

Everything But Gas Found in Gas Tank

Patterson, N.J.—(U.P.)—Passaic County Sheriff Norman Tattersall asked a mechanic to take a look Thursday at the station wagon used to haul inmates from the county jail to the courthouse. He said it had been pretty balky lately.

The mechanic opened the gas tank and found some marbles, lifesavers, pieces of soap, paper, steel wool, stones, scraps of sheet metal, sugar and thumb-tacks.

Tattersall said he would keep the tank locked from now on when prisoners wash the vehicle.
