

Grange

Griffin Creek Grange

HEC will have a pot luck supper at Mr. and Mrs. Jim Edge's at Eagle Point Thursday, Aug. 18, at 7 p.m. Please bring own table service, well filled baskets and large appetite.

Grange met last Thursday with a good attendance and Master Isabelle Le Vander presiding.

The agriculture committee reported that the fruit harvest will start in some parts of the valley next week. There will be quite a large crop of pears this year, and will need many pickers.

Hall committee reports that there is some work to be done on the hall.

Former members of our Grange Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hanson of Grants Pass lost their home last week when it burned. HEC display table had beautiful china from England, and table cloths from Japan.

New officers elected to fill vacancies were Pearl Farnsworth for Aries; Pauline Kelly, Flora and Mark Syster as gate keeper.

The lecturers program was group singing, home safety suggestions and demonstration on artificial respiration.

Safety slogans for finding super partners and a safety song by all. A reading by Isabelle LeVander, Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Larson served pie and coffee.

Shady Cove Grange

Shady Cove Grange members met for their regular business meeting Aug. 10 with Master McKay conducting the meeting.

Booster night was discussed, and as the school will be closed to all organizations for the rest of the month for the purpose of cleaning preparatory for the opening of the school year, plans were made to hold a potluck picnic dinner at 7 p.m. Aug. 24 on the lawn at the home of Travis Littlefield on the river road.

Dinner will be served promptly at 7. Please bring your table service.

Chaplin Nellie Motchenbacher reported that Cecil Kee had just received word that his father, Charles R. Kee of Spokane, Wash., was seriously hurt when he fell while picking fruit. No further information had been heard at the time.

H.E.C. Chairman Alice Cross reported the H.E.C. picnic dinner at Master and Mrs. McKay's home, Aug. 9 was a success. Out of town visitor was Mrs. Gertrude Jory of Oakland, Calif., mother of Walter Cross.

Others present were Agnes Hubbard of Eagle Point Grange, Lucy Eddington, H.E.C. chairman of Gold Hill, Nina Dusenberry also of Gold Hill and Millie Walker of Live Oak Grange.

Men present for dinner were Walter Cross, Phil Motchenbacher, Grant Hubbard, Bob Bush and Master McKay, and the men enjoyed fishing in the river during the afternoon.

Members welcomed Bettie Dusenberry home from her vacation in the mountains for the most of the summer.

During the lecture hour all members took part in various games prepared by Lecturer Vanderlip.

After the closing of the meeting, cake and coffee were served by Mr. and Mrs. Phil Motchenbacher.

Phoenix

Phoenix—The Phoenix Ministerial association met Aug. 9 and set up a program of release time religious education which they would like to recommend to the Phoenix school board in the near future.

Election of officers for the new year was held and the Rev. W. V. McArthur of the Church of the Nazarene was elected president; the Rev. Lee Shafer, of the Christian church, vice-president; and the Rev. Ernest Volkman, of the Presbytery.
