Job's Daughters Plan Style Show In Central Point

Central Point—"Happy Holidays," is the theme chosen by Central Point Job's Daughters for the annual style show and tea to be held this year, Thursday, September 1, at 3 p.m. The event will be held in the Central Point Masonic hall and proceeds will go toward the purchase of new lodge robes for the group.

The style show has five divisions to include various types of recreational attire and clothing for work, casual and more formal occasions, which are worn by their age group.

The clothing is modeled by the owners and about 35 girls will do the modeling.

Some of the articles to be modeled have been made by the girls themselves.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Everett Faber, telephone Normandy 4-2743 by August 29.

Refreshments will be served.

In charge is Mrs. John Dunlap, Prospect, a member of the guardian council of Job's Daughters. Members on the committee include Miss Anita Conger, honored queen; Miss Vicki Noel, senior princess, and Miss Roberta Dunlap.

Each girl has made an apron for the apron sale to be held in connection with the tea and show. About 50 girls belong to the chapter.
