Service Held Here Weds Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Dean Davis, whose wedding was an event of August 21 at West Main Church of Christ, will live in Portland after returning from their wedding trip to Yosemite National park.

The bride, Miss Dolores Yvonne Mercer, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mercer, 948 Kenyon avenue, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis, live at 384 O'Gara street.

The bridegroom is stationed at Portland with the Air Force. The Rev. Maurice Tisdell performed the rites at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The ceremony was attended by relatives and close friends of the couple.

Miss Joyce Anne Hutchison, Ukiah, Calif., attended the bride and Paula Kay Wallace, Grants Pass, a niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Ring bearer was James Riley Wallace, also of Grants Pass, a nephew of the bride.

Serving as best man was Gary Pree, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Donald Erickson and Tom Tilton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of embroidered nylon over satin in ballerina style. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried an orchid on a white Bible. She also carried a pair of silk mitts that her maternal grandmother wore at her wedding 58 years ago.

Miss Hutchison wore an orchid net gown over satin and her bouquet was of white gladiolus centered with yellow gladiolus.

Mrs. W. Cates furnished the wedding songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercer gave the reception at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Elmo McGraw, and Mr. McGraw, 300 Stewart avenue.

The bride and bridegroom made the traditional first cut of the wedding cake and the bride then cut a second piece which was sent to her brother, Pfc. Gerald E. Mercer. He is stationed at Kaneohe bay, Honolulu, Hawaii.

The bride's mother wore for her daughter's wedding a gold and grey afternoon dress and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in navy blue. Both had corsages of white gladiolus.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hutchison and daughter, Joyce, Ukiah, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mercer, Crescent City, Calif., grandparents of the bride; Mrs. R. E. Hudson and sons, Leonard and Bobbie, also of Crescent City, and Mrs. Doris Lantz, Portland.

The bride attended Del Norte and Medford high schools, and the bridegroom attended Medford schools.

Missouri Family Visits in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Matter and children, Judy and Sammy, are visiting this week from Osborn, Mo., with Mrs. Matter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Dillon, 1531 Grand avenue.

Seattle Woman Returns to Home

Talent—Mrs. Charles Brent, the former Miss Lucille Young, left Wednesday afternoon by United Air lines for her home in Seattle. She had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Young, at Talent.

She also visited her brothers, Davis Young, Medford, and Floyd Young, Talent.

Prato Wedding In New York City Attracts Attention

New York—(U.P.)—Radiant, dark-eyed Lorraine Prato gave the correct answer to the $2 question today. It was a simple "I do."

Lorraine, 23-year-old daughter of Gino Prato, the Italian cobbler whose ability to answer questions of another kind won him $32,000 on a television show, became the bride of Eugene Joannides in one of New York's most photographed weddings.

Mr. Prato, whose knowledge of opera carried him to the brink of total success on "The $64,000 Question," beamed happily through the glare of photographers' flash bulbs as his daughter made her vows in St. Angela Merici church.

Proud of the fact that sudden wealth has not changed him, Mr. Prato knelt before the church altar in a rented cutaway and striped trowsers.

"You only wear 'em once," he said shortly before entering the crowded church just a few blocks from the modest Bronx apartment where he lives.

College Shower Held for Student In Rogue River

Rogue River—A surprise shower in honor of Miss Kara Lee Irwin was given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Worrall, Rogue River.

Those attending were the Misses Janet Weigart, Judy Farrar, Kathy Herburger, Beverly Burgoyne and Janet Robinson, all of Rogue River; and Laura Lee Morris of Coos Bay; Mrs. Loyd Morrow, Mrs. Earl Green, Mrs. Everett Bowers, Mrs. Les Weigart, Mrs. Fred Noah, Mrs. Ray Davis, Mrs. Harold Salter, Mrs. Ernest Sandeen, Mrs. Clint F. Hawkins Jr., Mrs. S. B. Burkett, Mrs. Vivian Miller, all of Rogue River; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bell, Grants Pass; Mrs. Golda Semon, of Medford; Mrs. W. H. Morrow, Ontario, Ore., the guest of honor, her parents, brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Irwin, Jimmy and Becky.

Miss Irwin is a 1955 graduate of Rogue River High school and was valedictorian of her class. She will enter Lewis and Clark college next month as a freshman with "honors at entrance."

She was a gladiola princess this year in the Grants Pass Gladiolus festival. Miss Irwin is active in youth work in Hope Presbyterian church of Rogue River and has held an office in the district and state Westminster Youth fellowship.

She received many gifts and good wishes from her friends.

Institute Says Good Lighting Helps Romance

Chicago—(U.P.)—Girls, turn the lights on—not off—if you are seeking romance.

So advises the American Home Lighting Institute, which says that good lighting can do more to improve a woman's looks than the most expensive of cosmetics.

The Institute suggests that women use the same lighting techniques long known to photographers, artists and stage technicians.

"Proper lighting erases facial lines and shadows, puts highlights in your hair, and makes the complexion seem softer and younger looking," said the Institute.

The trick: use balanced, diffused lighting, with carefully chosen downlight for dramatic effect. But avoid at all costs a strong direct light coming from one side of the face.

