Supervisors Okay Siskiyou Budget

Yreka, Calif. — The Siskiyou county board of supervisors has adopted a $8,709,417 budget for the coming year, it was announced this week.

The general tax rate has been set at $2.55 for residents in unincorporated communities, and $2.33 1/2 for those in incorporated towns.

Last year's general tax rate was $2.12 for both unincorporated and incorporated areas, and the total budget was $8,549,160. Auditor Ernest Johnson told supervisors that the general tax is higher this year, in part, because the road tax approved recently by voters adds 2 1/2 cents to the general tax for those in unincorporated areas.

Supervisors passed the budget and tax rate by a 3-1 vote. The vote against the two measures was cast by Supervisor Clint Jackson.

On Vacation — Jimmie Gleason, 2684 Crater Lake highway, is on vacation this week from his work at Crescent City, Calif. He is employed by The California-Oregon Power company in the California city.

WCA Get at North Bend Will Stop CAB Hearing

Washington — (U.P.) — A Civil Aeronautics Board hearing will be held here Friday to study the possibility of granting a permanent certification license for the West Coast Airlines stop at North Bend, Ore.

Scheduled to attend the hearing to protest designation of the stop as "North Bend-Coos Bay" were North Bend Mayor I. N. Hartley and City Administrator Robert Herrington. They contend the airport is supported wholly by North Bend funds, leaving no reason for Coos Bay to be mentioned on airline schedules.

No Foul Play Seen In Puerifoy Deaths

Washington — (U.P.) — United States and Thai officials today rejected any suggestion that the deaths of Ambassador John E. Puerifoy and nine-year-old son, Danny, were the result of foul play.

Authorities at the State Department and at the Thai Embassy here said a newly received report on Puerifoy's death on a Thailand highway Aug. 12 showed absolutely no evidence of foul play. They said it is clear that Puerifoy, U.S. ambassador to Thailand, and his son were traffic accident victims. The ambassador and his two sons were riding in a new sports car when it hit a truck on a narrow bridge. One son survived.

Lana Turner Injured In Fall in Bathtub

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Film star Lana Turner was confined to bed today for at least two weeks by her doctor who said she suffered a concussion when she slipped in her bathtub Monday in Acapulco, Mexico.

Earlier it was believed the actress had suffered only a back injury in the fall. Upon her return here by plane, however, examination by her physician, Dr. Cameron B. Hall, revealed she also had suffered a concussion.

Mormon Church Head Arrives in Scotland

Prestwick, Scotland — (U.P.) — President David O. McKay of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints arrived here by plane today from the United States.

The 81-year-old world Mormon leader will be on hand tomorrow to greet the Salt Lake City Mormon Tabernacle choir when it arrives by ship to begin a 13-concert tour of Europe.

The 379-voice choir will present its first concert at Glasgow's Kelvin Hall Saturday.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS

New Albany, Ind. — (U.P.) — "It's not fashionable to be 'smashable'" and "traffic chislers often carve their own tombstones" are just two of several slogans the Indiana Association of Police Chiefs are emphasizing. Other slogans are "minding motor manners minimizes massacre," "modern motor manners moderate mutilation" and "courtesy curbs crashes."
