Landy's Mother Answers Questions

Washington (U.P.)—A grey-haired mother, whose Communist activities cost her son a naval reserve commission, answered House investigators' questions today on her alleged efforts to recruit New Jersey farm workers for the Communist party.

Mrs. Deborah Landy, mother of Merchant Seaman Eugene Landy, was questioned for two hours by a House Un-American Activities Subcommittee at a secret session. The chairman said she testified that only yesterday did she cancel her subscription to the Daily Worker Communist newspaper.

Walla Walla Convicts Face Criminal Charge

Walla Walla (U.P.)—Twenty convicts at the state penitentiary here were facing criminal charges ranging from kidnaping to prison riot today as a result of the July 5-6 revolt within the prison walls.

County Prosecutor Arthur Hawman Saturday afternoon charged 11 of the convicts with first degree kidnaping, conspiracy to kidnap, and prison riot. Seven other prisoners were charged with conspiracy to kidnap and prison riot, and two were charged with two counts of prison riot.

Hawman said he believed the charges were the first kidnaping counts ever applied to prison inmates involved in riots and the holding of hostages. If found guilty of kidnaping, the convicts could be sentenced to death.

Nina Bell Emery Rites At Ashland on Tuesday

Ashland—Funeral services for Nina Bell Emery, who died Saturday at a local hospital, will be held Tuesday, August 30, at 10 a.m. in Litwiller Mountain View Chapel here. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery.

The deceased was born on April 24, 1874, in Ashland, the daughter of the late pioneer Henry S. Emery. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church and the Ashland Pioneer society.

Survivors include two sisters, Hazel E. Emery, Ashland, and Mrs. C. R. Loshier, Portland, three nieces and two nephews.

WALL STREET

New York (U.P.)—Industrial shares on the Stock Exchange registered their fifth advance today on lower volume.

Gains in the industrial group ranged to more than a point. Metals, chemicals and steels met good demand. Automobiles, however, mover irregularly.

The rails did little. Utilities also held in a narrow range. Dow Jones Averages: 30 industrials 464.37 up 0.67; 20 railroads 156.50 off 0.61; 15 utilities 66.18, up 0.11, and 65 stocks unchanged.

Sales today totaled 1,910,000 shares compared with 2,200,000 Friday.

Truman Through With Strenuous Campaigns

Mackinac Island, Mich. (U.P.)—Former President Harry S. Truman said today he's through with "strenuous campaigning" but wants to be "of some help" to the Democrats in the 1956 political campaign.

Mr. Truman, 71, commented on his expected role in the coming campaign while taking a brisk early morning walk along the shores of this resort island.

When asked by a reporter if he has considered reentering active political life, such as seeking a U.S. Senate seat, Mr. Truman replied, "I've been in elective public office for 30 years, and that's long enough."

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—NINE

Mailbox Explosion Being Investigated

Vancouver, Wash. (U.P.)—Police today were investigating a mysterious explosion which shattered a mailbox belonging to Ira M. Cresat of Battleground Saturday night.

Force of the blast shook windows of neighboring homes, police said. Cresat was not at home when it occurred.

Clark county sheriff's deputies said the blast disintegrated the sheet steel mailbox and shattered a rock at the bottom of the post.

A neighbor said he had seen a new, black automobile in front of the Cresat residence shortly before the blast.

Group of Engineers Tours Toketee Area

More than 100 members of the Professional Engineers of Oregon including 25 persons of the Rogue Valley chapter, viewed the California Oregon Power Co., developments on the North Umpqua river last week end, according to Robert L. Lee, chapter president here.

They visited the power projects on the North Umpqua and Clearwater rivers as guests of Copco. The trips included inspection of work on Toketee Falls and Lemolo I and II on the Umpqua and Slide Creek and Soda Springs projects also on the main river. Lee said. Two projects on Fish creek, both part of the Clearwater river system, were also visited.

Paul Christerson, state president, greeted the band of engineers with a short talk during a dinner-business meeting Saturday night, Lee said. J. L. Boyle, Copco manager, answered questions from the engineers on different phases of project operations.
