Industry Reviews Trends in Shoes For School Wear

New York—Here is a brief run-down on what you and your youngsters will find in the shoe shops this fall.

Leather pumps are a big thing for little girls. The single strap shell silhouette is still the most popular single type in dress and party shoes. Little girls' feet will really twinkle in the new water leather pumps. Patent, of course, is a perennial in girls' party shoes, but printed leathers, metallic finishes and the lusters are taking some of the play away from it.

For school shoes, fine crushed grains and soft suede leathers are most popular. Suedes are used in some school shoes, frequently in combination with smooth leathers.

Boys' shoes—more than ever—follow Father's. Tassel ties, gored slip-ons, loafers, wing-tips and U-wings are most popular. Low-top lines in two-eyelet styles will probably be the most sought after shoe among boys this fall.

The brown family is still Number 1 with boys, although black is coming up fast. Black leather is making a comeback mainly because of the greys and blues which are being featured in boys' suits. Cordovan color—which is a sort of happy medium—is also being shown widely.

The most popular leathers are the fine grains. They are being used in both dress and sports shoes. An innovation is high-walled leather welting—which adds a real fashion not to the sturdy boys' oxford.

Jacksonville—Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Pence will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, September 4. The couple will hold open house at their home, 601 C street, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock and friends are invited to call. The Pences are longtime residents of this area.

Registration of Students Starts

Rogue River—Registration is now under way for students attending Rogue River schools this year. Registration will end Sept. 2 at the high school, and classes will start full day sessions Sept. 9.

Fees totaling $9.50 should be paid by students at time of registration. John Harr, new superintendent of Rogue River schools pointed out books cannot be issued until fees are paid. One new grade school teacher will join the Rogue River faculty this year. She is Mrs. Elizabeth West, who taught at Gold Hill last year. She will teach a small combination class of third and fourth grade.

Harr said the combination class was necessary because of an increase in enrollment.

Anniversary of State Library Observed in Salem This Week

Salem—All Oregonians are invited to attend an open house at the Oregon State library, Salem, Thursday, September 1 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, announces that the event is being held to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the state library. Outlines for self guided tours will be distributed and guests will have an opportunity to visit all departments and examine special exhibits which will illustrate the services and holdings of the State library.

Cornelia Marvin, later the wife of Governor Walter Pierce, was the "pioneer spirit" who brought to the state the early inspiration and determination that books and the opportunity of reading should be made available to the most isolated areas of the state. Mrs. Pierce once commented that "The really distinctive and unique feature of our Oregon system was the beginning (the first in the country) of package libraries for debaters and speakers, and the practice of sending books throughout the state by mail."

Fifty years later the state library has grown to include legislative reference, the state archives, school reference, and advisory services to public libraries. Direct service to Oregonians who do not have access to a local library, and supplementary services to existing libraries remain of primary importance. Requests for material come from the rancher at Halfway, the forest ranger at Unity, the bee keeper at Sisters. Patrons not only want books to read during their recreation hours, but assistance in their businesses, vocations, or hobbies. "When were rotary egg beaters invented," "how do you prepare budgets for a small town," or "under the state mineral laws, how do you file a claim." Hundreds of letters are received each week demonstrating that Oregonians turn to the State library for answers to their personal problems.

The newly appointed board of trustees, authorized in the 1955 Legislative assembly will be introduced. Members recently appointed by Governor Paul Paterson are Mrs. George W. Felkins and Stewart H. Holbrook, Portland; Steph E. Prothero, Hermiston; Mrs. A. T. Fox, North Bend; Mrs. Warren McMinimee, Tillamook; Mrs. Alford (Eva A.) Moore, Tigard, and William H. Carlson, director of libraries of the Oregon State system of Higher Education, and librarian of Oregon State college, Corvallis. John S. Richards, president of the American Library association and librarian of Seattle Public library, and Dr. Carl W. Hintz, president of the Oregon Library association, University of Oregon librarian, will be the guests of honor the evening of September 1 at the state library.

Luncheon Held

Trail—Mrs. A. B. Clark of Big Butte creek, Trail, entertained at her home Thursday, August 25, with a luncheon honoring Mrs. Reuber Scott of Cave Junction, a former resident of Shady Cove, who is visiting in this area. Guests present were Mrs. D. W. Cain, Mrs. Earl Wood, and Mrs. Clark's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Donald Clark, all of Eagle Point, and the honored guest, Mrs. Scott.

Nearly one out of every ten cars now is assembled on the West Coast.

Dream" and "Henry IV," to H. Paul Kliss for "Macbeth" and Robert B. Loper for "Timon of Athens," and "All's Well That Ends Well."

Credit also goes to Douglas A. Russell, who was customer for the seventh season, and his assistant, Agnes David; to Frank L. Sullivan, the festival's technical director, and his assistant, Ed Brubaker. W. Bernard Windt is credited with directing music, and Richard Graham as director of make-up.

Shakespeare's plays as produced by the association with competent players and technical assistance are an asset to Southern Oregon, and productions can be rated among the select few which are staged today as they were in the Elizabethan theatre. —E.H.A.
