Miss Charity Williams, Ernest Small Married in Home Ceremony on Tuesday

Miss Charity Williams and Robert Ernest Small were married Tuesday, August 23, in a ceremony held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thomas Victor Williams, 1975 Houston road. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James John Small, St. Albans, Long Island, New York.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal church, read the marriage service at noon, with only members of the bride's family present.

The bride was attended by her two sisters, Miss Phyllis and Miss Rhoda Williams, and the bride's brother, Christopher Williams, was best man for Mr. Small. Dayton O. Williams, Lamath Falls, gave his niece in marriage.

The bride's gown was of white Chinese taffeta fashioned with a panel in the skirt front which was embroidered in color with pansies and lilies-of-the-valley. The material for the dress was given to the bride by her great-aunt, Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle of Santa Barbara, Calif. The material had been bought to Mrs. Biddle about 60 years ago by her brother, Herman Burrell, on his return from a voyage around the world in the sailing ship, Colona.

The bride's bouquet was a nosegay of white rosebuds and violets. At times during the reception she also held a fan of embroidered white satin and a nosegay, another gift from Mrs. Biddle, which had belonged to Mrs. Biddle's mother. Her handkerchief was given to her by her cousin, Mrs. John Del Val, Oregon City.

For the wedding and reception Miss Phyllis Williams wore a frock of champagne colored embroidered organdy and her bouquet was a nosegay of briarcliff rosebuds in deep pink.

Miss Rhoda Williams wore a dress of lavender and white dotted Swiss embroidered with sprays of lilacs, and her nosegay was of golden gypsies rosebuds. The bride's mother wore a dress of grey crepe with lace inserts dyed to match the crepe.

The wedding was followed by a luncheon for members of the bridal party, and other guests were Mrs. O'Ferrall Knight, Estacada, Ore., aunt of the bride, and the Rev. Mr. Bolster.

The wedding reception was held later in the afternoon. Assisting were Mrs. George Carpenter, Mrs. Berthold Barnum, Mrs. Fred Carr, Mrs. Harold Jordan, Mrs. Royal E. Bebb, Mrs. Rawles Moore, Mrs. Sprague Rie-

Union President To Be in City For Convention

The visit here of Mrs. Glenn G. Hays, Ransom, Kan., national president of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, is anticipated by members of the local union. She will be here in connection with the 72nd annual Oregon state WCTU convention to be held here September 7, 8 and 9.

Mrs. Hays will arrive here from Long Beach, Calif., where she will attend a national WCTU convention. Sessions will be conducted at the First Methodist church. A banquet will be given Wednesday evening, September 7 in the church social room, with Mrs. Hays as the main speaker.

Reservations for the banquet should be made soon either with members of the local union or by calling Mrs. Mabel Houck, telephone 2-2980.

About 125 delegates are expected. Mrs. Guy Cox, president of the local union, is the convention chairman.

Mrs. Ruth Tooze, Portland, state president, will preside for the meetings.

Returns
Mrs. Burdette L. Dodge, Hillcrest road, has returned to Medford after spending the past several weeks in Los Angeles with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Dodge Jr., and their children.

Miss Helen Bullis, Mrs. Burdette Dodge, Mrs. Ward V. Hammond, Mrs. Stephen G. Nye, Mrs. Delno Sloan and Miss Barbara Roach.

Bouquets of white and coral colored gladioli and white asters decorated the Williams home.

Mr. and Mrs. Small are traveling along the northwest coast to Victoria, B.C., for their wedding trip and will be at home in Seattle, Wash., after September 5. The bride was graduated from Medford High school and received both her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Oregon. She attended the Sorbonne in Paris for her junior year. The bride taught French and Spanish at the College of Idaho last year.

Mr. Small received his bachelor's degree from Kansas State college and his master's from the University of Oregon. He is with Young, Richardson, Carleton and Detlie, architects and engineers in Seattle. While working for his master's degree at the University of Oregon, Mr. Small was an instructor in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

Here for the wedding were Mr. Williams, Mrs. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton O. Hyde, Bly, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. William L. Roach, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph U. Bou-telle, Florence avenue, entertained at a family dinner Saturday, August 20, in honor of the couple and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, gave a family supper party for them Sunday night at their home on Spring street.

