

Observance Set At Butte Falls Assembly of God

Butte Falls — The congregation of the Butte Falls Assembly of God church will observe the seventh anniversary there of the ministry of their pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. John H. Fuitens. The observance will be held Sunday, Aug. 21 at both the Sunday school at 9:50 a.m., and at the worship service at 11 a.m. A potluck picnic is planned at 1 p. m., that day at the city park and all interested are invited to the services and lunch.

The Fuitens moved to Butte Falls in August, 1948. During their ministry, a building program has included a church and parsonage. The church building is not yet completed but plans are made to finish the interior during the year.

Program Announced For Presbyterians

Dr. Paul Calhoun will speak at both morning services at the First Presbyterian church Sunday, on the subject, "Learn the Fine Art of Living." At the evening service he will continue the study of the Gospel of Matthew and Senior High fellowships will conduct their own discussions.

BUSH HOME FURNISHINGS TELLS A STORY THAT NEEDS TELLING

Better Business Bureaus throughout the country are seeking the cooperation of retailers in combating "lure" and "bait" advertising.

This kind of advertising preys upon the unwary by inflating the real prices of unidentifiable goods, then offering mark-downs and discounts. Unfortunately, many otherwise reliable stores, believing it necessary to fight fire with fire, have chosen the same path. Equally unfortunate is the bold fact that in buying carpets it is very difficult to check qualities and patterns so that a fair comparison can be made.

THIS IS NOT SO WITH LEES CARPETS

It is not so because JAMES LEES & SONS CO. has taken steps to protect customers buying their carpets. The remedy was simple. First they carefully selected their dealers. Then they purchased stamping machines to mark the various quality names on every carpet of first quality sold. Then they issued a suggested price list to the retailer. Prices that were realistic—neither too high nor too low. Under this policy they believe it is possible for you to buy Lees carpets with confidence.

When you receive your new Lees carpet you will find the quality name of the grade you purchased stamped all over the back of your entire rug.

That is why we say... Compare Our Regular Prices With Any Price at Any Store in Oregon.

AT BETHEL ASSEMBLY—The Rev. E. W. Mincey will speak at 11 a.m., Sunday at the Bethel Assembly of God, 1729 North Riverside ave., to tell of work of the Christian servicemen's home at Tokyo, Japan. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Mincey left this country in 1952 to establish a home overseas for service men and in August, 1953, they established the institution. The home is a non-profit organization which is dependent entirely on gifts of interested persons at home and abroad who desire to share in the work. The public is invited to attend the service.

Methodists Slate Portland Speaker

Guest speaker at the Sunday morning worship service of the First Methodist church will be Dr. H. Guy Goodsell of Portland. Dr. Goodsell, who is a student of Shakespeare, makes an annual visit to the Shakespearean festival with a speaking engagement at the local church.

Prior to his retirement in 1947, Dr. Goodsell had a distinguished career as a Methodist minister. He served pastorates in Wisconsin and Colorado before coming to First Methodist church, Portland, in 1934 from Colorado Springs. Later he served as superintendent of the Portland district of the Methodist church.

Quartet To Furnish Program on Sunday

The male quartet of the Seventh Day Adventist church will sing at the First Methodist church, Sunday, August 21 at 11 a.m. service. The quartet is composed of Alva Bowman, Joe Hoyt, Leonard Yost, Harold Yost with Mrs. Harold Yost as accompanist.

Soloist for the same service will be Mrs. Dolores Rabjohn of the Methodist church chancel choir. The anthem for the 9:30 a. m. service will be sung by the Youth choir of the Methodist church.

Ashland Church Sets Youth Activity Week

Ashland—Youth activity week at the Ashland Methodist church will include a schedule of recreation and worship for high school students. The activities will begin August 21 when a meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the church and a "watermelon fete" is planned.

During the remainder of the week singing, swimming, parties, a scavenger hunt, an international supper, and a hike to Mt. Ashland for a picnic and worship, are scheduled. Each day except Friday they will meet at 6:30 p.m. at the church. On Friday they will meet at 2 p.m., also at the church, for transportation at Mt. Ashland. All interested are invited.

Temple Baptists Plan Elections; Series Announced

Services will be held at the Temple Baptist church next Wednesday, Aug. 24 when a Sunday school superintendent will be elected. L. E. Grille recently was elected Training union director. Other officers of the Sunday school and church will be elected in September.

Another feature of the Wednesday services will be, "Your Questions"—a series of devotions designed to answer questions to be discussed will be from those interested as they turn them in.

Medford Visitor To Speak Sunday

Kenneth Raymond will be guest speaker at both the 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. worship services of the First Baptist church, North Central ave. at Fifth st., Sunday. Mr. Raymond received his B.D. degree from Northwestern Seminary, Minneapolis, Minn., last spring. He has been serving this summer as assistant pastor of the Camden Covenant church, Camden, Minn., and will be an associate professor on the faculty of the Northwestern seminary in the fall.

