Portlanders Divide Hollywood Twinbill; Seattle Lead Shrinks

Portland—(U.P.)—The Portland Beavers will play a make-up game with the San Diego Padres here Monday night, Aug. 29. The Pacific Coast League baseball encounter will be a make-up for a game lost on the Padres last trip here.

By PETER HAYES
United Press Sports Writer
Wednesday was pitcher's day in the Pacific Coast League and when the dust had cleared the Seattle Rainiers saw their league lead shrink to 3½ games.

Three of the six games were shutouts and in the others the losing teams could score only one run. And two of those three runs for the losing cause were unearned.

Good Day
Roly-poly Tony Ponce was the first PCL pitcher to enjoy a good day as he knuckled San Francisco to a 5-1 win over Seattle. Tony allowed nine hits but spaced them out over every inning except the first.

Second place Hollywood divided with Portland to gain half a game on the Rainiers. Joe Trimble of the Stars pitched a three-hit, 8-1 win in the opener but Portland took the nightcap, 4-1, on Red Adams' three-hitter.

Third place San Diego moved to within 4½ games of Seattle as Bob Kerrigan blanked Oakland, 3-0, on seven hits.

Los Angeles and Sacramento swapped shutouts, the angels

Bob Baker Beats Lane Third Time

Salt Lake City — (U.P.) — Bob Baker, Pittsburgh, Pa., who currently ranks second among the contenders for Rocky Marciano's heavyweight title, defeated Rex Layne for the third straight time last night by taking a 10-round split decision.

Baker, scoring repeatedly with combinations to the head, boosted his hopes of meeting the winner of next month's Marciano-Archie Moore title bout. The husky Pittsburgher virtually ended Layne's hopes of making a comeback.

Baker weighed 207 and the Lewiston, Utah, fighter scaled 202½.

Referee Ruby Goldstein gave Baker five rounds, Layne three and called two even. Judge Ken Shulsen scored it 4-4-2, giving Layne a 5-4 edge on points, and Judge Eddie Border favored Baker 5-3-2. The United Press gave Baker the edge, 4-3-3.

Layne tried to carry the fight to Baker. He built up points in the early rounds by landing some good body punches but midway in the fight, Baker began using his longer reach to halt Layne's rushes with punches to the head.

Officials Delay Election of Czar

A meeting of football and basketball game arbiters of this area has been set for Tuesday, September 13, at Southern Oregon college.

About 15 officials met last night at Central Point. They discussed rule changes and went over plays in the state examination. Election of a commissioner to assign basketball referees for prep games was delayed until the next meeting since a good number of hoop officials were not present.

Eugene Captures Softball Mantle

Eugene — (U.P.) — Eugene won the Oregon state softball championship here last night by clipping Corvallis, 6-1. It was the sixth time in eight years that Eugene has won the title.

The Eugene team went through the double-elimination tournament undefeated and will compete in regional playoffs beginning Sept. 4 at Boise, Ida. Corvallis also is eligible to compete in the playoffs.

Interservice Tennis Session Closes Today

Quantico, Va. — (U.P.) — Two clashes between Army champion Grant Golden and Air Force champion Whitney Reed, one in singles and one in doubles, were expected to highlight today's closing action in the Interservice Tennis Championships.

On the outcome of the rivalry between the two stars may depend the battle for the team championship, in which the Air Force leads with nine points to Army's eight. Navy has three and the Marines zero.

taking the eighth inning first game, 3-0, behind Jim Brosnan and Sacramento winning the closer, 4-0, as Rex Jones posted his first win since May 15.

Second Straight

San Francisco's new day baseball policy attracted only 669 fans but they saw the home team bounce Seattle for the second straight time. Ponce was credited with his ninth victory but would have had a shutout but for errors by himself and catcher John Ritchey in the fifth inning.

Hollywood's Trimble helped his cause with a pair of singles driving in three runs off loser Ed Burtchey and Glenn Elliott. Singles by Frankie Austin and Don Eggert in the ninth accounted for Portland's lone run.

Catcher Don Lundberg's error in the first inning of the second game paved the way for Hollywood's only run off Adams. Walley Westlake hit a two-run homer in the eighth inning off Nelson King, who relieved loser Roger Bowman in the second inning.

Youth Gets Big Chance in Ladies National Golf

Charlotte, N.C. — (U.P.) — The Women's National Amateur golf tournament entered the quarter-finals today with an entirely new cast of performers and the pairings gave youth a big chance to win the title.

The only players left whose exact age would not be polite to mention were Polly Riley of Ft. Worth, Tex., a Curtis cup member since 1948, and Mrs. Jane Crum Covington of Orangeburg, S.C., who has been winning Carolina tournaments over considerable span of years.

Others Novice

The others were all youngsters or at least novices to advance so far. Mrs. Scott Probasco, 25, of Chattanooga; Anne Quast, 17, of Marysville, Wash.; Jane Nelson, Indianapolis youngster; Barbara McIntire, 22, of Toledo; Margaret Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich., 19, and 21-year-old Pat Lesser of Seattle.

The feature match today put Mrs. Probasco against Miss Quast. The slender Miss Quast, who ousted Curtis cup player Grace Demoss Smith in the first round, came through two tough matches in Wednesday's rapid wedding out.

