U.S. Troops Smash Attack of Koreans

Seoul, Korea (U.P.)—American Military Police used tear gas Saturday to smash an attack by about 300 Korean demonstrators who stoned fellow-countrymen who work for the U.S. Air Force at the Fifth Air Force Base at Kunsan.

Attack Other Koreans — Demonstrators demanding the Communist members of the neutral nations truce teams withdrawn from Southern Korea also attacked other Koreans at Kungsun, an east coast port.

The new outbreak of violence followed a warning from President Syngman Rhee to the demonstrators not to injure American soldiers in their riots against the presence of Czech and Polish truce inspectors housed in American camps.

Navy Using Planes To Launch Rockets

Washington (U.P.)—The Navy has a new method for getting research rockets into the upper atmosphere. It launches them from jet fighter planes.

The Navy announced Friday that a jet fighter fired a research rocket in an altitude of 90,000 feet at the Chincoteague, Va., Naval Air Station this week.

It said the Banshee fighter climbed to 30,000 feet and vertically launched the rocket. This was described as "rockair" technique.

Changeover Leaves Courthouse Darkened

Saturday was a gloomy day at the courthouse. The lights were out all day.

County Commissioner L. G. Northland said that California Oregon Power company was installing a larger transformer in the basement to care for the larger electrical needs resulting from construction of the annex. Work began Friday and was to be completed today.

About the only inconvenience in addition to the semi-gloom was the idle elevators. A temporary power line to the jail was in operation.