On Thursday, August 25, at 1:30 p.m., an ordination council from Conservative Baptist churches in this area has been called to examine Mr. Raymond for ordination to the gospel ministry. The council will meet at the Medford First Baptist church. The meeting will be open to all interested persons, as will be the ordination service the same evening.

The speaker is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Raymond, 2848 Table Rock rd., and is a member of the local First Baptist church.

Nazarenes Plan Sunday Ceremony

Babies are to be dedicated in the morning worship service, Sunday, Aug. 21 at the Church of the Nazarene, Holly and First sts., the Pastor, Rev. Raymond W. Hurn reported today. A number of parents have already made provision for the dedication service. Others who desire to participate in the ceremony of infant dedication should contact the pastor.

A sermon series begun earlier this month, will be continued

Gold Hill

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. John Cogswell made a trip to California recently taking Mrs. Margaret Cogswell, mother of John Cogswell to her home at Long Beach. She was visited here since July. They also visited relatives at Downey, Calif., and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abbott and granddaughter Debra Joy at Chula Vista. They returned to Gold Hill Sunday night bringing their daughter and granddaughter who will visit with them for a couple of weeks.

The Rev. and Mrs. Leo Gilman and son, Leo Jr., are moving to Talent. Gilman has been pastor of the Assembly of God church in Gold Hill for the past few years.

Mrs. William Price and son, Earl of Springfield are visitors in Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Corky Lentz of Sweet Home, Oregon spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowen and family.

Committee members for the Womens Society of Christian Service of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church, with Mrs. Sam Jones, chairman, met at the home of Mrs. Roy Eskew recently where they planned the program for the year. Quarterly meetings will be held, the first being Tuesday, Sept. 6.

Womens Society of Christian Service of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church met Friday, Aug. 12, at the home of Mrs. Frank Carter on Upper River road. There were 19 members present. Mrs. J. G. Kofahl was in charge of the program. Mrs. Millie Walker led the devotions and Mrs. George Hatch led the prayer. Business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Lawrence Smith, president. Lesson for the day was "Vision of a better life." Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the church on Sept. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore, of their daughter Nadra, and Joanne Ritter, spent several days traveling up the Oregon coast where they visited Sea Lions cave and other points of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Moore returned to Brookings to visit friends and look for Indian artifacts.

Mrs. Ethel Mays and son Buddy have reined their home and left Wednesday, Aug. 17 for Albuquerque, N.M., to make their home.

The Rev. and Mrs. George Hatch recently spent a few days in Portland. Mr. Hatch is the minister of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church. Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Jones recently were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrison and two children, Donnie and Jay, from Los Angeles, and Mrs. Woodrow Nealy and two daughters, Myrtice and Betty Jo, of Grants Pass. Mrs. Nealy is a daughter of the Jones'. While here they all visited the Jacksonville museum.

This week. The subject Sunday will be, "We Believe in the Holy Scriptures." During the closing exercises of the adult department at 10:30 a.m., members of the Junior department of the Sunday school, ages 9 to 12 will demonstrate for the adults, "how the children worship in their department."

News About Books From the Library

When the game is rained out, or the fishing trip has to be postponed for a later week-end, sports fans will find leisure-time enjoyment in some of the library's latest acquisitions.

Whether you root for the Dodgers or bet on the Cardinals, you'll enjoy the anecdotes, character sketches, and statistical records of your favorite team—and fifteen others—in Tom Meany's "Baseball's Greatest Teams." Brief, chatty chapters on a variety of baseball topics make up "Baseball Complete" by Russ Hodges. "Baseball Personalities" by Jimmy Powers is crammed with action, laughs, and information as it tells the stories of the sport's most colorful personalities.

One of those personalities, Al Schacht, tells his own story in "My Own Particular Screwball." The recollections of this "Clown Prince" of baseball stretch back over four decades of the game and make wonderful reading. Doc Young writes of "Great Negro Baseball Stars" and how they made the major leagues.

Eliot Aisino's "Man on Spikes" has already been mentioned in a previous library column, but this story of Mike Kutner's 16-year struggle to get out of the minor leagues and into the big time is worth a second note. You may advance the hunting season somewhat with a few evenings devoted to Beverly-Giddings' new book, "Frank Forester on Upland Shooting." Here is up-to-date information on methods of hunting, hunting dogs, guns, snipe, woodcock, quail and other game birds selected by the editor from Frank Forester's best-known books.

"Hunting Small Game" by Bert Popowski deals with every man's game—rabbits, squirrels, woodchucks, etc.—to be found almost anywhere in the United States. Every fisherman-reader is sure to learn some things he had not known before from Richard Salmon's "Fly Fishing for Trout." The author gives us the benefit of his knowledge of trout fishing in a highly readable book.

"Light Horses" by Cecil Rooks is a basic handbook on the training and care of pleasure horses. Its tips on riding and driving, its information concerning breeds, stabling, care, training, and methods of breaking bad habits will be valuable to both professional and layman.
