

Draw For Cup Round Thursday

New York — (U.P.) — John Foster Dulles, secretary of state, will make the draw on Thursday for the Davis cup challenge round between the United States and Australia.

The U. S. Lawn Tennis association announced that the draw would be made at the West Side Tennis club, Forest Hills, N.Y., site of the matches which begin on Friday. Two singles matches are scheduled Friday, one doubles match Saturday, and two singles matches Sunday.

The U. S. team, defending the cup, which is symbolic of world tennis supremacy, consists of Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, O., Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, Ham Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., and Gil Shea of Los Angeles. Trabert and Seixas, who played all five matches last year, are expected to do the same again. The challenging Australian squad is made up of Lew Hoad, Ken Rosewall, Rex Hartwig and Neale Fraser. Hoad and Rosewall are expected to carry the singles burden.

Metkovich Leads PCL

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Veteran George Metkovich, Oakland outfielder, hangs onto the Pacific Coast league hitting leadership with a .336 average, according to statistics released today and including Sunday's games.

Metkovich upped his average three points from the previous week to take a 17-point lead over runner-up Buddy Peterson of San Diego, who has a .319 mark. Meanwhile, another veteran, Lou Kretlow of Seattle, lost his first game of the year, but stayed at the top of the pitching marks with a 12-1 record.

Steve Bilko of Los Angeles leads in home runs with 32 and is tied with Nippy Jones of Sacramento in hits with 168 each. Earl Rapp of San Diego has driven in 122 runs. The strikeout leader for the pitchers is Bob Garber of Hollywood with 171. He has 19 wins against 12 losses.

Scrimmage For Elks' Star Teams

Ontario, Ore. — (U.P.) — Former high school football players from the Boise and Snake River valleys settled down to a tough schedule of scrimmage games to prepare for the Elks all-star game at Ontario next Saturday.

Coach Gen Glone of the SRV team said he would push his squad hard today and Wednesday, with tapering off drills scheduled for Thursday.

Bill Zimmerman, coach of the Boise Valley players, promised his squad body contact work through Thursday.

EJECTED

San Angelo, Tex. — (U.P.) — Aga Baca, a Big Spring, Tex., pitcher who doesn't speak a word of English, was ejected from a Longhorn league baseball game with San Angelo Monday night by Umpire Dale Stucky for offensive language.

Portland Hands Hollywood 4-3 Loss; Angels Win, 4-2

By DON THACKERY
United Press Sports Writer

The home teams got the hits and the visitors the runs in a shortened Pacific Coast league schedule last night.

Only two games were played and in each the home town out-hit the invaders, but lost.

Los Angeles made the trip to Sacramento and won out 4-2 over the Solons. Sacramento got 13 hits and the Angels eight.

Portland likewise went to Hollywood for a 4-3 win. Hollywood got 10 hits to seven by the Beavers.

Tonight the league resumes full scale maneuvers with Seattle playing a doubleheader at San Francisco and the rest of the loop single games.

Hatten Wins 9th

Joe Hatten won his ninth victory of the season for Los Angeles with the aid of Steve Bilko's bat and tight pitching with men on base. Sacramento belted Hatten for 13 hits but the old left-hander fanned 11 and left 10 runners stranded.

Bilko sent home one run with a sacrifice fly in the first inning and then blasted home two more in the third with a single. Sacramento used four pitchers with Bud Watkins, the starter, taking the loss.

Bob Hall came to the rescue of Dick Waibel in the fourth inning for Portland and held the

Melis Matched With Vejar In TV Fight

New York — (U.P.) — Paolo Melis of Montreal, former welterweight champion of Italy, was matched today for a 10-round TV fight with seventh-ranking Chico Vejar at St. Nicholas Arena on Oct. 17 as a reward for Monday night's victory over middleweight Rinzi Nocero.

Melis, an 11-5 underdog, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Nocero of Brooklyn in their TV bout at St. Nick's. Toughy Nocero lost two rounds on low-blow fouls and was warned four other times for rough-house tactics.

Giants TD Favorites Over Rams

Portland — (U.P.) — The New York Giants were a solid one-touchdown favorite today to whip the Los Angeles Rams in Portland's Multnomah Stadium Sunday night.

The New York team assumed the role of favorite after besting the San Francisco 49ers in Seattle last Saturday. The Giants won by a 28-17 score.

Quarterbacks Charlie Conerly and Don Heinrich and fullback Bobby Epps were expected to provide the offensive punch for the Giants, more than offsetting the throwing arm of the Rams' Norm Van Brocklin.

At Salem, meanwhile, the Giants announced that ex-Oregon State star Bill Austin will start at offensive guard against the Los Angeles club. The 225-pound Austin sat out last Saturday's contest with a twisted knee.

Little League World Series Underway

Williamsport, Pa. — (U.P.) — Eight tiny titans of the American diamond put aside their bubble gum and opened the ninth annual Little League World Series today with Winchester, Mass., meeting Hamtramck, Mich., and Glen Falls, N.Y., tangling with Morrisville, Pa.

Play among finalists culled from some 1,800 leagues throughout the nation will continue Wednesday with Alexandria, La., opposing Delaware Township, N.Y., and Auburn,

Stars to three hits in a splendid six-inning relief job. The loss went to Bob Garber, first of five flingers for Hollywood. It was Garber's fifth loss to go with his league leading total of 19 wins.

Portland jumped off to three runs in the first inning and added one in the second. That concluded the Beaver scoring, but it was enough.

Dick Eggert drove in two of the Portland runs.

Doubles Rest With Unseeded Young Net Stars

Chestnut Hill, Mass. — (U.P.) — American hopes for keeping the National tennis doubles crown in the United States rested today with a pair of promising but unseeded youngsters who have already down two seeded tandems.

The lads in question, Jerry Moss and Bill Quillian, saw it to themselves, in fact, that they were tops in contention by disposing of the only remaining domestic seeded entries in the 75th doubles tourney Monday.

Moss, a 19-year-old from St. Petersburg, Fla., who is rated the best junior singles player in the nation, and his 21-year-old Seattle, Wash., teammate, squeaked by fourth seeded Eddie Moylan of Trenton, N.J., and Cliff Mayne of Berkeley, Calif. in third round action Monday. 6-4, 6-2, 1-6, 5-7, 6-3.

With the demise of Messrs. Mayne and Moylan only two seeded tandems remained—and they were both foreign.

The rest of the ranking teams have either defaulted in the rain-delayed tourney in order to play in the Davis Cup challenge round, or were eliminated earlier.

Air Force, Army Tied in Tennis

Quantico, Va. — (U.P.) — The Air Force, defending team champion, was tied with the Army today at three points each as the inter-service tennis championship entered the second day of competition.

The Navy had two points and the Marine Corps none.

Roger Pharr of Orlando, Fla., the third-seeded Army player, scored the big upset of the first day's play when he defeated Marine champion Allen Tong of Los Angeles, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4.

The day's most spectacular finish saw Navy champion Ben Sobierja of St. Louis, Mo., beat fourth-seeded Don Kaiser, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, and then collapse from heat exhaustion as they shook hands across the net. The match was played in 93 degree heat.

City Beavers Down Gaston In Pro Meet

Portland — (U.P.) — The defending champion City Beavers defeated a surprising Gaston club 11-5 last night to oust the losers from the State American Baseball Congress semi-pro baseball tourney.

The losers' bracket victory advanced City Beavers to tonight's semi-finals, where they will meet the Bashor Babes. Winner of tonight's contest meets undefeated Archer Blower, for the crown Wednesday night.
