

Patricia Merriman Wed To Roland Jean Higgins

Sacred Heart Catholic church was the scene Saturday, August 20 of the wedding of Miss Patricia Jean Merriman to Roland Jean Higgins. The double ring ceremony and nuptial mass were celebrated at 10 a.m. by Father William McLeod and was attended by 300 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle M. Merriman, 304 King street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Higgins, 60 North Peach street.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was of Chantilly lace and pleated nylon tulle over slipper satin. The bodice was fashioned with peter pan collar and long sleeves, and the overskirt of Chantilly lace was designed with a bustle of pleated nylon tulle ending in a cathedral length train. Her finger tip veil of nylon tulle was held by a crown of lace trimmed with pearls. The veil had first been worn by Mrs. William Driscoll Jr., at her wedding. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. William Driscoll Jr., was honor attendant and Miss Martha Merriman, sister of the bride was junior bridesmaid. Miss Beverly LaComb was bridesmaid and Mrs. Thomas Merriman, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Ives McKinney and Mrs. Howard Borough, Seattle, Wash., were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Driscoll wore a ballerina gown of pink nylon lace and tulle over taffeta fashioned with tiered skirt of tulle forming a bustle with overskirt of lace, and her shoes were pink. She wore a flower bandeau of deep pink rose buds and carnations in her hair and carried a cascade bouquet of the same flowers.

The other attendants wore gowns of deep aquamarine nylon lace and tulle fashioned to match the gown worn by the matron of honor, and aquamarine shoes.

Their flower bandeaux and cascade bouquets were of pale pink carnations and dark pink rose buds.

John Walker was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Thomas Merriman, brother of the bride, Ives McKinney, James Clark and William Driscoll Jr.

Bouquets of white gladiolus and lighted tapers decorated the church, and the pews were marked with white satin bows. Bruno Pellegrini was at the organ.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the Medford Hotel which was attended by 150 guests. Arrangements of white gladiolus decorated the reception rooms and the bride's table was arranged with pink carnation and white tapers flanking the pink, white and silver wedding cake.

The white linen cloth used on the bride's table had been a wedding gift to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lewis and had been used at their wedding reception 45 years ago and was loaned for the occasion. Miss Jacqueline Walker served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Wes E. Offenbacher of Klamath Falls, Ore. Miss Patricia Vail poured the coffee. All are sorority sisters of the bride.

Mrs. Fred Stammen and Mrs. James Gregory served the punch, Mrs. Paul Parson and Mrs. Raymond Marion took charge of the gifts and Miss June Bostock was in charge of the guest book.

For the event the bride's mother wore a gown of gun metal grey nylon net over taffeta. Her accessories were pale pink and grey and she wore a corsage of baby pink rose buds. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a lace gown of grey over mauve taffeta and she wore mauve and grey accessories and a corsage of lavender carnations and stephanotis.

Mr. Higgins and his bride are making a wedding trip to Banff National park, Lake Louise and Victoria, British Columbia, Canada.

Both the bride and bridegroom have lived in Medford all their lives. The bride attended St. Mary's school and is employed by Doctor's clinic as an x-ray technician. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

The bridegroom attended Medford High school and is now attending Southern Oregon college. He is employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad company.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Margaret Collins, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Mable Hendricks and Mrs. J. C. Price, aunts of the bridegroom, H. L. Collins and E. H. Collins, uncles of the bridegroom, all from Oakley, Ida.; Mrs. Nellie Merriman, grandmother of the bride from Napa, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Sheridan and daughter Colleen, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Borough and son David, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. H. E. Rinabarger and Mrs. Don Porterfield, Tulelake, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Prescott, Grants Pass.

The bride's parents were hosts for the rehearsal party which was held at their home on Friday, August 19 and attended by the wedding party and other friends.

The newlyweds will be at home at Ideal court, Medford after September 1.

Shady Cove—A lawn party and dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Littlefield, Shady Cove, was attended by members of the Shady Cove Grange.

Cards and group singing were diversions of the evening after dinner.

Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. John Motchenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Vanderlip, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kee and daughter, Cecilia, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Watson and children, Mrs. Ida Otto and Mrs. Reed McKay and son; Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Lewen, Mrs. Madlen Eastgate and sons, Miss Carol Shepherd and Bill Littlefield.

