

Golden Bears' Grid Squad Green But Well Balanced

(This is another in a series on the prospects of Pacific Coast Conference teams for the 1955 season.)

Berkeley, Calif. — (U.P.) — Coach Lynn Waldorf of California is off the spot at long last as he prepares for a 1955 grid with a green squad which has been stripped of the masterful throwing arm of Paul Larson.

"It certainly is the most inexperienced group I've had since I came here in 1947," Waldorf rumbles as he notes that Matt Hazeltine, the great Bear center, also has graduated. "However, this is a well balanced club and I don't think we'll do too bad."

Waldorf agrees that the schedule looks easier than last year's murderous affair which saw his Bears flung against mighty Oklahoma, Ohio State and UCLA in one season. UCLA still is on the menu but this fall's inter-sectionals are with such tamer outfits as Pittsburgh, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Good Ball Packers

The Bears will have to make up for Larson's absence by sticking more to the ground and Waldorf appears to have plenty of material in that department.

Jerry Drew, who averaged 9.29 a carry last year, is in line for the fullback spot although he may have trouble keeping it from Steve Dimeff who holds the edge in blocking and line-backing.

There is better than average speed at the halfbacks with Johnny Wilson and Ted Granger returning. Both were starters at various times last year. Tom Kramer may or may not be back to beef up the situation if he can get past his scholastic difficulties.

Some lucky non-letterman is in line for Larson's assignment at quarterback. The inside track seems to belong to Mike Casey, who leads in varsity experience. But Gus Gianluisi, last year's Frosh quarterback, might be in there come Sept. 17.

New Men in Line

The ends are solid but lack depth. Jim Carmichael, who was third in pass receiving last year as Larson's batterymate, has the call at right end and Bill Vallotin, a converted back, may edge out Ed Brandt at left end.

A bad hole was torn in the tackle brigade when Harry Ghilarducci was pronounced unfit to play after undergoing an eye operation. While Bob Oliver returns to work on the left side, Don Tronstein, a junior letterman, and Ray Young, up from the Ramblers, will vie for Ghilarducci's position.

Don Gilkey and Nick Poppin are two seasoned guards but there is no one to backstop them. Center also is a plum for some non-letterman. Don Mitchell and Frank Mattarocci are likely candidates, although Mitchell is weak on defense and Mattarocci short on experience.

The schedule: Sept. 17—At Pittsburgh; Sept. 24—Illinois; Oct. 1—Pennsylvania; Oct. 8—Washington State; Oct. 15—Oregon at Portland; Oct. 22—Southern California; Oct. 29—At UCLA; Nov. 5—Washington; Nov. 12—Oregon State; Nov. 19—At Stanford.

ARCHIE GIVES UP FLYING
North Adams, Mass. — (U.P.) — Archie Moore finally has decided to give up his flying lessons, at least until after his heavy-weight title bout with champion Rocky Marciano, Sept. 20. The promoters of the fight have been urging the 38-year-old Moore to postpone flying until the conclusion of the bout, but it took a near accident Friday to convince the challenger he ought to stop flying for a while.

Smith Calls Eagle Point Grid Drills

Eagle Point — Coach Stan Smith has called first drills for Eagle Point high footballers for Monday, August 29. Prospective gridmen will pick up equipment on Friday and Saturday, August 26 and 27.

Smith will begin his first season at Eagle Point. He replaces Jerry Mosby who took a post at Lakeview high. The Eagles' new head man comes to his assignment after coaching at Illinois Valley high. He is a former Medford high football player.

The head man will be assisted by Art Thompson, who has coached at Newberg for the past three years.

Practice will be held at 5:30 p.m. each day.

Play Bandon

The Eagles open their season here against Bandon on September 9. Other games are September 16—Glendale at Eagle Point; September 23—Illinois Valley at Cave Junction—September 30—At Rogue River; October 7—At Henley; October 17—Talent at Eagle Point; October 21—At Phoenix; October 28—Crater at Eagle Point.

Home games will be played under lights this year. Eagle Point is a member of the Rogue League with Illinois Valley, Crater and Phoenix and is a member of District 6 A-2.

Downey Victor Over Defender

Charlotte, N. C. — (U.P.) — Mary Ann Downey, a Baltimore miss who has hovered on the fringes of golf glory for six years, made a major grab for prestige in the Women's National Amateur today on the strength of a victory over defending champion Barbara Romack.

Miss Downey's opponent today was Mrs. E. C. K. Finch of New Canaan, Conn., champion of her state, in the first of two rounds over the Myers Park Country Club course today. The field of 32 survivors will be trimmed to eight by nightfall.

Miss Downey, who reached the fifth round in the National Amateur last year, was making her seventh try for the title the girls want most. She got to the fifth round last year before losing to Ft. Worth's Polly Riley, who still is in this tournament—and in Miss Downey's bracket at that.

