

Stuart-Greer Ceremony Held in Medford Church

First Methodist church was the scene August 13 of the wedding of Miss Barbara Adrienne Greer to Robert Boyd Stuart, Dr. John P. Bray, friend of the bridegroom, read the formal candle-light ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening and the reception was held at the church parlors. More than 200 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Henry B. Greer, 244 North Oakdale avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Stuart, 1029 Queen Anne avenue.

The bride's gown of Chantilly lace was fashioned with scoop-neck bodice trimmed with pearls and sequins and the skirt was designed with a chapel length train. Her long double veil of nylon tulle was held by a crown of the lace trimmed with pearls and rhinestones and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis.

Miss Betty Giltinan, Phoenix, Ariz., was honor attendant and the four bridesmaids were Miss Rose Ann Erramuzpe, Gilbert, Ariz.; Miss Susan Chubb, Shady Cove; Miss Joanne Boardman, Phoenix, Ariz.; and Miss Tanya Trowbridge, Medford. Miss Giltinan and Miss Erramuzpe are Chi Omega sorority sisters of the bride.

All five attendants wore gowns of aquamarine crystal-ette taffeta with jackets, and their mitts and headresses were of matching lace. The maid-of-honor carried yellow feathered carnations and yellow Ester Reed daisies, and the bridesmaid's bouquets were of yellow feathered carnations and white daisies.

Sherry Ann Brown of Eagle Point was flower girl. Her bouffant frock was of pink tulle and net worn with pink ruffled headress.

Charles Bray was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Richard Gates, Burlingame, Calif.; Robert Greer, brother of the bride, Loren Vaughn, Phoenix, Ariz., and Jake Eskew, Medford. Mr. Gates and Mr. Vaughn are Alpha Omega fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Bouquets of yellow gladiolus and white stock decorated the church. The pews were marked with white bows and white candles stood on the altar and in the windows.

Arrangements of yellow gladiolus and white stock decorated the reception rooms, and the bride's table was arranged with pink tapers flanking the wedding cake. Mrs. Henry L. Bray served the wedding cake, and Mrs. Ray Chubb, Shady Cove, pointed. Mrs. Ed Brown, Eagle Point, took charge of the guest book.

For the event the bride's mother wore a gown of blue-gray lace with dark red rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a lace gown of dusty pink color and her flowers were stephanotis.

Mr. Stuart and his bride flew to Detroit for their honeymoon and are motoring west by way of Phoenix, Ariz. The bride attended high school in Phoenix and received a degree in Spanish from Arizona State college, Tempe. She is a member of Chi Omega, Pleiades, women's honor society and was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The bridegroom, a veteran of the Korean war, attended the University of Oregon for a year after graduation from Medford High school and then enrolled at ASC in geology. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Maxwell, Phoenix; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lundgren, Portland, and Mrs. Ella Cook, aunt of the bride.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner, held at Rogue Valley Country club and attended by the wedding party and Dr. and Mrs. Bray. The table centerpiece was of gladiolus, dahlias and candles.

The newlyweds will be at home at 1010 South Grape street after September 1.