Visitors Attend Festival Plays; Leave Thursday

Mrs. Herbert Talbott, Honolulu, Hawaii, left Thursday for San Francisco after having been a guest in the valley of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jordan, Talent. Mrs. Talbott and Mrs. Jordan are sisters-in-law.

Mrs. Talbott was accompanied by two friends, Miss Mary John, Pendleton, and Mrs. Springer, Portland. The three attended performances of the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Ashland, and expressed praise for the productions.

Miss John was en route to Honolulu for a convention of the Episcopal church as a representative of the diocese of eastern Oregon.

Bullocks Leave For California

Col. and Mrs. E. F. Bullock, 303 Willamette street, left Thursday for Scio, Ore., where they will visit their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John Bullock, who recently moved there from Medford. Colonel and Mrs. Bullock will leave after their visit in Scio for Santa Barbara Calif., where they expect to live.

They sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes who came here from Eugene. Mr. Holmes is to be an instructor and assistant principal of the new Roosevelt school annex.

Relatives Visit In Medford Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Twamley and nephew, Curtis Williams, White Lake, S. D., have left after visiting at the home of Mrs. Twamley's sister, Mrs. Fred Fick, 502 North Holly street. They were here for the past three weeks and arrived by way of Portland where Mrs. Fick met them.

They left by way of Klamath Falls to Reno, Nev., and will visit also in Idaho and tour Yellowstone national park. While here they visited Crater Lake.

Choose Your
DRAPERIES
In YOUR OWN Home
From FULL LENGTH Samples
— Complete —
Drapery Decorating Service
Wakefield Drapery
SEE "SHADY" FOR SHADES
321 East 6th Phone 2-6010

Mrs. Alf Guldahl is the former Harriet Houghton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight L. Houghton, 512 Dakota avenue. Her wedding to Mr. Guldahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Guldahl of Strommen, Norway, took place August 20 at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The newlywed couple posed for the picture below shortly before leaving the Houghton home for St. Louis, Mo., where they will live.—(Landis-Shangle photos)

Episcopal Service Weds Pair

Miss Harriet Houghton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Houghton, 512 Dakota avenue, was married to Alf Guldahl of Strommen, Norway, in a ceremony held at St. Mark's Episcopal church Saturday, August 20. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Guldahl, Strommen.

The bride was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. Elmer McDade, Corvallis, Ore., and Miss Marcia Houghton. Her young brother, David, acted as ring bearer.

Mr. McDade served as best man for Mr. Guldahl, and ushers were Christopher Williams and Richard Padgham.

The bride's dress of lace and satin had first been worn by her sister, Mrs. McDade, the former Janny Lou Houghton. She carried a white orchid on her white prayer book.

Mrs. McDade and Miss Houghton wore frocks of green taffeta with lace jackets and their flowers were yellow carnations and white gladiolus.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Guldahl will be at home after September 1 at 5101 Raymond avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Meeting Announced For Roxy Ann Club

Roxy Ann Home Economics club women plan to meet Wednesday, August 31, at 8 p.m., in the Grange hall.

JEAN HART SAYS

Select Your

bettiejean COAT

Now... for Fall
... for Winter

Shown is one of our latest arrivals in wool and beaver mixture... lightweight and warm with millium lining... just one of many of our new fall styles at

$49⁹⁵ up

Shop at the Pink Store
Where You Park at the Door

617 East Main Phone 2-8992

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jean Higgins (Landis-Shangle photo)

Gardeners Plan Mill-Farm Tour For Wednesday

Phoenix — Phoenix Garden club members will meet Wednesday, August 31 at 8:30 a.m. at the Community club in Phoenix. Lewis L. Simpson of the Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association will conduct them on a tour of the Elk Lumber Mill north of Medford, and then to the Medford corporation tree farm and lumbering operations.

Anyone desiring to make this tour is asked to contact Mrs. A. C. Lewis, telephone 3-2822.

Those attending are to take a sack lunch, including their own coffee.

Rosebud Council Honors Advisor; Couples to Leave

Mrs. John Fugill was honored at a farewell party given Thursday night by Rosebud council, Pythian Sunshine Girls. Mrs. Fugill, who has been serving as royal advisor, will leave this week to make her home in Chico, Calif.

Mrs. LeRoy Cline will now serve as advisor for the council, and Mrs. Ben Blachly will replace Mrs. Cline as counselor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fugill, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sharp, expect to leave Medford about September 1.

