

Perry Day Sunday at Kezar Field

San Francisco — (U.P.)—Joe (Left) Perry, the combination Forty Niner fullback and off-season disk jockey, will be honored with a special "Joe Perry Day" at Kezar stadium on Sunday.

About 40,000 fans are expected to be there to help hand out the good wishes—in fact, just about everybody will be honoring Joe and pulling for him except the Cleveland Browns.

Perry, the only man in history ever to gain more than 1,000 yards a season for two consecutive years in the National Professional Football league, obviously is interested in what he will receive from the fans.

But the mention of Cleveland as an opponent takes front rank with him.

Natural Enemy

"Cleveland has been our natural enemy for many years now," says Joe. "It is more important that we beat them than what happens to me."

"If we can lick Cleveland, then I think we will have a good chance to win the championship. This is supposed to be only an exhibition game, but it will give us a good line on our chances. More than any person, I want to play on a championship team before I get around to retiring."

Oakland and San Francisco both have proclaimed Sunday "Joe Perry Day," and the fans are going to give Joe and his wife enough furniture to completely fill a new house that Joe is buying.

In return for all this, Perry expects to have his greatest season in packing the mail and give the fans a new set of thrills.

Davis Draw Conducted By Dulles

Forest Hills, N. Y. — (U.P.)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will conduct the official draw today for the long-awaited Davis cup challenge round between the United States and Australia, and American hopes were that Tony Trabert's name would be picked first.

Dulles will dip his hand into the huge silver cup, emblem of world tennis supremacy which will go to the winner of the ten-day best-of-five series opening at the West Side Tennis Club here Friday.

To Pick Four Names

The secretary will draw out four names, thus producing the lineup for the two singles matches on Friday's program. A doubles match on Saturday, and two more singles contests on Sunday will conclude the historic series, 12th in a row between the two nations.

Billy Talbert, non-playing captain of the U. S. team, was expected to name Trabert of Cincinnati, O., and Vic Seixas of Philadelphia as America's singles players. Harry Hopman, non-playing captain of the younger Aussie squad, was expected to counter with Lew Hoad and Ken Rosewall. These four are the same players who met last year, when the United States regained the cup by winning the series, 3-2.

Ham Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., and Gil Shea of Los Angeles are the other members of the U. S. team, but Talbert was expected to pass them by.

Yanks Barge Back on Top in AL; Homers Overcome Detroit 3-2; White Sox Split With Baltimore

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

It may often seem that none of those Jekyll-Hyde contenders can win the American League flag but no less an authority than Leo Durocher thinks anyone of 'em can beat the Brooklyn Dodgers in the World Series.

"The way the Dodgers have been playing it won't make any difference who plays 'em in the series," Durocher stated. "You'd just have to pick the American League team to win. In fact, if the Dodgers hadn't just opened a home stand they'd probably blow sky high and lose the pennant."

The Dodgers won their second straight game at home Wednesday beating the Chicago Cubs, 9-5, and restoring their lead to 2½ games but you still can't tell Dr. Jekyll from Mr. Hyde in the frantic A. L. struggle.

Yankees Back In First

The New York Yankees, who only 24 hours earlier turned in one of their worst performances of the season, barged back into first place by a half game when they beat the Detroit Tigers, 3-2, on ninth-inning homers by Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle.

The Chicago White Sox, "fresh" from a four-game sweep of the Tigers, meanwhile, split a doubleheader with the last-place Baltimore Orioles and managed only a disappointing 2-2 break in the four-game series. The White Sox played like world-beaters in the opener, rapping out 20 hits for a 14-1 conquest, then bowed, 2-1, to Bill Wight in the nightcap.

Main Rogue Fishing Good

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.)—The weekly fishing report as prepared by the Oregon State Game commission:

Southwest—Winchester bay salmon angling remains good. A few salmon are now being taken from the jetties, but most of the fish are still outside. Sea-run cutthroat angling on Smith river reported fair to good. Tenmile lake angling generally slow except for perch. Salmon angling Coos Bay good; silvers are predominant.

