Proceeds from Marathon To Go for Youth Projects

All proceeds from the Pacific Coast Invitational, marathon hard-top race to be held in Medford over Labor Day weekend, will go to various Junior Chamber of Commerce activities on behalf of underprivileged children, according to Ron James, president of the sponsoring organization.

James said that with more than 5,000 people expected to attend the 24-hour main event, in addition to the large number expected to see qualifications, that the Junior Chamber expected to be able to finance an expanded program during the coming year.

Shopping Tour One regular event carried out by the organization is the shopping tour for underprivileged children at Christmas time. In addition, for the past three years the Jaycees have spent a considerable amount of time and money repairing and helping maintain the Salvation Army camp at Lake O' Woods, James said.

As high as 250 from throughout the west may enter the big race, in which the top prize is $1,000. Qualifying rounds begin Saturday, Sept. 3, with the race proper beginning at 4 p.m. Sept. 4 and ending at the same time Sept. 5. The driver com-

The Dalles Legion Nine Will Oppose Lincoln

Hastings, Neb. — (U.P.) — The Dalles, Ore., will meet Lincoln, Neb., Monday in the opening game of the American Legion Junior baseball tournament here.

Starting time for the contest was 6 p.m. EST.

OREGONIANS SKID

Columbus, Ga. — (U.P.) — Oregon's entries in the International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament both skidded Friday with scores in the 80s. Tom Shaw of Milwaukie, Ore., shot an 80 to bring his third round score to 230, 18 strokes off the leading pace set by Phil Rodgers of San Diego, Calif. Gary Hval of Portland carded an 84 for a 54-hole total of 233. Ed Murphy, another Oregonian, withdrew from the match.

Wide Open Scuffle Looms For Men in SO Golf Mix; Kabler Women's Favorite

While Carole Jo Kabler, talented Sutherland miss, and national junior champion, looms as ladies' favorite, a wide open conflict appears to be shaping up in men's competition in the 27th annual Southern Oregon Golf tournament here September 1 through 5.

More than 20 of the linksmen whose names are now on the dotted line are rated capable of going all the way in the traditional Labor Day holiday rivalry on Rogue Valley Country club's greens and fairways which will be groomed to perfection for the event.

Rogue Valley, itself, will field the majority of top contenders. Their championship ambitions, however, will be challenged by a number of stellar performers from elsewhere in Oregon and from Washington and California.

Among RVCC leading lights on the entry list are Phil Getchell, runner-up last year, Eddie Simmons, six times a champion; and George Harrington, once winner of the Southern Oregon classic. Other local contenders who must be listed high are Harry Millette, Larry Butler, Dr. Bruce Stanley, Clayton Lewis, Justin Smith Jr., Carl Schmidt Jr., Wendell Wissler and Jim Hoogs.

Getchell and Harrington this year were among eight entries who reached match play in the Pacific Northwest Golf association tourney. Getchell lost to eventual champ, Dick Yost, in semifinals. In Oregon Golf association tourneys Getchell was runner-up this year in the match championships while Harrington took second in the medal event. Harrington is the reigning club titlist. Simmons was the 1954 OGA match victor.

Hoogs is a highly regarded linkster new to Rogue Valley. He comes from Columbia-Edgewater club of Portland.

11 Grid Vets Expected at Phoenix High

Phoenix — Eleven lettermen are expected to be on hand at Phoenix high school for the 1955 football season, according to Coach Jack Woodward.

First practice season will be at 7 p.m. Monday, August 29. Woodward has instructed prospective footballers to report on Thursday, Aug. 25, for physical examination. They will be given at 7:30 p.m. at the school gym. Equipment will be given out starting at 7 p.m. August 26.

Most experienced returnee anticipated by Woodward is Don Blankenship, a guard with three years of service behind him. Two year lettermen are Jim Korth and Bill Madden, quarterbacks, and Delmar Brood, halfbacks. Ray Dahl, one-year letterman end, will be a co-captain with Blankenship. Other one year men are Ernie McLeish, Roger Carson, and Dennis Bradley, tackles; Walt Hurlbut, fullback; John Garner, halfback, and Jerry Nye, guard.