"Don't make the mistake of sitting next to a small lamp which is the only source of light in the room," the Institute advised. "Coming from one direction, this type of lighting creates shadows, emphasizes lines, and makes the skin look rough and aged."

Indirect light, cast on ceiling and walls which then reflect it back into the room, is most desirable, the experts said.

As important as the source and kind of light is its color. The most complimentary to skin tones, as well as to dress and accessory colors, the Institute said, is magenta hue.

"But whatever you do, keep the lights on if you want to catch your man," the Institute concluded.

Meeting Conducted By New Officers; Band Gives Numbers

Camp White—New officers presided at a meeting of Camp White Veterans of Foreign Wars post Wednesday evening. A program also was furnished by members of Eve Prentice's accordion band. Mothers of band members furnished refreshments.

The entertainment included solos, duets and musical selections.

Participating were Sandra Charters, Virginia Walters, Sharon Roberts, Sandra Buxton, Oleta Waldon, Karen Britton, Patsy Eckel, Jean Drysdale, Ramona Schroeder, Sharon Thompson, Beverly Lunze, Marilyn Fanger, Richard Cooper and Lynn Miller.

Meat Budget Takes Six Per Cent Slice

Chicago—(U.P.)—Americans spend between five and six per cent of their disposable income for meat.

The American Meat Institute reports that $37.52 of the $633 disposable income per person was spent for meat during the 1926-30 period. This amounted to 5.9 per cent.

Since 1950, disposable income has averaged $1,446, and $81 or 5.6 per cent has gone for meat.

Ambassador Solves Problem By Bringing Only One Wife

Washington—(U.P.)—The capital's diplomats and hostesses are somewhat relieved to hear that Pakistan's new ambassador is bringing only one wife here.

They had been in a dither ever since Mohammed Ali, a man with two wives, was appointed ambassador to the United States. Two wives are such a problem for protocol and etiquette.

The picture of what Ali's marital status would do to the seating arrangement at a dinner party was more than some hostesses cared to contemplate.

This dilemma, however, has apparently been solved. According to reports from Pakistan, only wife No. 2 will accompany the ambassador to Washington this fall.

Ali's first wife, 36, is well known here. She was the ambassador's sole mate when he was an envoy here once before in 1952-53.

Wife No. 2, 30, is not so well known. Two years ago she was the ambassador's social secretary.

Alli, who is permitted four wives under Moslem law, could bring both spouses here if he wished. Because of diplomatic immunity he is not subject to U.S. anti-polygamy laws.

But he apparently prefers to travel with only one. His Ca-

Hold Party

Young people of St. Mark's Episcopal church held a swimming party and outdoor supper last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berthold Barnum, South Pacific highway. About 30 attended.

The group was accompanied by the Rev. Robert Burger, assistant rector of the church.

Church Rites Wed Pair In Medford

Miss Helen Ruann Chrisman and John Kenneth Newton were married August 7 in double-ring rites read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at First Methodist church. The Rev. J. Thomas Dixon officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by a brother, Ralph L. Chrisman, here from San Diego for the occasion. Her gown was designed with a lace bodice and tulle skirt, and she wore a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of white and pink roses.

Miss Martha Ann Gosnell, Tiller, was the maid of honor. She wore a green gown of net. Miss Valerie Bailey, Seattle, Wash., the bridesmaid was dressed in a gown of yellow net, and both carried orchid gladiolus bouquets.

Dwight V. Sullivan, Talent, was best man and seating the guests was James R. Newton, brother of the bridegroom.

Orchid and white gladiolus were used to decorate the church.

The reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Newton, route 1, box 243, Talent.

The couple is living at 518 South Oakdale avenue after traveling along the northern California coast.

The bride is employed at Bear Creek orchards. She attended North High school at Denver and is a University of Oregon graduate.

The bridegroom also attended the University of Oregon, as well as Southern Oregon college and Talent High school. He is employed at Ross Lumber company.

Guests Here

Mrs. H. B. Janes, 2527 Capital avenue, has as her house-guests her son, W. Dolph Janes, his wife and their daughter, Alice Janes, from Eugene, and Harris B. Janes, and his wife, here from Boulder, Colo. The visitors arrived this week end and will be here for several days.

Smith Family Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith and son, Danny, 1542 Grand avenue, arrived home the end of the week after being on a week's vacation. They visited Mr. Smith's brother, Howard Smith, and family at Pocatello, Ida., and from there the travelers went to Yellowstone park.

In El Cerrito, Calif., they were with Mrs. Smith's brother, Charles Mee, a former resident, and his family. At San Francisco, the Smiths attended the ice follies. En route to California they stopped at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Adarel Chapter To Show Picture

Jacksonville—Members of Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will view a picture, "Third Step," when they meet Thursday, September 1 at 6:30 p.m. A potluck dinner will be served.

The film depicts life and activities in the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove, and is jointly produced by the home endowment fund committees of the grand lodge, AF and AM, and the grand chapter of the OES.

Mrs. John Pond is a member of the home endowment fund committee. Mrs. Charles Coggins is worthy matron of the Adarel chapter.