Some jack salmon now being caught in the Coquille river. A few sea-run cutthroats are in both Coos and Coquille tidewater. Large catfish are being caught in the Riverton area on the Coquille river. Striped bass angling in mud flats has been fair to good on incoming tide.

Trout fishing is good in the main Rogue and excellent in the north forks of the Rogue and tributaries. Cooler days and cold nights have produced general improvement in all streams.

Some improvement is being experienced in Willow Creek reservoir. Fish lake, Jackson county, is being drawn down to low level, but fishing remains good. Trout angling is fair throughout the upper Umpqua area.

Devils Lake Waits Races

DeLake—(U.P.)—The 1955 National Stock Outboard Motorboat Racing championships open on Devils Lake tomorrow with most of the nation's fastest race drivers expected to be on hand for the three-day event.

The races will begin daily at 1 p.m.

HOOP CLINICS SET
Tokyo — (U.P.)—The U. S. Army announced today that basketball coaches Harold E. Foster of the University of Wisconsin, Robert Vanatta of Bradley and Clifford Wells of Tulane will arrive here next week to conduct a series of basketball clinics.

And those Boston Red Sox, who looked so spectacular in walloping Cleveland Tuesday night, were limited to seven hits by Mike Garcia in a 2-0 loss to the Indians. The Kansas City Athletics shut out the Washington Senators, 5-0, behind Arnold Portocarrero's three-hitter in the other A.L. game.

Steve Gromek limited the Yankees to four hits in eight innings but didn't retire a batter in the ninth. Berra opened the frame with his 22nd homer of the year and Mantle followed with No. 33. The blows gave Bob Grim his fifth victory although Don Larsen finished up.

Billy Pierce scored his 11th victory and lowered his E.R.A. to 1.78 as four hits by Nelson Fox and three each by Chico Carrasquel and Jim Rivera paced the White Sox to their best offensive outburst since they clobbered the Athletics, 29-6, on April 23. But the Sox scored only on a ninth-inning homer by Sherman Lollar and eight of them struck out against Wight's southpaw slants in the nightcap.

Garcia, an "in and out" all season, scored his second shutout and ninth win in out-pitching 6-foot, 7-inch Frank Sullivan. Sullivan pitched well enough to win most games but suffered his 12th defeat when tagged for homers by Al Smith in the first inning and Bobby Avila in the sixth.

The day proved most costly to the White Sox because they lost their edge over the Yankees in the important "loss column." Both teams now have lost 48 games but the Yankees have won 76 to Chicago's 75. The Indians are third at 75-49, one game behind the Yankees in each column, while the Red Sox are 4½ games out with a 71-52 mark.

Campy, Hodges Homer

Two homers by Frank Kellert and one each by Gil Hodges and Roy Campanella routed Warren Hacker and paved the way for Brooklyn's easy win. Russ Meyer, now 23-2, over the Cubs for his career, received credit for the triumph although Clem Labine mopped up.

Wayne Terwilliger and Ray Katt homered behind Don Liddle's eight hit pitching to give the New York Giants a 4-1 verdict over the St. Louis Cardinals and Dick Hall supplemented his eight-hitter with a homer in leading the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 4-0 win over the Cincinnati Redlegs. Milwaukee and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

Idaho Will Bank on Solid Sophomore Football Crop

(This is one of a series on the outlook of Pacific Coast Conference teams for the 1955 football season.)

Moscow, Ida. — (U.P.)—Coach J. Neil (Skip) Stahley is banking on a solid sophomore crop to spark Idaho's Vandals to a better season than last year's which saw his boys win their last four games after blowing the first five.

"I expect we'll start out the same—pretty green," Stahley says. "But with two or three games under our belt we may have a team that is just as good as last year's if not better. And we could be a little better than that—if the sophomores hold up."

Stahley not only has last year's freshman team to work with but 20 returning lettermen to offset the loss of such veterans as guard Burdette Hess, quarterback George Eidam, center Ed Barton and ends Frank Teverbaugh and Paul Giles.

