath junction on Highway 66 at about 8:40 p.m. Sunday. Police said cars driven by Norris I. Shortt, 61, Klamath Falls, and Richard H. Dodele, 25, Grants Pass, were involved in a sideswipe collision. There were no injuries, and damage to the cars was minor.

SEEING-EYE CAT

Albany, N. Y. — (U.P.) — When her Angora cat disappeared from home, Sherry Lawrence offered a reward for its return. She said the cat was badly needed because Muffin performed "seeing-eye" duties for the girl's almost-blind cocker spaniel.

FULTON'S RIVAL

Orford, N. H. — (U.P.) — Don't mention Robert Fulton in this town. Orford claims its native son Samuel Morey built and ran a successful steamboat on the Connecticut River in 1790. Furthermore, he patented it in 1795. Fulton's boat made its first trip in 1807.
