

OUT-OF-TOWN ENTRIES ARRIVING FOR SOUTHERN OREGON GOLF MEET

Out-of-town contestants, who'll make up the bulk of the field, continued to arrive today for the Southern Oregon Golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club. They'll contend Thursday in qualifying rounds to determine their positions in flights for matches which open Friday for men and Saturday for women.

Matches conclude on Monday, Labor day, with 36 hole finals in both men's and women's championship flights and 18 holes in all other brackets.

Approximately 30 per cent of the visiting participants had arrived by yesterday. About 130 of the 224 men's entries and 50 of the 63 women will be from other clubs. There will be contestants from Colorado, Nevada, Washington and California as well as from many communities from throughout western Oregon.

Practice Rounds
Rogue Valley Club Manager George Harrington reported that out-of-towners have been arriving faster and earlier than for past tournaments. The visitors will participate in practice rounds today while Rogue Valley men complete their advance qualifying. Local ladies not aiming for championship play finished qualifying play yesterday. Other RV women will qualify with the out-of-towners tomorrow.

Registrations indicate a record entry and the field for men looks to be one of the fastest in history of the Southern Oregon classic which will be in its 28th season. There is no particular men's favorite.

Among rivals for Provost's crown are Phil Getchell, Medford runner-up last year, Air Force Lt. Bob Atkinson, winner in 1951 and 1952; Eddie Simmons, Medford, six times SO champion; Dick Bailey, Redding, ex-Northern California champion; and Art Abrahamson, Everett, Wash., low amateur this year in the Northwest Open, and Bob Prall, Salem, Oregon Golf association medal victor. But there are a host of other men capable of capturing the diadem, including a good number of the Medford entries.

Bailey and Wendell Wissler, Medford, have had two under par 70s in practice and Larry Butler, Medford, has carded a 71. Foremost among the women's entries is Carole Jo Kabler, Sutherlin. She is the reigning national junior and Oregon junior and senior women's champion. There also will be Mrs. W.

W. Davies, seven times winner of the Southern Oregon, and Mrs. Richard Grubbs, Mrs. Ray Scott, Mrs. Ben Dolp and Miss Rose Mary Killen from the Portland area.

Sixty-four men and 16 women will compete in championship flights. Fight for top-seeded honors is a feature of qualifying play. Justin Smith Jr., Medford, and Miss DeVoe were medalists last year. Sue won a play-off with Mrs. Scott for the honors.

Pennsylvania Lifts Boxing Ban; New Code Now Law

Harrisburg, Pa. — (U.P.) — A 114-day ban on boxing in Pennsylvania was lifted today when Gov. George M. Leader signed a new boxing code into law.

Leader's signature was the signal for the Rooney-McGinley boxing club in Pittsburgh to dust off plans for a Bob Baker-Bob Satterfield heavyweight bout late next month.

The bout apparently would mark the first test of a provision of the new code that a co-promoter (International Boxing club) must take out a permit to participate in a bout. A permit now is needed for every bout.

The IBC was said to have given the provision full approval after confabs in Scranton and Philadelphia with members of the three-man State Athletic commission.
Commission Chairmen James G. Sleepy Jim Crowley and Commissioners Alfred M. Klein and Paul G. Sullivan were among boxing figures who witnessed Leader's signing of the "clean-boxing" code.

The code, planned for some time by the new commission, was speeded to completion after the governor imposed the boxing ban in the wake of the Harold Johnson-Julio Mederos fiasco in Philadelphia last May. Johnson, allegedly drugged before the bout which collapsed at the end of the second round.

A spokesman for the governor said the code will arm the commission with the "necessary tools" to make boxing a clean sport "rather than a crooked business."

The code calls for the fingerprinting of all applicants for licenses and strict standards for the "safety, health and welfare" of fighters and permits the boxing commission to suspend any fighter, manager, promoter or handler without a hearing.

The governor said an amendment prohibiting a matchmaker from having a financial interest in a boxer would be added later.

Fish Lake Stays Open To Fishing

Portland — (U.P.) — The Oregon State Game Commission said today Fish lake in the Rogue drainage area of southern Oregon will remain open to fishing, despite requests for closure by many interested persons.

The requests for closure were made because of the drawdown of the reservoir by irrigators. Fear was expressed by some conservationists that the lake might be overfished during the low water period.

The commission said, however, that it did not feel the fish in the reservoir needed further protection at this time.

