

Picture in San Francisco Bus Leads Man To Daughter He Hadn't Seen Since 1929

San Francisco—(U.P.)—William J. Rainer, 48, glanced idly up at the face of a pretty girl decorating an advertising card on a Municipal Railway bus.

The ad suggested that any girl just like this one could get and hold a fine secretarial job by learning the sponsor's shorthand method.

Rainer was startled. The girl looked familiar—like the wife from whom he separated in 1929. The more he thought about it, the more the resemblance grew.

Standing up, Rainer peered closely at the card. Underneath was a familiar name—Del Rainer. When he and his wife separated, Mrs. Rainer took their 20-month-old daughter, Delores, with her. Rainer ripped the ad from the wall of the bus and went to the secretarial school. There they directed him to a downtown office where Miss Rainer works.

The finding of his daughter ended a search that began two years ago when Rainer, who had become an odd-jobs man around Denver, received a letter from his daughter.

Miss Rainer had traced her father through relatives.

Rainer came to San Francisco about a month ago to look for his daughter. She had moved from the Telegraph Hill address she had given, and no one there had ever heard of her. She was not listed in the telephone book. He stayed around town, hoping to find her and it was by a stroke of luck that he saw her picture on the bus. She had moved to Sausalito across the bay, where father and daughter had a reunion.

Rainer's ex-wife was in show business and constantly on the move. Del was boarded out with relatives. Finally, her mother married again and the family settled here, where Del grew up.

Man Expected To Die 40 Years Ago Now 102

Easton, Pa.—(U.P.)—Forty years ago Donato Romano lay critically injured in an Easton hospital. His skull had been fractured when a 14 pound piece of slate rock fell on him while he was working in a quarry and doctors thought he was going to die.

Romano celebrated his 102nd birthday Thursday. He not only recovered from the injuries he received, but he returned to the quarry and worked there for eight more years. Today Romano reads newspapers, goes about his gardening and is an avid television fan.

His recipe for long life is: "Don't eat too much, don't drink too much, get plenty of sleep." Springfield, Ill. — (U.P.)—While Special Detective Thomas Franklin was making a five-minute anti-burglary check of a business place someone stole a $100 time clock from his truck.

"OLD RELIABLE" INTO A FLASH OF FIRE!

Great Features back up Chevrolet Performance: Anti-Dive Braking—Ball-Race Steering—Outrigger Rear Springs—Body by Fisher—12-Volt Electrical System—Nine Engine-Drive Choices in all models—and, finally, the great scientific, technical and engineering resources of General Motors.

Take a drive in the new Chevrolet and see how new the new Chevrolet really is. We can almost guarantee that when you try it, you'll think you're driving a car costing twice as much. "Old Reliable" is red hot.

We wager that the first thing you'll say when you drive the new Chevrolet is: "Who changed 'Old Reliable' into a flash of fire?" Well, right off the bat, we're proud of that "Old Reliable" tag. For years and years, Chevrolet has given you those qualities of materials and workmanship that make it the best investment in its field . . . and now added to all that is performance so outstanding that it has licked—and licked proper—all its rivals and most of the high-priced cars, too, in competitive acceleration runs. Proof? You bet. Lots of it: In official NASCAR* Trials Chevrolet out-accelerated all low and medium-priced cars and every high-priced car but one. No other stock car can make that statement! We can get you figures if you want 'em. Yes, sir! Flash of fire! You'll think so, and we ask you to try Chevrolet before you buy any car, but especially before you buy any car in its field. Soon, maybe?

Combine your new Chevrolet purchase with your vacation plans! Order a new Chevrolet through us, then pick it up at the plant in Flint, Michigan, see Chevrolts built, if you like, and drive yours home. Chances are, you'll save a substantial share of your vacation travel costs!

America's hottest performer because it's got America's most modern V8!