Gonzales Wins Singles Match

Ostend, Belgium — (U.P.) — Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles defeated Fred Perry, former British Davis cup player who now lives in the United States, 6-3, 6-4, Saturday in one of the opening matches in an International Tennis Tournament for Professionals.

Pancho Segura of New York and Ecuador defeated Ken McGregor of Australia, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3, in another singles match.

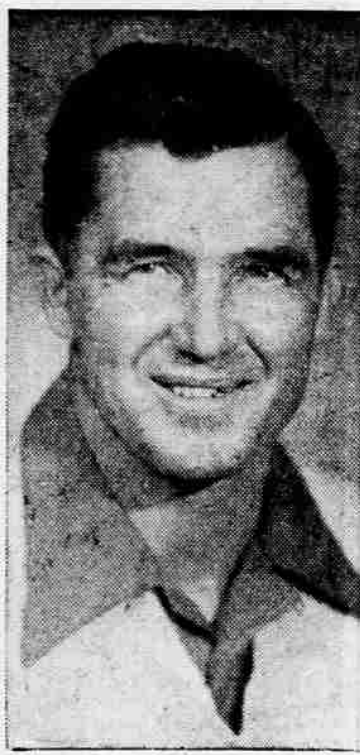

In doubles play, Segura and McGregor scored an 8-6, 6-3 victory over Gonzales and Perry.

Also gunning for the SO mantle will be Mrs. Richard Grubbs, Rose City, Portland, who downed Sue in the OGA this summer.

AL WILLIAMS Sets RVCC Mark

Al Williams Busts RVCC Links Record

Club Professional Al Williams carded a torrid eight under par 64 Thursday to establish a new non-competitive record for the Rogue Valley Country club golf links.

Williams bettered by three strokes the 67 mark held jointly by Club Manager George Harrington and Pro Eddie Oldfield of Roseburg Country club. The competitive record is 68 set by Tal Smith, San Lorenzo, Calif., in a play-off for medalist honors in the 1954 Oregon Golf association tournament. Course standard is 72.

The Rogue Valley pro had seven birdies and one eagle along with one bogey for his 18 hole round. His eagle came on the Par five No. 7 hole where he plunked an eight-foot putt to go down in three.

Williams toured both front and back nines in 32s for five under par on the front side and three under on the back.

It was a consistent performance for the pro but he might have made it in as low as 61 or 62. He bogied on five when he hit an iron shot over the green and came back too strong. On 18 Williams had three "perfect" shots, rimming the cup from 20 yards out on his third. Then he rimmed the cup on a five foot putt to miss a birdie.

Playing with Williams were Harrington, Larry Butler and Justin Smith Jr. Harrington carded a 70 and Butler a 76. Smith played just the front nine holes in even par with a 37.

Men's entry quota was set at 192 but the committee has decided to add one more flight for golfers from out-of-town who were not aware of the limit. Total men's entry is now at 202. At last count 50 women were signed. There is no ladies' limit but Saturday August 27 is deadline.

Rodgers Captures Jaycee Jr. Title

Columbus, Ga. — (U.P.) — Phil Rodgers, a sandy-haired 16-year-old from San Diego, Calif., Saturday captured the 10th annual Jaycee Junior Golf championship to lead his West Coast teammates to a sweep of honors.

Rodgers, who packs 170 pounds on his medium frame, put together rounds of 66-70-76-75—287 to break the former tourney record of 292 made by Tommy Jacobs of Monticello, Calif., in 1952. Rodgers was runner-up in last year's championship.

The San Diego golfer's one-under-par effort for the 72-hole distance just nosed out Jack Rule of Waterloo, Iowa, who had a 288. Rule, Iowa state Junior champion, started yesterday's last round two strokes in back of Rodgers, but failed to pick up the tying stroke on the back nine.

Third place was grabbed by Medalist Dick Foote, Santa Ana, Calif., who posted rounds of 67-75-75-72—289.

Another Californian, Allen Geiberger, the defending champion from Santa Barbara, finished in fourth place with 72-71-73-75—291.