HARDTOPPER SPILL—This is what can happen and frequently does when hardtop auto racers battle for prize money on various tracks about the country. Fans will be watching for similar thrills while still wishing drivers luck this week end when the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce stages its novel 24-hour marathon run at the Jackson County speedway. The affair is expected to attract as many as 120 cars and some 20 drivers for Saturday, Sunday and Monday competition. Time trials are Saturday night. Forty cars will qualify by fast time for the clock around race, which starts at 4 p.m. Saturday with the winning car to be the one completing the most laps by 4 p.m. Monday. To fill out the program for both race fans and drivers unsuccessful in qualifying for the big one, there will be consolation races Saturday night. The number will depend on the number of cars on hand. One entry has been reported from Seattle and several from Boise, Ida. Others are expected from northern California, Pendleton and the Salem-Eugene area. Queen of the event will be Jan Markstaller, Miss Portland of 1955 and Rose festival queen of 1954.

Coast Conference Gridders Begin Practice Thursday

By HAL WOOD
United Press Sports Writer
San Francisco — (U.P.) — The rush for the Rose Bowl gets under way in the West tomorrow when nearly 600 athletes in the Pacific Coast Conference start their annual fall football practice.

While the advance predictions say it will be a two-team race between Southern California and UCLA for the conference title—and only UCLA is eligible between these two for the New Year's assignment—the other teams haven't given up.

With the exception of Oregon and California, there is a great supply of experienced talent. The Webfoots will start the season with only 14 lettermen. And Coach Pappy Waldorf at Cal will have only 11 men back who earned their letters last year.

But neither Coach Len Casanova of the Webfoots nor Waldorf has lost a game yet.

"And this club of mine might surprise quite a few," says the usually pessimistic Waldorf.

All told, there are 183 lettermen returning to the nine schools. Oregon State, which has the only new coach in the conference, has the most returning experienced men—26. Southern California has 24 coming back; Washington and Washington

State 22 each. UCLA has 23, Stanford 21 and Idaho 20.

But California, which has the fewest number of returning lettermen, will have the biggest turnout for practice. The roster lists 83 men—and Waldorf hopes he might find a few diamonds in the rough in this big listing.

The new coach at Oregon State is Tommy Prothro, late of the UCLA Bruins, the club that administered a 61-0 lacing to Beavers last year. He is changing to the single wing, but that is about the only change in style or play in the entire loop.

USC, Washington and Stanford each have 70 men reporting for practice; UCLA has 60; Idaho, Oregon, Oregon State and Washington State about 50 each.

Fullback Jack Morris and Center Norm Chapman, ex-Medford high stars, will report to University of Oregon for grid drills. Both are sophomores.

Ame's, Ia. — (U.P.) — Iowa State college researchers use an electrical "activity recorder" to check when pheasant hens leave and return to their nests during incubation. Results of the study will be tabulated in hopes farmers can be induced to mow hay fields when hens are apt to be off the nests, thus cutting the fatality rate of the birds.

AAU National Champs Mix On PAL Card

Two 1955 national AAU champions, Jackie Puscas, Eugene, and George Charles, San Francisco, will be foes September 24 in the big outdoor boxing card billed by the Medford Police Athletic league.

Puscas was the lightweight champion while Charles took featherweight laurels at Kansas City, Mo.

The new pairings for the headliner bout add luster to the show. Puscas had been scheduled to meet, Luis Mollina, San Francisco.

Six other state and regional champions will be in three other top bouts.

Moyers Fighting
They will have Phil Moyer, northwest middleweight champion, going against Hank Casey, California middleweight champ; Denny Moyer, brother to Phil, a northwest welterweight champion, battling Al Connelly, California welterweight champ, and Larry Lewis, Medford's own Oregon AAU flyweight champion facing the California AAU flyweight titlist, Paul Villalobos.

There will be eight supporting bouts on the 12 bout card featuring outstanding boxers from Medford, Portland, Klamath Falls, Roseburg and Coos Bay.

Tickets for the fight are now on sale at Lamport's Sporting Goods, Brown's Club, Bohemian Club, Union Club, and Pioneer Club, Central Point, and from any police officer or member of the Moose lodge. In Grants Pass tickets can be obtained from Pacific Supply on the Williams highway. Advance tickets for the fight have been moving rapidly and fans have been urged to purchase tickets now for the best seats.

Tebbetts Praises Hersh Freeman

New York — (U.P.) — Cincinnati Manager Birdie Tebbetts insists Red Sox rejectee Hersh Freeman is "the best relief pitcher in the National league today—and perhaps in both leagues as well."

Freeman, a 27-year-old part Cherokee Indian who came to the Redlegs from the Red Sox on waivers two months ago, has more than filled the bullpen vacancy caused by Frank Smith's transfer to the Cardinals, according to Tebbetts.

"This fellow Freeman is almost too good to be true," declared the Redleg manager. "He already has worked in 44 games for us and thinks nothing of pitching in both ends of a doubleheader."