Couple to Live In Canyonville; Reno Rites Held

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Henry Kelley, who were married August 12 in Reno, Nev., will make their home in Canyonville, Ore.

Mrs. Kelley is the former Margaret Agnes Barnett. She is a daughter of Mrs. Glenn Summers, Portland, and in Medford lived at 470 DeBarr avenue.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Brewster Adams, Baptist minister, the date also being Mr. Kelley's birthday anniversary. The double-ring service was read at 9 o'clock at night by candlelight.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McDaniel attended the couple and Wynn Milani was a guest for the ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of mauve colored faille with small hat covered in iridescent sequins, and brown accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Mrs. McDaniel wore a white print silk suit and purple orchid corsage.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding supper at the Nugget cafe in Sparks, Nev. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, Virginia City and Gold Hill, Nev., and also visited Comstock Mines and Alturas, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley will live at Alpine lodge, Canyonville. Mrs. Kelley has been employed at the Red Streak cafe, Medford, and Mr. Kelley is a logger.

FOE Auxiliary Holds Initiation for Two

Miss Charlene Hayward and Miss Jane Starboard were initiated into Ladies' auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles Thursday evening. After the meeting a short program was presented and a lunch was served.

The next meeting will be held September 1 at 217 West Main at the hall.

Two Children Christened by Former Pastor

A christening ceremony was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Lue, 341 O'Garra street, August 23, at seven o'clock in the evening for Debra Lee and Deanna Lynn Lue, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lue. The Rev. Harry W. Hansen, Carmel, Calif., who performed the Lue's wedding ceremony, officiated for the christening rites.

Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Hood, 505 Benson street, Medford.

Present for the christening ceremony were the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Cargill court, and the paternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lue, Howard street. Mrs. Hansen was also a guest.

The Rev. Mr. Hansen and his wife were en route to Nebraska where he will become pastor of a church near Omaha. He was formerly pastor of First Presbyterian church here.

On Trip

Mrs. Ruth Ragsdale, district office secretary for Montgomery Ward and company, left Saturday on a combined business and pleasure trip. At Redding, Calif., she will attend a formal opening of the annex to a company store. From there she will go to Yuba City to visit friends and they will continue to San Francisco for several days. Mrs. Ragsdale plans to return about September 6.

Funeral Designs
by Dorothy Ginn
Ginn's
FLOWERS
FLORIST • GIFTS
205 CENTRAL

It's from Brophy's Medford

Medford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths

the best flatware news in years!

NOW... there are 3 striking modern designs in...

Stainless BY INTERNATIONAL

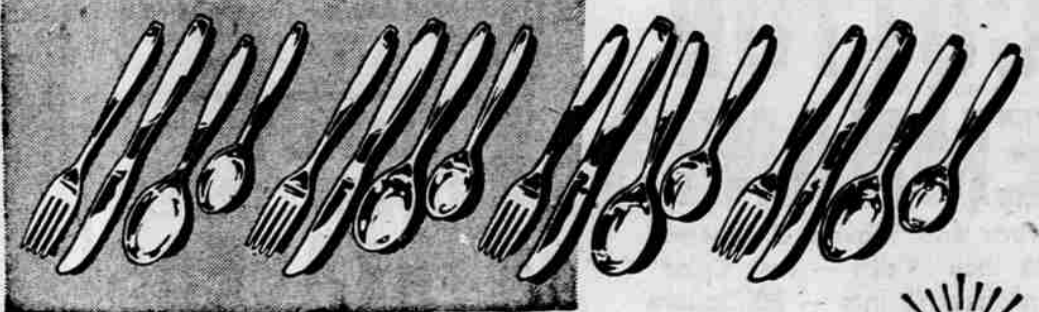

TODAY'S MOST MODERN TABLEWARE — THE FINEST OF ITS KIND

At its best on any occasion... functional styling reflects casual elegance in modern living.

LIMITED OFFER $19.95

16-PC. STARTER SET

VALUE $26.34—SAVE $6.39

Take advantage of this money-saving offer and accent your table with radiant stainless steel—today's requisite for informal living! Beautifully crafted with magnificent velvet finish, it requires no special care or polishing in normal use. Own yours now.

For the Tableware You'll Give With Pride... Let Brophy's Be Your Guide.

Brophy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, OREGON Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century