Hunting Synopsis Now at Agencies

Portland — A complete synopsis of the 1955 hunting regulations is now available to hunters at all license agencies, the Oregon Game commission said today.

The synopsis is again of the folding booklet type which proved so popular with sportsmen last year.

Seasons, bag limits and area boundaries are described in full on one side of the synopsis. On the reverse side is a full scale chart of Oregon with the various hunting areas bounded in color.

Below the chart, hunters will also find a complete quick-reference breakdown of the game seasons showing the dates of the open seasons, open areas, and bag limits.

The waterfowl regulations will be published in a separate leaflet and should be available to hunters about the middle of September.

HALL SPARS ROCKY

Grossinger, N.Y. — (U.P.) — Toxie Hall, who knocked Rocky Marciano down while the champ was training for last May's title defense against England's Don Cockell, is back helping Marciano train. Hall was pressed into service because, according to Manager Al Weill, "the other sparmates don't mix it enough and Rocky needs more rugged workouts."

HELEN DAVIES
Enters SO Tourney

Helen Davies Files Entry For SO Fray

Mrs. Helen Davies filed her entry yesterday for the Southern Oregon Golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club and will aim to regain the women's title she relinquished last year in the annual Labor day week end classic.

The tourney is September 1 to 5.

Mrs. Davies, Rogue Valley star, won the championship for seven consecutive years before being eliminated by Mrs. Richard Borst, Portland, in the 1954 semi-finals. She and Miss Sue DeVoe, also Rogue Valley, will be the "previous" champions contending in the ladies tourney. Sue beat Mrs. Borst in last year's finale.

BOB ATKINSON
Ex-SO Champ Back

There will be three champs of former year participating in the men's tourney. Among latest entrants announced is Bob Atkinson. He took the crown in both 1951 and 1952. Atkinson's home course is Columbia-Edgewater, Portland. He is now an Air Force lieutenant stationed at Reno, Nev.

Other Titlists

The other title winners entered are Dom Provost Jr., and Eddie Simmons. Provost was a Rogue Valley player when he took the mantle last year. He's now a Columbia-Edgewater banner carrier. Simmons, Medford, holds six Southern Oregon championships in the 27 year history of men's matches.

Field of former winners could swell to four if Skip Nagler, Eugene, plays.

Among men's contenders also will be Jack Brand, Lebanon, who plays out of Salem and is considered one of the top linksmen of the state. Another entry is Robert Donnelly, Oregon State college No. 1. His course outside of school is Columbia-Edgewater and he's considered one of the longest hitters in Oregon.

57 Women

A record number of participants in foreseen. Women's entry list totals 57 and may swell by the Saturday, August 27, deadline. The present total is higher than any previous field.

Tourney committeemen originally set a 192 quota for men's entries but because of demand and the apparent fact that a number of linksmen had not heard of the limit have added two more flights. There will be 10 lower flights of 16 in addition to the championship bracket of 64. A full complement of 224 is anticipated, since there is a sizable number of players on a waiting list to fill in for possible dropouts.

Rogue Valley men and women are already participating in qualifying play. All local women, except those trying for the championship flight, must finish their 18-hole rounds by next Tuesday. Local men must complete their qualifying by Wednesday with those for the title flight playing only on that day. Medford women trying for the top bracket will qualify on Thursday, September 1, along with out-of-towners.

Raburg pitched near perfect baseball, retiring 15 straight, before giving up an infield single to the leadoff hitter in the sixth. He whiffed seven and walked only one in winning 3-0. Yakima clinched the game with a two run rally in the sixth when catcher Sam Mitchell doubled behind two singles and a sacrifice. The Bears added another run in the eighth on a single by Herm Lewis, an error and a wild pitch.

Dick Hogan's homer in the top of the fifth tied the Spokane-Wenatchee score at 5-5 and set the stage for Bottler's game winning smash. Shortstop Bob Serratto singled and Bottler slammed the next pitch over the wall, giving the Indians a 7-5 lead and an eventual 7-6 victory.

Dark Horses Scramble in Doubles Mix

Chestnut Hill, Mass. — (U.P.) — Dark horse tandems, who got their big break when rain drove all the big names out, scrambled today to stake out title to the 75th National tennis doubles crown as the ill-fated tourney staggered toward a climax.

Quarter-final matches were scheduled for today. There were only two seeded tandems left in the Longwood Cricket Club tournament, drained of top stars by rains that forced seven postponements, so nobody was counting out the upstarts.

Nobody, either, was counting out the two seeded entries remaining, Britishers Roger Becker and Robert Wilson and Japanese Kosei Komo and Atsushi Miyagi. The Japanese team, always a threat in any tournament, looked especially impressive in play so far.

Serves Notice

Al Harum, a 20-year-old of Coral Gables, Fla., and his 19-year-old partner, Barry McKay of Dayton, O., served notice of their designs on the title Wednesday following their first tourney win. The lads, who drew a bye in the first round and one by default in the second, beat Seymour Hunter of Melrose, Mass., and Ralph Stuart of Oyster, Mass., 14-12, 6-3, 12-10.

The most serious dark horse threat, however, stemmed from another pair of American youngsters, Jerry Moss, 19, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Bill Quillian, 21, of Seattle, Wash. They are already in the semi-finals by virtue of a quarter-final default.
