WIFE in Kingman, Ariz., Mrs. F. K. Miers is charged by husband as they face charge of slaying Donald E. Graham, 60. (International)

Ex-Convict, Wife Arrested for Murder

Palm Springs, Calif. — (U.P.) — Ex-convict Robert K. Miers, 29, and his wife, Michel, 24, will face a preliminary hearing Sept. 6 on charges they robbed and killed city building inspector Donald E. Graham. The Baldwin Park, Calif. couple, parents of four young children, pleaded innocent to the charges yesterday when they were arraigned before justice court Judge Eugene Theureau. Graham, a 60-year-old widower, was beaten to death in his home here early Friday morning. Miers and his wife were returned here from Arizona where they had fled with their children. A coroner's jury ruled Graham died from injuries received from blows by Miers. Police said Miers admitted hitting the victim with his fist, but claimed Graham struck the first blow.

New York — (U.P.) — A current publication features an article by the Treasurer of the United States. Its title: "Poverty Never Made Us Poor."