Among key men coming back are fullback Wilbur Gary, who was the big gun in Idaho's late 1954 spurge, quarterback Gary Johnson, end Ed Hilder and tackles Marsh Jones and Dick Foster.

All told, there are seven veterans to choose from for a backfield and Stahley has a wealth of tackles and guards who he thinks will give him a good offensive and defensive line.

He tabs the best looking sophomores as tackle Jerry Kramer, guard Jerry Smythe, end Wade Patterson and halfback Larry Norby.

Kramer bids fair to give Foster a battle for a starting tackle job while Howard Willis, a sharp transfer from Los Angeles Junior College, guns for Johnson's quarterback spot.

The team's weakest points are on the flanks. Only two ends have had varsity experience. Nor are there seasoned replacements at center or much depth in the quarterback position.

Stahley says he will stick to his straight "T" offense which he thinks may show more variety and smoothness after he gets the kinks out of it.

The schedule, a little tougher than last year's with the Vandals opening against Washington, which has replaced North Dakota; Sept. 17—at Washington; Sept. 24—at Utah at Boise; Oct. 1—at Arizona; Oct. 8—College of the Pacific; Oct. 15—Washington State; Oct. 29—at Oregon; Nov. 5—at Oregon State; Nov. 12—at Brigham Young; Nov. 19—at Montana.

Deadline Nears For Applications For Deer Hunts

Portland — Hunters who wish to participate in the Hart mountain and Rogue River controlled deer season drawings must submit their applications before the deadline, the Oregon Game Commission said today.

Applications for these two areas must be received at the commission's Portland office on or before 10 a.m., September 1. Applications received after that date and hour will not be eligible for the drawings. A public drawing will be held at 10 a.m. on September 7.

A $5 fee for each person applying must accompany the Hart mountain applications. The Rogue river permits are free.

Application deadline for all other controlled deer hunts is September 15 at 10 a.m. These bonus hunts include the Alfalfa, Newbridge, Northside John Day, Lookout mountain, and Pleasant Ridge areas. A $5 fee for each person applying must be submitted with the applications for these areas.

Tucson Tips The Dalles Legion Nine

Hastings, Neb. — (U.P.)—Tucson, Ariz., earned a finals berth in the sectional Junior American Legion Baseball Tournament by defeating The Dalles, Ore., 3-1, in a tight contest here last night.

Tucson scored two unearned runs in the sixth inning on two singles and two costly The Dalles errors.

The Oregon team managed its only run, also unearned, in the eighth inning on a single and a pair of errors.

The clinching run for Tucson came in the bottom of the eighth when Spence Engles and Steve Corrales blasted back-to-back doubles with two men out.

Hurler Rene Zamorano limited The Dalles to four scattered singles.

Tonight's action pits The Dalles against the Lincoln, Neb., Optimists. The loser will be eliminated from the tourney and the winner will meet Tucson for the championship Friday.

TUNA PACKING COMPANY PURCHASES SD PADRES

San Diego — (U.P.)—An estimated $250,000 was believed today to be the price paid by the Westgate-California Tuna Packing Co. for the purchase of the San Diego Padres Baseball team of the Pacific Coast League.

The company announced yesterday it had purchased 93 percent of the Padres' stock from President Bill Starr and Vice President Jack Gross. Although the purchase price was not disclosed, the company was believed to have paid $250,000 for the franchise, players and assets.

James B. Lane, president of the Tuna company, said the company would take no active part in the Padres. He said Starr would remain the club's president until the end of this season. A new president and general manager will be picked for next season, he said.

Outside Sale Feared

Lane said his company bought the club because of reports it might be sold to interests outside of San Diego and moved to another Pacific Coast town.

The San Diego club has been under the helm of its former owners for the past 11 years. It was purchased in 1944 from the H. W. Lane estate.

Lefty O'Doul, manager of Oakland Aacorns who managed the Padres to the 1954 PCL pennant, loomed as the probable leading candidate for the job of president general manager of the Padres under the new owners.

The Tuna company president would not comment as to O'Doul's possible appointment, saying "several" men would be considered for the job.