Miss Downey defeated the curvaceous blonde Miss Romack because she played it close when she saw her opponent going askew off the tee. Her medal score was nothing to brag about an 80 over the par 74 for ladies on Myers Park's 6,413 yard course.

Eugene Nudges Solons Before Record Crowd

By UNITED PRESS

Baseball fans turned out in record numbers last night to watch the Eugene Emeralds display the stuff that put, and has kept them, on top of the Northwest League.

A crowd of 7,325 watched the league leaders beat the other Oregon entry in the class B loop, Salem, 3-1, to keep their two game margin over Wenatchee. The Chiefs pounded Spokane 9-3 in their balliwick and Yakima routed visiting Lewiston, 12-1, in the other league contests.

Bill Girdley, Art Preston and Bill Eastburn each hit doubles, before or after a single, in the second, third and fourth innings to account for Eugene's three tallies. Berlyn Hodges got credit for his 14th win against five losses. Mel Krause was the loser.

At Wenatchee, Bob Dureto poled a grand slam home run in the first inning and catcher Joe Rossi followed up with a bases empty homer in the second inning to get the Chiefs off and away to their easy win over Spokane. John Marshall was the winner, Gene Rosen the loser in that one.

John Kelly spaced five hits in going the route for his victory over Lewiston at Yakima. Meanwhile, his mates were getting 14 safe blows.

Quillian Looms As Title Timber

Chestnut Hill, Mass. — (U.P.) —

Jerry Moss and Bill Quillian, who didn't expect to get past the quarter-finals, looked like championship timber today as play resumed in the rain-disrupted 75th National tennis doubles tournament at Longwood Cricket club.

"I think our chances are as good as anyone's," Moss said Tuesday, the sixth day in which rain washed out scheduled matches.

Moss, a 19-year-old from Miami Beach, Fla., and his partner, a Seattle, Wash., 21-year-old, triumphed in a third round match Monday over the last seeded American tandem remaining in the tournament, Cliff Mayne of Berkeley, Calif., and Eddie Moylan of Trenton, N.J.

American and Australian Davis cup stars were forced to default from the rain-interrupted tourney here because of the coming challenge rounds.

DROPS FOOTBALL

Columbia, Mo. — (U.P.) — Senior Bob Musgrave, who had been counted on as a starting halfback on the University of Missouri football team this fall, is dropping football to concentrate on his studies. Musgrave, also a star on the university baseball team, said he was influenced by the possibility of a professional baseball career.

Cyclists Set Gypsy Tour On Sunday

Fifth annual Gypsy Tour for the Southern Oregon district will take place at Copper, on the Upper Applegate river, Sunday, Aug. 28.

This annual event, sanctioned by the American Motorcycle association, is one of the many tours held throughout the United States. Rogue River Ramblers of southern Oregon will be hosts.

The Tour, held only one year in a state, brings opportunity for cyclists to receive the AMA award which this year is a belt buckle. Ladies and men riders receive identical awards for 1955.

Invitations Issued

The local club has issued invitations to clubs throughout the state.

There will be many prizes given to the individual riders besides the trophies given out for the day's activity. A field meet in the afternoon along with a "scrambles" race is set. Time trials for the race will be held in the forenoon so that when the field meet is completed the race can get started immediately. Registration of riders will open at 9 a.m. Refreshments will be served at noon.

Sports fans of the Rogue valley are invited to view the day's activity and to spend a day as guests of the Rogue River Ramblers.

Portland — (U.P.) — Bashor Babes defeated the City Beavers, 5-2 here last night in an American Baseball congress tournament contest.

Bob Albright Scores Decision Over Arthur

Seattle — (U.P.) — Bob Albright, burly Los Angeles heavyweight, slugged his way to a unanimous 10-round decision over Johnny Arthur, the South Africa heavyweight champion, here last night.

Albright, who weighed 220 for the main event at the Civic Auditorium, pounded his four-pounds lighter opponent mercilessly. He floored Arthur twice in the first round and had him hanging on when the bell sounded the end of the bloody fight.

Referee Whitey Domstead was splattered with blood from the two scrappers.

Albright was rated as the underdog going into last night's bout.

Duke Sabedong, 213-pound Samoan, won a 10-round fracas from Kirby Seals of Los Angeles. The decision was close in a fight which saw no knock-downs.

Oakridge — (U.P.) — The Erv Lind Florists of Portland walloped the Oakridge Loggerettes 10-1 here last night in a women's softball game.

Corvallis Gains Softball Finale

Eugene — (U.P.) — Corvallis defeated Mill City, 6-3, and Oregon City, 9-5, here last night to go into the finals of the Oregon State Softball tournament.

Corvallis will meet defending champion Eugene in the finals.

PIONEERS GET GILLETTE

Prineville — (U.P.) — Mel Gillette, former Prineville high school football star and outstanding player in the 1954 Shrine All-Star game, announced today he will enroll at Lewis and Clark college in Portland next month.