Californians Guests in City

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Frake, 22 Richmond avenue, have had three groups of house-guests during the past week. They include Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Berkeley, Calif., with their children, Richard, Robert and Pamela; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Piper and children, Charlene and Allen, Whittier, Calif., and Jack Spector, Los Angeles.

Newlyweds To Live In Nevada

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sanders, whose wedding was an event of August 14 in Eugene, left Medford Tuesday for Reno, Nev., where they will live. Mr. Sanders will be technical director for the Reno Little theater the coming season.

Mrs. Sanders is the former Wilma Sundahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Arrendale of Forbestown, Calif., and Mr. Sanders is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanders, 6 South Groveland avenue. The marriage ceremony took place in Fairmount Presbyterian church in Eugene at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, with about 85 guests attending.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of softly draped French blue chiffon with hat of the same material and matching shoes. She carried a cascade of yellow roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Joan DeLap Pearce, Eugene, was honor attendant. She wore a ballerina frock of pale yellow crystalline with wide standing collar and low neckline. Her bouquet was of talisman roses combined with salmon-pink gladioli and her headdress was a circlet of yellow roses. The bride had made her own gown and that worn by her attendant. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of wedge-wood blue silk organdy with matching summer velvet hat and shoes and corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride was given in marriage by Horace W. Robinson, director of the University of Oregon theater, and Ron M. Morgan was best man for Mr. Sanders. Ushers were Mark Tapscott, Eugene, and Gordon Howard, Roseburg.

The church decorations were baskets of pale yellow gladioli with cream-colored candles.

Mrs. Ron M. Morgan was soloist for the ceremony.

An informal garden reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ramey. Mr. Ramey is technical director of the University of Oregon theater.

Mr. Sanders and his bride spent a honeymoon at Yachats and Oregon beaches.

The bride was graduated from Chico State college, receiving a degree in language arts in 1953, and then entered the University of Oregon on an assistantship in costumes. The bridegroom, a graduate of Medford High school, attended Reed college, studied under Angus Bowmer at Southern Oregon college and later attended the University of Oregon, taking a degree in 1953. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sanders were active in the University theater, and both did graduate work last year at the university and will complete their theses for master's degree in the near future. All the couple's attendants were co-workers in the university theater.

Gordon-Shirley Wedding Held At Base Chapel

Of interest here is news of the wedding August 16 of Miss Anna Martha Shirley, Bainbridge, Ga., and Second Lt. Richard J. Gordon. The ceremony was held at the chapel of Bryon Air Force base in Bryon, Tex.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gordon, 1019 South Oakdale avenue, and his family traveled to Texas for the wedding. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claud Shirley of Bainbridge.

The ceremony was read at 10 o'clock in the morning and followed ceremonies at the base during which the bridegroom was graduated from the aviation cadet program of the United States Air Force and received his commission.

For her wedding the bride wore a white organdy gown and carried white roses. A reception followed in the Memorial union building of Texas A and M college.

Lt. and Mrs. Gordon are now stationed at Scott Air Force base in Illinois and in December are to be transferred to Anchorage, Alaska. The officer was graduated from Medford High school and attended Oregon State college before entering the Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon and children, Susan, Carl, Jim and Bob, traveled by plane to Bryon to attend the ceremonies. Mr. Gordon and the sons went by private plane and Mrs. Gordon and their daughter went by commercial air liner.

Tea Celebrates 80th Birthday

A tea Wednesday afternoon, August 24, observed the 80th birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, 604 Pine street. The event was held at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jacobs, 29 Willamette avenue. Mrs. M. L. Jacobs was the hostess and about 25 friends of the honored guest called between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

Among the visitors were a number of the American Legion auxiliary, the Wednesday Study club and the Medford Garden club, organizations in which Mrs. Jacobs has been active.

She is the widow of the late J. W. Jacobs and the couple operated the Bungalow grocery on North Riverside avenue for many years. They came to Medford in 1908.

were Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Hendrickson, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom and their daughter, Jackie, and Mrs. Anne Trenne, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Salem. Mrs. Sexton took charge of the decorations and flowers for the wedding.