SIGNS WITH CARDS

St. Louis—(U.P.)—Lyndal McDaniel, a 19-year-old right-handed pitcher from Hollis, Okla., has signed with the St. Louis Cardinals for a bonus of about $50,000. The six-foot-three inch pitcher compiled a 31-3 won-loss record with Altus Junior American Legion team in 1951-52.

QTs Play Orland Team Here Aug. 28

The Rogue Valley QTs and the Orland, Calif., Eaglets will clash in the main game of an all-girls softball double header at Fairgrounds park here on Sunday, Aug. 28. First game will be at 3 p.m.

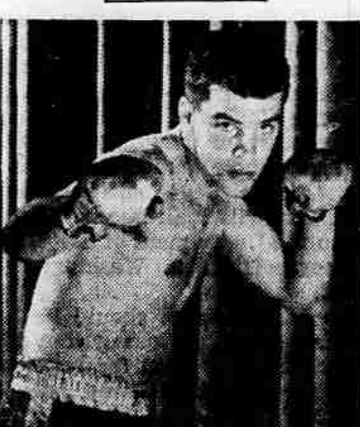

The QTs recently competed in the state softball tournament at Klamath Falls and the August 28 game will be the last of the season before a home town crowd.

It also will be the first local appearance for the QTs since their purchase of new uniforms, red shorts and blouses with white trim.

Durham, Calif., will appear in the first game of the twin bill, meeting an opponent yet to be selected.

ROCKY'S NEW PUNCH

Grossinger, N.Y. — (U.P.) — According to Manager Al Weill, heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano has added a new punch to his repertoire. "Rocky used a 1-2-3 sequence effectively against Don Cockerill," Weill says, but now we plan to have him throw four in a row—a left hook to the jaw, a right under the heart, another left hook to the jaw and finally his susie-que to the jaw."

JACK PUSCAS Heads PAL Outdoor Card

Jack Puscas Signed For Outdoor Mix

Jackie Puscas, national Amateur Athletic Union lightweight champion, Portland, has been signed by the Medford Police Athletic League to headline the September 24 outdoor boxing show at the Medford high school stadium.

While Puscas is at this time being besieged with offers to turn professional, he is also contemplating entry in this year's Olympic games. PAL head coach, Hugh Jennings, and Police Sgt. Lyle Perkins, executive boxing chairman, prevailed upon the champion to appear on the PAL show against Luis Molina, San Francisco. Molina is rated one of the outstanding lightweights in the nation. He holds a vast string of amateur boxing titles including AAU, Golden Gloves, and Diamond Belt crowns.

In the National AAU finals, held in Kansas City last May, Puscas eliminated Molina prior to going on to win the championship. The Kansas City battle between Molina and Puscas was rated the most exciting fight of the tournament. At that time, Puscas was awarded a slight decision after each battler had been on the canvas.

Puscas went on then to win the National title by defeating the national Golden Glove champion, Molina. He has been wanting revenge ever since, feeling he is just as potent a hitter as the Eugene bombardier and a slightly better boxer.

Nine other outstanding matches are being arranged, which will feature Phil Moyer, Northwest Middleweight Champion, Denny Moyer, northwest welterweight king, and Medford's own Larry Lewis, 112-pound Oregon AAU champ. These boxers will be matched with boxers of championship status from the San Francisco area.

Tickets for this PAL boxing show will go on sale this week.

Trojans Fast, Experienced Except at Tackle Berths

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Southern California's Trojans, well stocked with 24 returning lettermen and three outstanding sophomores, can make things mighty tough in and out of the Pacific Coast conference this season if the tackles develop.

Aside from that position, Coach Jess Hill's squad looks fast and experienced.

Jon Arnett, one of the speediest ball carriers in the country, is returning to handle the left halfback spot which he divided last year with the senior Aramis Dandoy. Quarterback Ed Contratto is back for his third year of varsity ball. Five lettermen are returning to battle for end positions and the guards are in the capable hands of Orlando Ferrante and Chuck Galli.

Two of Hill's three outstanding sophs may break into the first string backfield. Don Hickman, who stands only five feet 10 and weighs 170, has been impressive at right half and also is
