SPORTS

Ashburn, Campanella Lead NL Batting Race

Brooklyn — (U.P.) — Richie Ashburn of the Phillies and Roy Campanella of the Dodgers now are only two points apart in their battle for the National league batting championship.

In two games against the Dodgers yesterday, Ashburn collected only one hit in eight at-bats and saw his average drop to .333.

Campanella, who went hitless in his only official at-bat, dropped to .331. Campanella had no other official at-bats yesterday because he walked twice and then was forced to leave the game when hit on the arm by a pitched ball.

Lind Florists Drop Game To Orange Team

Portland — (U.P.) — Bertha Ragan pitched a no-hit shutout last night as the Orange, Calif., Lionettes edged Portland's Erv Lind Florists 1-0 in the national women's softball championship.

In other games, the Phoenix Ramblers nudged the defending champion Fresno Rockets, 3-2 in the winner's bracket. St. Petersburg, Fla., eliminated Dayton, 7, 5-3 in the loser's bracket, and Denver beat New Orleans 3-2. Kansas City whacked Peoria 5-1 and Vancouver, B.C., overwhelmed Washington, D.C., 15-0.

Clark, Anne Quast Win Mid-Columbia Tourney

The Dalles, Ore. — (U.P.) — Ron Clark of The Dalles and Anne Quast of Marysville, Wash., were victors yesterday in the Mid-Columbia Golf Tournament here.

Clark, 28, added a 72 yesterday to his sizzling 68 of Sunday to edge Don Drieger by three strokes. Miss Quast shot a 75-77 — 152, ten strokes ahead of second place Lillian Schassen, ex-champion from The Dalles.

FARM HANDS CALLED

Baltimore — (U.P.) — Nine farmhands have been recalled by the Baltimore Orioles, but none of them will see action with the American League team this season. Reporting for spring training in 1956 will be outfielder Carl Powis from Portland; pitcher Ernie Funk from Durham; and pitchers Bill Diemer, Rhyme Duran, Don Ferrarese and Charley Locke, outfielder Jim Pisoni and infielders Whitey Quintana and Kal Segrist, all from San Antonio.

BIG CAR WINNER

Flemington, N. J. — (U.P.) — Charlie Musselman, Collegeville, Pa., driver who leads in Eastern championship point standings, drove his Traylor Offenhauser to victory Monday in the AAA Eastern Big-Car Auto races at the Flemington Fair. Musselman didn't complete the 20-lap, 10-mile event since Lew Duncan of Philadelphia, the leader crashed into a fence near the end of the race. The mishap automatically ended the race.

RACER KILLED

Shawano, Wis. — (U.P.) — Joseph Balistreri, a 25-year-old midget automobile racing driver from Milwaukee, was killed Monday when his car went out of control and struck a fence midway in the 25-mile race at the Shawano County Fair.

ASK TO RECONSIDER

Mexico City — (U.P.) — Mexican businessmen and sportsmen have petitioned President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines to reconsider his recent order suspending the 2,000-mile Pan-American Road Race.
